Pennsylvania Town Is Resorting to Old Plan of Swapping, Is Report

Saxonburg, Pa., has taken a page from ancient history to solve the economic situation — everybody's swapping.

Swapping has been going on for a year and has become so common the newspaper has incorporated a "swap column."

Butter and eggs are exchanged for merchandise at stores, for gasoline and old parts for autos, and, since the boys' band started, for musical instruments.

Coal is hauled or teaming done in exchange for horse-shoeing. Last spring ground was plowed in exchange for half the crops. Any man can get land on promise to part with one-fourth of the produce. Cabbage plants were exchanged for tomatoes and bulbs and seeds for flowers and vegetables.

Last summer crabapples went for pickles, hay for a load of straw, a gallon of buttermilk for a peck of spinach. In the fall apples were exchanged for cider for year-old hens for winter laying, apples were picked and services rendered in all lines of work for whatever the farmer had that the worker wanted.

Merchants say everybody is happy under the arrangement.

Just one swap has failed to go through—a youngster tried to trade a new baby for a mouth organ.

MANY GOLFERS PLAY AT SUNSET VALLEY

urday afternoon, but this was questioned by Mr. Kennicott. C. C. Mowbray offered to sign his card for a dime, but a dime's big money in these times.

Joe (Bobby Jones) Proctor showed up Sunday and demonstrated what watching the movie lessons can do to a man's game. Frank Russo entered on his annual reducing course Sunday morning. Reg. Hammond made his seasonal switch from Ping Pong to golf. He doesn't like to keep both games going at the same time, for the strokes are different, he says.

Doug. Hansen was hitting them far, wide and handsome from every tee. He takes like a schooner in a stiff head wind, but when he gets to the green he's poison ivy.

R. J. Mann of the fire department registered. The police department was absent.

Others Out Sunday

Mr. H. Gamlin played Sunday morning and liked it so well he brought Mrs. Gamlin over Sunday afternoon.

M. H. Walter was the first signature Sunday morning, maintaining his usual record of being first off the tee on the Sabbath.

Art Raff and Bob Landauer played Sunday morning. Bob is studying the parabolic sections of sliced tee shots. Art just plays 'em that way.

Earl Tucker became a member of Sunset Valley Sunday morning. Come early and often, Earl.

The caddies were out in full force, inspecting the new caddy house which will soon have a piazza where the boys may take their ease while waiting for a call. Let's hope they get it all out of their systems at the caddy house.

Registrations included:

B. O. Brand, Carroll Snyder, F. W. Chaffee, Leonard W. Nieter, F. McDonald, Howard Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wieberg, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Price, G. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ross, J. Blyer, W. J. Tilden, and Douglas Currie, assistant professional at Knollwood.

Winter rules are compulsory during the first few weeks of the season, as the course is still very soft.
