N. S. Garden Club Given Silver Medal

The North Shore Garden club had three exhibits in the Garden show at the Navy Pier. Mrs. A. T. Freiler and Mrs. J. S. Weinberg received the silver medal, the highest award in the class, for an arrangement of white spray orchids in a venetian glass bowl.

Mrs. Abel Davis and Mrs. Lepman received an honorable mention for their original flower composition, using blue iris, yellow calla lilies, and grafted roses.

Mrs. M. Eisenstaedt and Mrs. J. Benjamin did a lovely period mantle. They had a beautiful Georgian mantle and used Chinese chippendale ornaments with it. They had oases of pink roses on two beautiful occasional tables.

Deerfield Garden Club Meets April 20

The Garden club of Deerfield will meet Wednesday afternoon, April 20, at the home of Mrs. Henry Clifford Hawes of Brier Hill road. Mrs. William Aiken will be the assisting hostess. The topic will be "Complete Landscape Design for Deerfield Depot Grounds," with the discussion led by Mrs. Edwin A. Wood and Mrs. E. B. Jordan.

H. P. Garden Study Club Changes Meeting Date

The Highland Park Garden Study club have postponed their regular April meeting from April 18 to Monday, April 25, in order to permit their president and delegate and members who may wish to attend the annual meeting of the Garden Club of Illinois to be held on that day at the Garden club headquarters in the Palmer House at 2 p.m.

The Highland Park Garden Study club had three exhibits in the Garden Show at the Navy Pier. An arrangement of Easter lilies in a low white bowl; a pot of Fred Moore tulips in a bough container, and a special exhibit of a flower stand, entered by Mrs. Weinberg, which received an honorable mention.

You always know that spring has finally arrived when the violets appear in the woodlands and civil war breaks out again in China.
