

OUTLINE PLANS FOR WOMAN'S CLUB YEAR

a club card party to be given after the holidays for the club members and their friends.

Mrs. Harry Paul, the treasurer gave a report of the splendid condition of the club finances.

Outlines Plans

Mrs. Henry B. Clark, chairman of the Fine Arts department, told of the attractive plans that she and the members of her committee have in store for the club members. Book reviews, classes in drama, art, teas, exhibitions are among the many enterprises that are being planned.

Mrs. Jacob Weinberg, chairman of Home and Education, has some interesting fields for her committees. Mrs. Edwin T. R. Murfey, chairman of Social Service, is already at work in her department and reported that she had all of her committee chairmen and that all of them were interested and at work.

Mrs. George A. Hutchinson, chairman of the Budget, presented a most complete budget for the year's work which was accepted by the board of directors.

Mrs. Charles Tyson, chairman of House and Grounds, brought in many suggestions for the cleaning and decorating of the club home in readiness for the coming club year.

Preparing Program

Mrs. Charles G. Mason, chairman of the Program, is at work on her second year in this department and will present to the club members as splendid a program as it will be possible to secure.

Mrs. Herbert R. Smith will be Press and Publicity chairman for the coming year and the board voted to continue publishing the calendar that has been sent to the members every month during the club year.

Mrs. John Oliver, chairman of Hospitality, is already making plans for a pleasant year for members and their guests.

All of the members of the board of directors are hard at work preparing for another year of activity. Committees are being made up, membership lists being adjusted, programs being arranged all in anticipation of the new year book which goes to press before the club opens in the fall.

Federation Meeting

The Illinois Federation of Women's clubs will meet in Chicago on May 17, 18 and 19, and the Highland Park Woman's club will be represented by two delegates, Mrs. Carleton A. Harkness and Mrs. Charles G. Mason; two alternates, Mrs. Raymond Stevens and Mrs. Norman G. Lenington; and Mrs. Harry S. Gradle who is a member of one of the convention committees. All club women are invited to attend the convention which will be held at the Sherman hotel, Chicago.

D.A.R. Better Films Committee Review

No doubt you have noticed that recently the Aleyon has been showing pictures which have not been seen elsewhere and is being very fore-handed with their entertainment. This has, of course, its advantages as there is little likelihood of folks staying away because of a previous viewing, but it sometimes works a hardship with the work of this committee in this way.

The National D. A. R. Reviewing committee send out their estimates once a month to the local chairman, and occasionally the picture lands here first, and as these articles are based on the grading and evaluation of that committee, and are in no sense a personal opinion, it is thus impossible to give the desired information on each picture booked for the current week.

The week to come presents many and varied types of heroes and crooks, and perhaps the most entertaining picture is "Disorderly Conduct." This is an exciting story of a motorcycle cop and his attempt to go straight in the line of duty. It will interest adults especially, as an expose of graft.

"Steady Company" is the romance of a truck-driver boxer and a telephone operator. Adults.

"The Crowd Roars" is the story of professional auto-racing with accompanying thrills, noise and sensations, giving James Cagney the kind of a role he does better than any other actor. Doubtful for children.

"Alias the Doctor" is a medical story, convincing and serious. Very sincerely acted by Richard Barthelmess. Rather mature but interesting.

ADJUDICATION NOTICE

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that the Subscriber Executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Frederick Kenneth MacKenzie, deceased, will attend the Probate Court of Lake County, at a term thereof to be holden at the Court House in Waukegan, in said County, on the first Monday of July next, 1932, when and where all persons having claims against said estate are notified and requested to present the same to said Court for adjudication.

NEW MEMBERS ADDED SUNSET VALLEY CLUB

delegation of Sunset Valley officers and others to the structure, which had already been erected between the first green and the eighteenth tee. Here the ceremony took place, with remarks by Mr. Hill, Scout Hinn and H. L. Kennicott, president of the club. The presentation was closed by the recitation of the scout law and the scout oath in unison by all scouts present.

D. E. (Ned) Sawyer, the former Western amateur champion, and a business associate of George Wallace Carr of the Sunset Valley Golf club, was a guest at the club Saturday, May 7. Mr. Sawyer and Mr. Carr played a match with Tom Kelly and H. L. Kennicott. The match went to the nineteenth green, where Mr. Sawyer holed a birdie three to lead his team to victory. Tom had a 79 and Mr. Sawyer an 82. Neither Mr. Carr nor Mr. Kennicott disclosed their tallies although Hi admitted that his regular golfing partner trimmed him neatly.

Playing an additional nine holes Mr. Sawyer had a 37. He was charmed by the course, which he considers a fine sporty eighteen.

On Sunday morning Jim Sauve renewed his match with Cy Ross, a carry-over from last year. First Sauve on the twenty-second hole after they had finished all square on eighteen.

Among the out-of-town visitors who played the course Sunday were L. R. Dexter and A. Hoffman of Rochester, New York.

Dr. A. M. Bernstein was noticed on the course Sunday morning. Those deep swings he attributes to a well-oiled club. Indeed the doctor's favorite prescription for a golf game is plenty of oil.

Bill Chambers is burning up the course this season as he never did before. Bill has been consistently around par, and is driving much longer than ever, while retaining his uncanny accuracy with his irons.

Norman Craig, one of our junior members, qualified in the district high school trials for the state competition. He was the only one of the North Shore group to win a chance at the state title.

Doug Hansen, playing in a foursome with W. J. Tilden, Robert Shanley and John Clayton, shot an 82 Sunday morning. Doug's putting was a costly matter for his opponents. He out-putted seven greens.
