Proceeds of Garden Fair Will Be Used for Rose Garden

There is an unusual amount of interest and enthusiasm among the members of the Ravinia Garden club in the annual garden fair to be held all day Saturday, May 21, because the proceeds will go toward developing and beautifying the municipal rose garden, situated on Roger Williams avenue, just west of the railroad tracks.

Last year's fair was so successful that the rose garden was started and developed so beautifully that hopes are high that it will earn the $1000 prize offered nationally for a municipal rose garden. The money made at the coming fair will go to buy more rose bushes and to make the garden more beautiful.

A special feature of this fair will be an information booth, at which expert advice will be given, free of charge, on any garden problem.

In order to insure success, in case of adverse weather, an immense carnival tent, open on all sides will be erected in the Triangle Park, opposite the North Shore station, just south of Roger Williams avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, and the fair will continue until 6 o'clock in the evening.

There will be a choice selection of blooming shrubs, plants, and evergreens, and flats of blooming petunias, ageratum, and other colorful annuals, rock garden plants, and garden tools; all at most reasonable prices. An artistic tea room, for lunch and afternoon tea will be open from noon until evening, under the capable direction of Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson and Mrs. Adelbert Leonard. The sale of plants is in the care of Mrs. Lee Frank and Mrs. Frank Wicks. The general director of the fair is the president of the Ravinia Garden club, Mrs. Robert McKnight, and she and her executive committee are busy appointing committee members to work out the details of the fair. Their names will appear in next week's issue.

The Ravinia Garden club has a most enthusiastic and loyal membership and every member is doing her utmost to make the coming fair as attractive and successful as possible.

Ned and Dick, played by Ettore Lenzi and Olan Axton, develop a greater interest in the lovely Christina (Bernice Swan), and Katinka (Sarah Glass), than in botany. Han (Enzo Doret) gives clever demonstrations as the dancing master. There arise many complications one of which is the arrest of McSpindle by the comical and efficient burgomeister, Arthur Stupey. Here Aunt Anna, played by Lena Calibri, intervenes—but to know the outcome of this interesting affair you must see it!

This operetta is the first production to be given since the stage has been enlarged, and the proceeds will pay for the enlargement of the stage and the newly constructed scenery, and special lighting.
