

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

The C. C. Fehr restaurant has moved from the Zeiss building back to its former location just north of Knaak's Drug store on Waukegan road. Miss Heman, who has had a restaurant in the Knaak building, is now erecting a store on her property on South Waukegan road, where she will continue in the restaurant business. C. C. Benz, whose wife has a restaurant across from the Reliable Garage, will open another cafe in the Zeiss building, from which the Fehrs are moving.

Bus service between Deerfield and Highland Park has been discontinued.

Mrs. Chester Wolf was the guest of her brother, Mr. Elbert O. Wilson of Racine, Wis., on Sunday.

The Arthur Wagners entertained guests from Lake Geneva, Wis., on Sunday, at their home on Woodward avenue.

Boy Scouts of Troop 51 are planning a hike and will camp out over night at the River Woods on the property owned by Walter T. Fisher of Hubbard Woods. The site is ideal for camping and there is a fresh water spring on the land.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cruickshank had as their week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Evanson and family of Chicago.

Miss Stella Cunely of Chicago was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Minorini of Greenwood avenue on Sunday.

Messrs. Carl Bates and Carl Witt attended a meeting of the Wilmette Rotary club on Wednesday at the Shawnee Country club.

Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr. left Tuesday to spend several days of this week with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Stace of Green Bay, Wis.

Mrs. Anna Notz and family of Chicago and Mrs. Emilie Glos of Northbrook were Sunday dinner guests at the J. R. Notz home.

Mrs. Fred LaBahn spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. James Doherty of Chicago.

John Derby, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Derby of Journal place, who attends DePauw university, was an honor student last semester, having no grade below 90.

Joseph Selvicky has moved into the former James O'Connor farm house in Bannockburn, which is now owned by W. L. Wallace of Chicago. Mr. Selvicky is a clarinetist in the Fort Sheridan band.

The Schneider family moved last week from the Bruggman house to Otto Knaak's residence on Fair Oaks avenue.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson will entertain the members of the Tuesday Evening Sewing club at her home on Chestnut street next week.

Mrs. Rouse of Waukegan spent Thursday at the Charles Rouse home on West Central avenue.

The Just Sew club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Clark of Deerfield avenue.

Mrs. W. B. Carr has had as her guest the past two weeks her sister, Mrs. Roebert Fauchier of Chicago.

On Friday morning, May 6, two films, "West Indies" and "Land of Evangeline" will be shown at the Deerfield Grammar school for the children.

Mrs. Frank Saeman and little daughter returned to their home in Cross Plains, Wis. on Wednesday, after a visit with Mrs. Saeman's four sisters and her father, Mr. George Karch.

The Altar and Rosary society will meet Friday evening, May 6, at the Holy Cross Parish hall.

Mrs. Catherine Ender is keeping open house today, Thursday, May 5, very informally, for friends and relatives at her lovely home, Claremount place, in honor of her eighty-seventh birthday anniversary.

William Seiler is seriously ill in the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaBahn visited with Mr. LaBahn's mother in Evanston on Wednesday to Friday of last week.

Mrs. Jacob Pfeiffer of Evanston addressed the teachers and church workers of the Deerfield Presbyterian church school Tuesday evening, following a dinner at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson and two children and Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. George Pettis were guests on Sunday at the Arthur Gathmann home in Itaska, Ill.

Mrs. Richard Sims, Mr. and Mrs. George Sims and daughter Marion of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr., on Saturday.

The Frost News Agency, which distributes all Chicago newspapers in the village, has started a new method of collection. Paper boys will collect the bills each week from those on their routes, instead of the monthly statement sent out formerly by the proprietor, Herman Frost. The new system of collecting money begins on Saturday, May 7.

Mr. Carl Stadler and his mother motored to Bement, Ill. on Thursday, where the senior Mrs. Stadler will remain for the summer. Mr. Stadler, who spent the week-end there, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Selig of Chicago spent Sunday with Mr. Selig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Selig of Waukegan road. Mr. and Mrs. William Schley and family of Libertyville were also guests.

Mrs. Edward Juhrend spent Sunday at the Peter Juhrend home.

E. B. Jordan will attend the State Rotary convention at Rock Island on May 11 and 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frey and two children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Frey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frey of McHenry.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Dondanville (Eva Ender) of Moline, Ill., have a son born last Wednesday.

