

Deerfield Library Receives New Books

The Deerfield Public Library has received quite a number of donations recently and the Library board expresses appreciation to the following donors:

Mrs. Esther Mandeville of Chicago, who gave 20 volumes of University of Literature.

Lake Bluff Library gave 40 books of fiction and non-fiction.

Mrs. F. J. Woolley of Evanston gave 30 books of fiction and non-fiction.

Mrs. Almer Hubacher of Deerfield gave five volumes of the German official account of the Russo-Japanese War and one volume of the Franco-German War by Count Von Helmuth von Moltke.

Additional donors were Mrs. Carleton Scribner, Mrs. John Heafield and Mrs. James Wilson, all of Deerfield.

E. B. Jordan Tells of Western Trip

The Deerfield Rotary club heard an unusually interesting talk on "My Trip to Seattle," by the newly elected president, E. B. Jordan, last Thursday at the weekly luncheon at the Deerfield Ave. Tea room. Visiting rotarians were Walter Meierhoff of Highland Park and C. M. MacDonald of Evanston. A membership drive is now in progress.

Bethlehem Church Hold Reception for Pastor

Members of the Bethlehem Evangelical church gave a reception on Friday evening at the church and welcomed the pastor, Rev. E. J. Brusco and his wife, who have been returned to this community for another year. About seventy-five attended and enjoyed an interesting program. The guests presented a telephone stand and chair to Rev. and Mrs. Brusco. Hostesses at the reception were the Circle leaders, Mrs. E. J. Giss, Mrs. John Vetter, Mrs. Arthur Merner, and Mrs. Arno Frantz.

Present Picture to Presbyterian Church

The S. C. W. class, of which Mrs. Carl Scheer is the teacher, presented a picture, "The Heavenly Queen," by Chambers, to the Deerfield Presbyterian church, on Sunday morning during the church school services. Miss Shirley Varner, president of the class, made the presentation, which was accepted by Mr. George Stanger, superintendent of the Sunday school department.

Annual Meeting of Deerfield P.T.A. May 13

The annual meeting will bring to a close a year of concerted activities of the Deerfield Grammar School Parent-Teacher association on Friday afternoon (tomorrow) at the school gymnasium. Preceding the election of officers and the annual reports, Miss Margaret Kerr of Chicago, who teaches in the Dolton, Ill. Junior high school, will talk to the mothers upon the importance of the proper kinds of literature for children.
