PINE TREE PATROL PLANS CAMP-O-RAL

Our Pine Tree patrol meeting was held last Wednesday at Mr. Copp's home. Attendance and dues were taken and there were seven fellows present. We talked about paying up our dues. The most anyone owes is 55c. The next thing to come up was Camp-O-Ral. Two patrols from our troop are going to go. The Pine Tree patrol is going to try hard to be one of them.—Patrol Scribe Henry Wilder, Troop 35, Ravinia.

NEWS OF PACK 65, DEN NUMBER 1

This week our meeting was held at J. D. Zook's house. The meeting opened with the Cub Promise and Law. We talked about our hike a few weeks ago. The attendance and dues were then taken. As there weren't enough fellows present to work on tests our Den Chief, Bob Hirsch let us go out and play in the ravine. We closed the meeting with the "living circle."—Den Scribe Kelly Brent, Ravinia, Pack 65.

TROOP 32 HAS CAMP FIRE

Our weekly meeting was held Friday, April 22. After the regular opening exercises we went in the various corners to pass tests. Following this we had an imaginary campfire around which we sat and sang until dismissal.—Troop 32, Reporter Dick Clark.

MANY ATTEND SCOUT EXHIBIT

About 150 people attended the annual Northbrook Scout Exhibition held on April 16, at the Northbrook school auditorium. Scouts and Cubs from Troops 28, 61 and 73 and Cub Packs 68 and 84 made up the main part of the program.

Each troop was given a chance to put on a five minute stage stunt: Troop 28 had a very delightful trio, consisting of a concertina and two guitars. Troop 61 put on a short play called "These Fathers." Pack 68 showed how several of the Cub games are played. Pack 84 sang several humorous songs.

Among the awards presented at this exhibition were, renewal of troop charters to the three troops. Mobilization awards to Troop 61 and 73, 100 per cent Boy's Life banner to Troop 28, Gilbert Mueller of Troop 28 received a swimming merit badge. Bill Schiek of Troop 61 received a merit badge in Public Health, and Bill Scott of Troop 28 received his Second class award.

Many hobbies were displayed by the various troops and also by the Scouts and Cubs. The money collected for tickets will go to each troop, in proportion to the amount of tickets they sold, for the purpose of buying troop equipment.