Pietro Marchi of Highland Park was soloist at the ten o'clock mass at the Holy Cross Catholic church last Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Hertel and son Herbert of Chestnut street visited at the Albert Wildhagen home in Prairie View on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Selig of Jr., spent Sunday with Mr. Volkman's parents in Mundelein.

John J. Rink, Democratic precinct committeeman for Precinct two in Deerfield, was a member of the Lake county delegation at the Democratic State convention which closed last Friday in Springfield.

The Mothers club of the Wilmot school will meet Thursday afternoon, May 12, in the school.

The Eben Erikson family on Rosemary terrace is now out of quarantine for whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer (Bess Schilstra) at New Florence, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Oellig of Wilmette on Sunday.

Wallace Reichelt is chairman of the new Student Day committee which will make plans for the annual event at Lake Forest college, to take place May 21.

Mrs. Burr Hindahl entertained guests from Kenosha on Tuesday.

Members of Mrs. Carl Scheer's Sunday school class met at her home on Monday evening and made curtains for their church school room. They purchased the curtains with money made from the little plays they gave several weeks ago.

Friends Night will be observed by the Deerfield Chapter of the Eastern Star on Thursday evening (tonight) at the Masonic temple. The chairs will be filled by officers of neighboring chapters.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sallach have rented their home on Osterman avenue and are moving to a farm north of Deerfield.

Mrs. Arthur Wagner was hostess to her luncheon bridge club on Thursday at her home on Woodward avenue.

Patricia Anne Dobbins was hostess to twelve little girls on Saturday afternoon at a May party in honor of her birthday anniversary at the home of her great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Neville.

John Allen Meyer, son of the Raymond Meyers, has been very ill this past week.

Bobby Pettis celebrated his second birthday anniversary on Monday afternoon, at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine and two children Shirley and Roberta, and Mrs. Olivia Anderson, with Mrs. Henry Siljestrom of Highland Park were guests at the Walter Sorenson home in Chicago last Thursday and attended the third birthday anniversary of Mrs. Anderson's great granddaughter, Marilyn Sorenson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Benzli of Chicago were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Selig.

Harold D. Gruver has rented Mrs. William Hamilton's home on Central avenue and moved in last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson and two children, who were living in the Hamilton house, have moved to Evanston.

Mrs. Roy Miller spent several days of last week at the home of her mother in Chicago. Mrs. Miller's brother, Herman Frey, underwent a facial operation in Indianapolis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witt are moving from the Thilo Toll apartment to the Melander house on Forest avenue.

Deerfield water rates have increased 40 per cent. Bills received last week covered five months, instead of the usual three months and with the increase in rates as well as a longer period of time, all water bills were much larger.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Soefker and two children Ruth and L. J. Soefker of County Line road, were guests at the Walter Hoffman home on Friday evening.

Beatrice Dow, who is taking nurses training in one of the Chicago hospitals, has been ill with scarlet fever.

A large group of relatives and friends assembled at the George Pettis home last Thursday, in honor of Mr. Pettis' seventieth (70th) birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Milligan of Arlington Heights were among the guests.

Mrs. V. W. Spriggs will entertain her bridge club next Wednesday afternoon.

A meeting of the Deerfield Dramatic League was held Tuesday evening, May 31, at the Citizen's State Bank building.

Mr. Elmer Hoffman and son Elmer, Jr., who are working near Milwaukee, spent the week-end with their family on Fair Oaks avenue.

Miss Grace Vaughan, who lives at the Harry Stuppel home, was hostess to a group of out of town friends on Saturday evening.

Peter Juhrend and son Hubert spent Monday fishing at Petite Lake.

Mrs. Lydia Engstrom and Mrs. Florence Wallbank of Chicago visited Miss Amelia Petersen on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bruggman had as their Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hellwig, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. John Skipper, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Litweiler, and Miss Pearl Jensen of Waukegan.

Mrs. Lorence Gloden and daughter Florence of Mt. Prospect visited Mrs. Martha C. Love on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clemens have moved from the Soukup house to the William Plagge house on West Central avenue.

Mrs. Ben Siljestrom and two little daughters, Shirley May and Jean Ann, attended a birthday party on Saturday at the home of Miss Phyllis Seyl of West Lake Forest.

Mrs. George Colby of Chicago was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Roll on Friday and Saturday.

Miss Helen Stickler has been ill with the flu.

The Lee Wenzel family of Chicago visited Mrs. Mary Trute of Forest avenue on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lewis of Fair Oaks avenue are moving to Morrison, Ill., where they will have charge of the B. A. Cabin Camp for Tourists.