

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Sanborn are moving this week from Highland Park to the W. H. McKillip home on Brier lane, instead of the M. H. McKillip home on Brier Hill road. Both McKillip families receive their mail in Deerfield, although Brier lane is in Highland Park. The initials, names and addresses are so similar that the families, while residing in Evanston and in this vicinity have always had difficulties. The local editor regrets the mistake.

Misses Jane and Martha Karch left for Cross Plains, Wis., on Saturday, to visit their sister, Mrs. Frank Saeman, and then motored to Milwaukee to help Jerome Saeman celebrate his fifteenth birthday anniversary at Pio Nona college, St. Francis, Wis.

Supervisor James O'Connor visits quite frequently at the home of his brother, Mr. Richard O'Connor, who was brought to his home in Highwood, by ambulance, a week ago Tuesday, from a Pontiac hospital. Mr. Richard O'Connor was in an automobile accident last month and received a spinal injury. The nurse who cared for him in Pontiac, accompanied him home and is in attendance at his residence.

Mr. and Mrs. William Voas attended a dinner last week, sponsored by the Northwestern University Dames club, in Evanston.

Miss Pearl Juhrend of Libertyville visited Mrs. Arthur Johnson of Fair Oaks avenue on Thursday.

Mrs. John Dow of Zion visited at the Peter Anderson home on Tuesday.

Miss Grace Carroll of Highwood spent several days of last week at the home of her brother, Leslie Carroll, of Somerset road.

Mrs. Paul Dietz spent several days of last week with the Dietz family in Northbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bendt have leased their home to the Harvey family and moved to Chicago on Wednesday. The Harveys have been residing in the F. K. Shrader home on Brier Hill road this past season.

Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen entertained at a luncheon bridge for twelve on Wednesday, at her home on Westgate road.

Miss Jane Warner entertained at dinner on Thursday evening at her home on West Deerfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clavey (Irene Cashmore) announce the birth of a daughter on Friday, April 8, at the Highland Park hospital.

The Get Together club met Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. John C. Huehl of Springfield avenue. Mrs. Huehl is still confined to her bed with arthritis.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully Jr., entertained the Press bridge club Saturday evening at their home on Oakley avenue.

Mr. Charles H. Francis of Woodstock visited at the Reichelt home, Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Notz, with a group of former classmates from the Chicago Normal school, attended a dinner and theater party Friday evening in Chicago.

The fire department was called out Saturday afternoon and again on Sunday to extinguish grass fires in the Dawson Woods and in Brier Hill.

Jean Pettis was the overnight guest of Retta Ree Hipsley of Northbrook on Friday.

The C. Y. O. of the Holy Cross church gave a dance at the Union hall, in Wheeling, on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Delbert Meyer, with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Denver M. Courson of Waukegan, spent the week-end in Brownstown, Ill., visiting Mrs. Meyer's father, Adam Courson, and at Centralia, Ill., with Mrs. Meyer's sister, Mrs. William Renshaw. Miss Donna Belle Jensen of Evanston, who teaches in the Wilmet school, accompanied Mrs. Delbert Meyer and the Coursons as far as Paxton, where she spent the week-end with her grandparents, returning Sunday with them.

The Schrickel family of Chicago moved into the Russell home on Stratford road, last Friday.

Mrs. Amelia Pyle and Mrs. E. J. Bingham of Chicago visited at the C. P. Bendt home, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Macdonald moved April first, from Stratford road to Evanston. Their home is now occupied by the Hartnack family of Chicago. Mr. Hartnack's parents sailed from Germany last Monday and will arrive in Deerfield in about three weeks.

The Y.P.M.C. met Tuesday evening at the Floyd Stanger home. Miss Olive Frantz conducted the lesson, with the continued study of the book, "The Rural Billian." Clifford Stanger was host.

Miss Jean Scully spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Roy Stace of Green Bay, Wis. The Staces moved from DePere, Wis. to Green Bay on March 1.

There will be no school on Monday, April 19, and teachers will attend the annual meeting of the Lake Shore division of the Illinois State Teacher's association at Oak Park. The Deerfield Grammar school will be open until 9 a.m. that day for the weekly sandwich collection.

Mrs. Dan Hunt was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green of Western Springs on Wednesday.

The Independent Social club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Morton of Highland Park.

Miss Ruth Jackson entertained at a party, on Saturday evening, at her home on Warrington road. Guests were from Chicago, Highland Park, Lake Forest and Deerfield.

Mrs. C. C. Brackett of Wilmet road, Bannockburn, spoke on "Lilacs" at a meeting of the Ravinia Garden club, Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. M. G. Kettner.

Rev. and Mrs. Alvin P. Johnson and family of Oswego, Ill., visited friends in Deerfield last week. Rev. Johnson is a former pastor of the Deerfield Bethlehem Evangelical church.

Mrs. C. E. Piper will entertain her luncheon bridge club next Friday at her home of Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and children have returned from Spring Hill, West Virginia, to their home on Landwehr road, where they spent the winter. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Effis Kress are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds were guests on Saturday evening at the Julia Rocquier home in Gurnee.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Holmes, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Hutchison of Waukegan, spent Sunday with the Misses Smith of Aurora.

The Rev. Dr. John Leuder of Elmhurst, who was pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church, Deerfield, during the World war, performed a wedding ceremony on Saturday afternoon, April 9, which united in marriage his granddaughter, Helene Leuder and Frank Wardecker of Waukegan, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Leuder of Chicago. The young couple were graduated from the University of Illinois last June. The bride's father is postmaster of Chicago.

