A Move in the Direction by Bankers

How the United system as a whole strength and stability most difficult period the subject of the of messages sponsored by the Illinois Bankers association to appear in local newspapers this week.

It is well known subjects and events before our eyes, we them distorted out of portions. We fail to picture from the institutions, or the one or two local paper headlines of week, make details the moment. But may appear very when we get all the ation and set them their proper relation.

In this series of discussed the fundamentals of banking and of co-operation between the public. Facts will be presented to the thinking re- dentally, it is one ing signs of our business situation are thinking. The teria has passed. weighed more care being turned to the back over the sho also a growing spirit. People realize today keenly than ever progress in its larger much a matter of al getting ahead as it is of all the p munity getting al working together.

That single less we really have let the one bright pe succeeded in bring out of the dark d depression.

The Illinois Ba has made a move tion and much g from its alert lead ing a better und closer co-operatio and the public.
