

SERVICE ON NOTES

s, Marbles,
Other Ac-
gress

Highland Park
b were guests
ness club last greatly enjoy-

of the local y 10 at Elm
feteria rooms,
Special mate program will
r of an organ-
ommittees, etc.
sored by Com-
Highland Park.
other recrea-
local citizens.

trips sponsor-ervice continue
A visitor last
s Mr. Colin C. l museum. Mr.
at of Highland
join the field

will start from y at 6 a.m. next ly will be made d fans are in-
up. Bring field
king shoes.

ntest

in marbles will sed playground page 41)

me ns

lay

DAY!

Co.

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT SUNSET VALLEY

More Than 300 Players Out
Last Sunday; Interesting Items of Doings

The season's record for week-end play was broken again last Saturday and Sunday at Sunset Valley golf course. More than 300 registrations were made, despite the cold northwest wind, and some fine golf was played.

Fourteen new members were added to the books, and nearly fifty renewals came in Saturday and Sunday. The newcomers to Sunset Valley include Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fink, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer, D. C. Chadbourne, Jack Larson, Paul Hoerman, C. C. Jones, E. M. Brown, H. A. Boling, Oscar Lindblom, Domenico Panarelli, Amadeo Picchietti and Jim Martin.

Among those who were playing for the first time this season were Arthur Cook, Charles McGregor, Dade Epstein, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Yamagata.

Bert Brand was out at half past six for a load of practice before his weekly match with Walker Flynn, former club champion. Bert figures on a lot of practice while the rest of the world is sleeping, but anyone who speaks of the w.k. tortoise and the equally w.k. hare is doing both a grave injustice.

Visitors from East

Visitors from the east played the course last Sunday included C. W. Straud of Hoylake, Mass., Jack Hocking of Brooklyn, N.Y., and D. R. Dougherty of Washington, D.C.

Doug Hanson found the new eleventh quite interesting Sunday, and solved the old problem as to how a man should have seven blows before

(Continued on page 38)

Funeral Services
for Henry F. Clow Held on Friday

Henry F. Clow, formerly a resident of Highland Park, Ill., for 30 years, died suddenly in Los Angeles, Calif., April 26, and was buried there April 29. He leaves to survive him his wife, Pauline, two sons, Delmer and Ervin, a daughter, Florence Reeder and three grandchildren, Leonard, Dolores and Gordon, by whom he is remembered as a loving, devoted husband and father.

He will be remembered by a host of friends in and near Highland Park. Many may recall him as a baker with the late Frank Green about 1905. Later he was a conductor on the North Shore line for many years—leaving that occupation to become a groceryman—operating the Royal Blue store at Green Bay road and Second street.

During the World war he served in the navy, acting as Commissary Steward at Camp Perry — Great Lakes.

While an employee of the North Shore line he organized the Trowel club of which he was a life member.

Leaving Highland Park in 1930, he entered the grocery business in Los Angeles, Calif., and at the time of his death—caused by a nervous breakdown, his wife, his two sons, and his daughter were at his side.

He was a member of the A. O. Fay lodge No. 676 since 1906 and served as Master in 1923. During the time Mr. Clow served in the chairs of A. O. Fay lodge he had the honor of raising his two sons, Delmer and Ervin Clow. He had been an active member of the Royal Arch Masons, the Waukegan Commandery, the Mystic Workers of the World, Royal Arcanum and Campbell chapter Order Eastern Star in which he served at Patron for two years. He was also a member of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce and American Legion.

Burial services were conducted at the cemetery by the Masonic brethren, with the American Legion members also in attendance. The services at the funeral chapel were conducted by the Rev. Stewart of the Culver City Presbyterian church. During the chapel services the casket was draped with the American Flag authorized to be used by the U. S. Government.

Six former Highland Park residents were pallbearers. Charlie Stoker, Clyde Haefele, Otzel Sheaffer, Wm. Noerenberg, Jim Economos, Arthur Pratt.

Surviving him outside of his immediate family are two sisters, Mrs. Rose Sterling of St. Louis and Mrs. Martha Donley of Oak park, and two brothers, Charles Hoopes of Maywood and Fred Tucker of Highland Park. Another brother, George Tucker passed away in 1930.

GARNETT'S

NEXT SUNDAY IS

MOTHER'S DAY

Only the best is truly in keeping with the spirit of the day. Your gift chosen from our extensive stocks is certain to be of the high quality you wish to give.

WE SUGGEST:

- Fine Cape Skin Gloves $1.95
- Hand-sewn Fabric Gloves $1.00
- Hand-blocked Scarfs $1.00
- Finest Chiffon Hose $1.35
- Full-fashioned Mesh Hose $1.00
- Fashionable Hand Bags $1.95 - $2.95
- Hand-painted Bed Spreads $2.95-$3.95
- Finest Silk Lingerie $2.95
- Hand-painted Linen Table Cloths $1-$2
- Attractive Wash Frocks $1.95
- Silk Blouses $1.95
- Skinner's Pure Dye Silk $1.95 yd.

GLENCOE

RIDING SCHOOL

Saddle Horses $1 per hr.

In order to put horseback riding within the reach of curtailed incomes, we have reduced our rates. Private lessons from experienced instructors, $2.00 per hour.

BOARD HORSES
Box Stalls $30 per month
Standing Stalls $25 per month

Hunters — Saddle Horses County Line Road — between Green Bay and Waukegan Roads

NEW LOW PRICES!

Lifetime Guaranteed

GOODYEAR SPEEDWAY

Supertwist Cord Tires

CASH PRICES

Full Oversize	Price of Each	Each in Pairs	Tube
29x4.40-21	$3.95	$3.83	.91
29x4.50-20	4.30	4.17	.91
30x4.50-21	4.37	4.23	.91
28x4.75-19	5.12	4.97	.94
29x4.75-20	5.20	5.04	.91
29x5.00-19	5.39	5.23	1.00
30x5.00-20	5.45	5.29	1.14
31x5.00-21	5.72	5.56	1.16
28x5.25-18	6.15	5.97	1.02
31x5.25-21	6.63	6.43	1.16
30x3 1/2 Reg. Cl.	3.57	3.46	.86

ELM PLACE SERVICE STATION

Corner Elm Place and First Street - Phone H. P. 5555

Good Used Tires $1, $1.50 up. Expert Vulcanizing

Tune in Goodyear Radio Programs

KYW Wed. at 8 pm