Mrs. Carl Hertel and son Herbert visited at the Albert Wildhagen home in Prairie View, last Monday. Guests from Arlington Heights, Half Day and Deerfield gathered at the home of Mrs. George Pettis, on Sunday, to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Arthur Wagner and little daughter Julianne spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week with relatives in Lake Geneva, Wis.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., was re-elected secretary of the Highland Park Mosquito Abatement district at a recent meeting. Other officers who were re-elected are: President, Robert W. Larke of Highland Park; treasurer, Mrs. C. W. Balke of Ravinia; trustees, Harold W. Norman of Bannockburn, and Arthur M. Lowrie of Ravinia.

The Harry Stuppel family returned to their home on Greenwood avenue last week, after spending the winter at the home of Mr. Stuppel's parents in Highland Park, while the latter were sojourning in the south. William Hanson of Bannockburn and Wallace Reichelt have returned to Lake Forest college, after their spring vacations spent with their respective parents.

Mrs. E. H. Selig entertained her luncheon bridge club on Wednesday (yesterday) at her home on Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Boyer entertained out of town guests on Sunday at their home on Deerfield avenue.

E. H. Selig has recovered from his recent illness.

The Deerfield-Shields High School Parent-Teacher association is meeting Thursday afternoon (today) in the school cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Wallach have moved from Beech lane, Ravinia, to 1125 Hazel avenue, Deerfield.

It is interesting to know that the police, in covering the entire town on one round, travel twenty-eight miles each trip.

Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Meyer.

Betty Wilcox and her cousin Mary Thayer, who were injured in an automobile accident, Easter Sunday, have returned home from the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wessling spent Sunday at the Ira Fehr home in Freeport, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hout will entertain their bridge club next Wednesday evening at their home on Warrington road.

Troop One of the Deerfield Girl Scouts gave a party Thursday evening at the Deerfield Presbyterian church. The four patrols had arranged an enjoyable program. The "Blazing L" and the "Shooting Star" patrols presented a circus side show, with the usual attractions: the sword swallower, the fat lady, the Siamese twins, tricksters, hakers, etc., with June Nelson as circus leader. All were in costume and their performance provoked much merriment. The "Bobolink" and "Pup" patrols dramatized the poem, "Lochinvar," attired in Scotch costumes. It was both educational and interesting. Twenty-four Girl Scouts of the troop attended, with their leaders Mrs. V. W. Spriggs and Mrs. Roy Albertson. Ice cream, sandwiches and cookies disappeared in astonishing quantities.

The Vernon Ridge Country club, on Saunders road, just west of Deerfield, is now a daily fee club, which offers many advantages for local golf enthusiasts.

A play entitled, "Deacon Dubbs" will be presented by the Tri C society on Friday, April 29, at the Deerfield Grammar school. A detailed account of the cast of characters will be given in next week's Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Boone of Stratford road entertained out of town guests on Sunday.

Mrs. George Pettis and Mrs. E. H. Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. Swan Johnson and Mrs. Stanley Johnson of Half Day road, attended a shower, on Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. William Milligan of Arlington Heights, given in honor of Mrs. Lloyd Bach.

Mrs. Mary Koebelin is visiting at the Fred Mohrbach home in Winnetka, this week.

Mrs. Ambrose Montavon of the Green Tree Inn, West Lake Forest, entertained on Friday afternoon. Her guests from Deerfield were Mrs. Mary Koebelin, Mrs. J. C. Willman, Mrs. Virginia Hicks, Mrs. C. M. Willman and Mrs. Louis Oberrauch.

Mr. and Mrs. Sikes and little son have come here from Arkansas and are staying at Mrs. Mary Beardley's home on Osterman avenue. Mr. Sikes is employed by the Meyer Construction Co.

Mrs. E. J. Brusio is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Oberg of Chicago.

The house formerly occupied by the Jack Myers family on Rosemary terrace, has been rented to Mr. and Mrs. C. Barnett of Maywood. John A. Hoffman was the real estate broker.

Mrs. Peter Perry was hostess to members of the Rainbow and Sunshine circles on Wednesday (yesterday) at her home on Rosemary terrace.

The R. Sunday at t in Chicago.

Miss Dor from a vis grandmothe Downer's G

Richard M with influen

Misses M ningen, Cha Clark return to Washing

Mrs. John Forest was Trute of W

Mr. and M Forest aven on Monday e Miss. B. Bak

Mrs. Carl Ind., spent 1 and relatives

Mr. John C been visiting C. Love, this

The Gaylor Iowa, the Wa Lake Forest a Chicago are of the Pattlo North Chestn

wood avenue. are occupying houses on Haz Burnett house has been rent people. The T cago will occu home on Oster were made by The People's Fruit store wh erated by Will liam Desmond, ness.

Mrs. Marger fered a heart slightly improv Miss Beatric spent Sunday v

Carl Witt at Park Rotary el at the Moraine

Miss Isabel l land Park spent mother, Mrs. F.

Isabel left Sa Ranch, near P where she will s

The Fred La with relatives in

The Clarence moved from Hig home on West formerly occupie John A. Hoffman

Miss Frances sented a group pills in a practic Friday at the De church, and gave harmony, sight cisms. Those P Jane Agnew, Bett

Bahr, Jean Boyle Charles Kapschu Agneta Larson, and Cynthia Ann

Ashman had pre cital, but was in her parents.

Ada Vinyard wa Deerfield-Shields

dents to share in miniature houses a junior exhibits at in Chicago. She r mention. Rudolph Notz c Sunday at the hom

J. R. Notz.