

The R. D. Reeds family spent Sunday at the R. V. Hutchison home in Chicago.

Miss Dorothy Vetter has returned from a visit at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. J. Rehr of Downer's Grove.

Richard Merner has been very ill with influenza.

Misses Mabel Ablard, Grace Ronningen, Charlotte Brand and Lois Clark returned Friday from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. John Carolan of West Lake Forest was the guest of Mrs. Otto Trute of Wilmot road on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Voas of Forest avenue were dinner guests on Monday evening at the home of Miss B. Baker of Winnetka.

Mrs. Carl Mau of Calumet City, Ind., spent Friday visiting friends and relatives in Deerfield.

Mr. John Carroll of Highwood has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Martha C. Love, this past week.

The Gaylord family of Des Moines, Iowa, the Walter Hoffmans of West Lake Forest and the Cook family of Chicago are now occupying three of the Pattlock-Tennant houses on North Chestnut street and Greenwood avenue.

The Marvin Wallachs are occupying one of the Stearns houses on Hazel avenue. The George Burnett house on Osterman avenue has been rented to Highland Park people.

The Tillman family of Chicago will occupy the Fred Sallach home on Osterman avenue. Rentals were made by John A. Hoffman.

The People's Cash Market and Fruit store which was recently operated by Willard Benson and William Desmond, has gone out of business.

Mrs. Margaret Freese, who suffered a heart attack recently, is slightly improved.

Miss Beatrice Huyg of Chicago spent Sunday with Miss Helen Cox.

Carl Witt attended the Highland Park Rotary club noonday meeting at the Moraine hotel, last Monday.

Miss Isabel Biederstadt of Highland Park spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. F. C. Biederstadt.

Miss Isabel left Saturday for Valley Ranch, near Pecos, New Mexico, where she will spend the summer.

The Fred LaBahns spent Sunday with relatives in Evanston.

The Clarence Varney family moved from Highland Park to their home on West Deerfield avenue, formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hoffman.

Miss Frances Biederstadt presented a group of her younger pupils in a practice piano recital on Friday at the Deerfield Presbyterian church, and gave classes in keyboard harmony, sight reading and criticisms.

Those participating were Jane Agnew, Betty Bruner, Lorraine Bahr, Jean Boyle, Beverly Craggs, Charles Kapschull, Carl Kinley, Agneta Larson, Gladys Scheskie, and Cynthia Ann Walker.

Barbara Ashman had prepared for the recital, but was in New York with her parents.

Ada Vinyard was one of the three Deerfield-Shields high school students to share in the awards for miniature houses and gardens at the junior exhibits at the Garden show in Chicago.

She received honorable mention.

Rudolph Notz of Chicago spent Sunday at the home of his brother, J. R. Notz.

The Deerfield Building and Loan association met Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bleimehl of Chicago visited Deerfield relatives on Saturday.

Mrs. Emilie Glos, who has spent the past three weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Notz, returned Saturday to her home in Northbrook.

Mrs. John Vetter has as her guest her sister, Miss Rehm of Downer's Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson entertained out of town guests on Sunday, at their home on Greenwood avenue.

The Carl Stadler and E. H. Johnson homes are now out of quarantine for whooping cough.

Mrs. Grace Cottrell is entertaining her Sewing club on Thursday afternoon (today), at her home on Todd court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parsons and family and Mrs. Margaret Watson of Highwood attended a birthday party at Oakton Heights, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zimmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Trute and children visited at the Whitney Rockenbach home in Wauconda on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Voas and son Bobby enjoyed a picnic at the Forest Preserve in Evanston on Saturday. They had as their guests Mary Williams and Jean McGrae of Evanston.

Mrs. Albert Roggow entertained dinner guests on Sunday in honor of her birthday anniversary. Out of town guests were the Ritchiger and Gottslich families and Edward Clouse of Cicero and Misses Morlick and Zimmerman of Chicago.

Mrs. E. J. Long spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Churchill of Morton Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mehrrens were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Essentrot of Wilmette.

Mrs. C. M. Willman and Mrs. Ben Siljestrom attended a card party in Glenview on Friday evening, sponsored by the Glenview Chapter of the Eastern Star.

Mary Frances Anderson has tonsillitis.

Fred Hoffman of Dunlap, Ill., visited at the home of his brother, John A. Hoffman, this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Danforth of Springfield avenue, will be the guests of Mrs. Danforth's sister, Mrs. James Harper of Chicago, on Friday evening.

