

Local and Personal of Deerfield

The Merner families spent Sunday with relatives in Aurora.

A pantry shower was given for Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Brusco at the Bethlehem Evangelical church parsonage, Wednesday evening, at the close of prayer meeting. Both Rev. and Mrs. Brusco were surprised at the exceptionally large attendance at prayer meeting services that evening, but were not enlightened until services were over. The party was also in celebration of Rev. Brusco's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hoffman moved Monday from the Clarence Varney house on West Deerfield avenue to Todd court. The Varneys and Mrs. Sarah Clavey are moving from Highland Park this week.

Mrs. Albert Mitchell is still confined to her bed because of rheumatism.

Miss Luella Plagge of Chicago spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Plagge.

Two photographers spent Thursday at the Deerfield Grammar school taking pictures of the children. At noon they attended the Rotary club with Mr. C. E. Bates.

Saturday, April 9, is paper collection day for Boy Scouts in Deerfield.

Circle Four met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Elmer Schmidt. Mrs. Frank Jacobs is leader of this circle of St. Paul's church.

Mrs. Edna Osborn and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stanger of Highland Park were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Thompson of Rogers Park at a musicale at Northwestern university on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Stensen of Chicago were guests at the Albert Krause home over the week-end.

Mrs. George Allison and daughter, Hazel, of Glenview, visited Mrs. J. C. Huehl on Sunday. On Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilmore and daughter, Gloria, of Chicago, were Mrs. Huehl's guests.

Mrs. Milton Frantz is entertaining at a wienie roast on Thursday (today afternoon) in Woodland park, for the members of her Sunday school class of girls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jacobson and two daughters, Dorothy and Carol, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Taylor of Glen Ellyn Thursday.

Mrs. Walter Metcalf entertained at a pioneer luncheon on Tuesday for the Deerfield Woman's club. The club now has twenty-nine members.

Mrs. William Desmond's father, Mr. William Smith, is ill at the Lake County General hospital. Mr. Smith has made his home here for several years, coming from Galien, Mich.

Mr. George Karch and his daughter, Miss Martha Karch, attended an engineers' banquet in Milwaukee on Sunday, where Mr. William Ivins received his forty-year service badge for services on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad.

Chicken thieves have been active lately in Deerfield. Several weeks ago they took three chickens from Roscoe Wessling's coop. They returned Wednesday and took five more. Mr. Wessling has four left. One or two have been disappearing each week from Theodore Knaak's coop. Locks have not prevented the thieves from entering.

Mrs. Fred LaBahn was the overnight guest of Mrs. Fred LaBahn, Sr., of Evanston, on Friday and attended a party given by the young ladies of the Bethlehem church in Evanston that day.

E. B. Jordan attended the Wilmette Rotary luncheon at the Shawnee club last Wednesday.

William Bubert transported a man, his wife and four children and their few household belongings to Rhineland, Wis., this past week-end. Double tragedy had visited the family. They were on their way to relatives in Wisconsin, in an old truck and had parked by the roadside, about 200 feet north of the Deerfield limits on Thursday evening, for their evening meal. A car crashed into them, killing Mrs. Elizabeth McGarrahan, 60, of Zion; her son, Kenneth, 30, his wife, Beatrice, 29, and their daughter, Kathleen, 4, were injured. John, 8 months old, child of the Kenneth McGarrahan, escaped injuries. Those hurt were taken to the Highland Park hospital. The owner of the truck, who is one of the vast number of unemployed, was locked up and his family was taken in by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walsh. Through Supervisor James O'Connor, the family was sent on to relatives in Rhineland the next day.

The annual meeting of the Deerfield Presbyterian church was held Wednesday evening. Dr. C. J. Davis and Mr. W. W. Clark were elected elders and the three trustees for the coming year are E. H. Selig, E. L. Vinyard and W. W. Todd. Reports of the organizations of the church were given, which showed a very good spirit prevailing in spite of the depression.

Circle Three of St. Paul's church will meet Thursday afternoon, Apr. 14, at the home of Mrs. Lidiker of Deerfield road in Highland Park.

The "Big Ten" will give a benefit dance for Herman Cooksey and Joseph McCraren on Saturday evening, April 16, at the Deerfield Grammar school.