William White of Chicago spent Thursday and Friday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Samuel Rockenbach of Springfield avenue.

Mrs. B. J. Dickens of Chicago was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., on Sunday.

Floyd Gunckel and three daughters, June, Betty, and Verene, have moved from Waukegan to Galesburg, Ill.

Mrs. Harry Clavey and Mrs. Agnes Clavey attended a four o'clock tea on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jolley of Waukegan. It was a Len Small rally.

The Deerfield Boy Scouts collected three tons of old newspapers on Saturday. The next collection will be in June.

Miss Helen Reichelt has returned to her work in Phoenix, Ariz., after a five months illness at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Gates (Dorothy Reichelt) in Globe, Arizona.

Kenneth Wessling, who attends college at Ames, Iowa, won the quarter mile race in the Big Six meet recently, and also won the open quarter at Kansas City. Both the coach and director of athletics at Ames, state that Kenneth has a very good chance to make the United States Olympic team this year. Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wessling of Rosemary terrace. He won many honors in track while attending Deerfield-Shields.

The Sewing club of St. Paul's Evangelical church will meet Thursday afternoon, April 21, at the home of Mrs. Louis Soefker of County Line road.

Mrs. W. S. Comstock and two little sons Donald and Billy, spent the week-end at the W. D. Comstock home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gibbons and seven children have moved from Hazel avenue to a farm in Michigan.

Miss Clara Dietz of Dundee road, who is an instructor of science in the Glencoe school, underwent an operation at Mayo Brothers hospital in Rochester, Minn., the first part of this week and latest reports are that she is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamm of Saunders road announce the birth of a son, Frederick Wentworth Hamm, on Thursday, April 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Giesselbrecht of Wheeling were Sunday guests at the Richard Antes home on Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. William Steffes are moving from the Gsell house on N. Chestnut street to the home of Mrs. Henry Meyer, on May 1. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rose of Highland Park will move into the house vacated by the Steffes family. Mr. Rose is an employee of the Highland Park Press.

Miss Irene Rockenbach is one of the teachers at the six weeks course in the Leadership Training school for workers in church vacation schools being held every Tuesday evening at DeKalb. Miss Rockenbach was an instructor in a similar course at DeKalb last year. Each evening, during the school term, she is the overnight guest of her niece, Mrs. Lester Taylor of Glen Ellyn.

Misses Margaret Hunt and Hazel Miller, accompanied by Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok and two sons, returned to Deerfield Sunday evening by auto mobile from Missouri. Miss Hunt had visited her parents in Centralia, Miss Miller in Pittsville and Mrs. Piepenbrok and two sons, with relatives in New Franklin, Mo.

G. C. Dietz of Muskegon, Mich. is visiting at the Dietz home on Dundee road.

Mrs. Elmer Schmidt was hostess at cards on Monday at her home on Springfield avenue.

Miss Lydia Rockenbach and her father Orman I. Rockenbach of Lake Zurich, visited at the George Rockenbach home on Elm street, Sunday.

Mr. Jacob Ott is improving in health after a six weeks illness. Friday, April 15, (tomorrow), is Arbor day.

Rev. E. J. Brusio and John Vetter left Tuesday morning to attend the Geneseo conference of the Evangelical churches of Illinois. They will return next Monday. The discussion of reducing Deerfield's apportionment and the reclamation of the Au Plaine cemetery are of vital interest to Bethlehem Evangelical church members.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sticken visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green of Western Springs Wednesday.

RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO. Phone H. P. 178 QUALITY LAUNDERERS and DRY CLEANERS

25c Luncheon Plate HOWARD-UDELL CAFETERIA

a stitch in time— Every year at this time we try to impress upon the minds of all home owners, that this is the opportune time to have lawnmowers sharpened and repaired. Early attention to this matter assures them of ease and comfort in the cutting of their lawns during the coming summer. And, also, our assortment of parts is most complete and we can give you much quicker and better service now before the rush of last-minute repair and sharpening jobs occur. Later on as our parts assortment dwindles it will take ten days or more to expect parts from the factory. Let us save you this delay by repairing or sharpening that lawnmower of yours now! phone 3090 Lawn Mower Shop 700 CENTRAL AVENUE Highland Park, Ill.

BRING RESULTS WANT-ADS