

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Members of the Deerfield-Shields high school brass sextette and the tuba soloist and her piano accompanist who won superior ratings in the State Band contest at the University of Illinois will leave on Friday of this week for Marion, Ind. to enter the national high school band contest. Mr. Harold Finch, band director, will take with him four of the boys, Gerald Ritzenthaler, Robert Stahl, Don Atherton, and Leslie Christensen. Mr. Fred Jackson will also drive, taking with him his daughter, Ruth, also Mrs. V. V. Hipsley, Retta Ree Hipsley, and Jean Pettis. They expect to return on Saturday. Retta Ree will play her tuba solo on Friday evening and the sextette appears on Saturday's program.

Mrs. Clarence Huhn and Mrs. Raymond Meyer were hostesses on Friday evening at the Huhn home, at a shower in compliment to Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey.

Miss Irene Evenson was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schroeder of Half Day on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Neville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dobbins of Arlington Heights.

The Deerfield chapter of the Eastern Star is giving a card party at the Masonic temple on Thursday afternoon, May 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brennan have rented the Robert E. Pettis home on Chestnut street, and will move from Miss Sadie Galloway's apartment about the first of July.

Mrs. Milton Frantz was hostess to the Tireless Toilers circle on Wednesday afternoon, May 18. Mrs. John Stryker's circle members also attended.

Mrs. Henry Petersen and Mrs. Raymond Dobbins attended a bridge-dinner on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. F. L. McOmber of Waukegan.

The Just Sew club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Johnston Davis.

John J. Lamkey passed away Friday after a several months illness at his home on Chestnut street, which is the former William Schinleber house. Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Holy Cross church with interment at Mount Carmel. Mrs. Lamkey's brother, Edwin Decker, and her sister Mrs. W. W. Wilcox, both passed away recently.

Raymond Fitzpatrick of Lake Geneva, Wis., has been a guest at the home of his uncle, Dr. C. Johnston Davis. He was accompanied to his home last Thursday by Mrs. Davis and Miss Sadie Galloway.

Patricia Anne Dobbins entertained a group of little friends at a May pole dance and party on the lawn of her great grandparents home, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neville on Saturday.

The Tuesday Evening Sewing club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Irving Brand.

Harry Baum Jr., is in quarantine for measles.

James Fritsch is again able to be out, after his recent illness.

Mrs. Sarah Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gilmore, and Mrs. Charles Gilmore of Chicago and Mrs. J. C. Willman were guests, on Sunday, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Huehl. Mrs. Sarah Gilmore, Mrs. Willman and Mrs. Huehl are sisters.

The annual Wilmot school picnic will be held Thursday, May 26, from 5 to 7 p.m. on the Vinyard property in Woodland Park.

Members of the choir of St. Paul's Evangelical church and their friends gave a shower for Mrs. Arthur Johnson (Eleanor Ott) on Tuesday evening at her home on Fair Oaks avenue.

Sixteen young people from Deerfield and Highland Park attended a May party on Saturday evening at the home of Carl Kinley of Northbrook.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson was the luncheon guest of Mrs. C. R. Stout of Chicago on Saturday.

Erwin Dreiske of Highland Park has rented the Carl E. Bates home on Warrington road for the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. Bates will go west again this year.

The Deerfield teachers bridge club will meet Thursday evening, May 19, at the W. K. Hout home on Warrington road. Hostesses for the evening will be Miss Grace Ronning and Miss Lita Toll, both seventh grade teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Brand have rented their home on Deerfield road to Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Wortham of the Seneca hotel, Chicago, from June first to October first. The Brands will spend the summer at White Lake, Michigan.

Mrs. Delbert Meyer, principal of the Wilmot school, took seven eighth grade pupils to Half Day last Wednesday, where they took their final examinations given by County Superintendent, W. C. Petty. All seven passed the tests and will be graduated on Friday evening, May 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olendorf attended a May party at the Country-side club in Libertyville last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Baum was hostess to the Libertyville Young Matrons club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anfrens, who reside in Mrs. Fredericka Koebelin's apartment, entertained a large group of out of town guests, on Sunday.

Mrs. Lloyd Ritzenthaler of Prairie View underwent a major operation last Monday at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Raymond Meyer will work in the Deerfield post office during the next four weeks while Mrs. Marian Landau Stryker and Mr. William Cruickshank have their vacations. Postmaster Fred Meyer returned this week from a two weeks visit in Missouri.

Another clean-up day is to be staged Thursday (all day today) for the housecleaning of the Bethlehem Evangelical church basement. A box luncheon is being served at noon. Last Wednesday seventeen women of the church gave the church auditorium its annual cleaning and enjoyed a pioneer dinner served by Mrs. John Stryker's circle.

Delbert Meyer cut an artery in his wrist, Friday afternoon, while at work at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Mrs. Carl Stadler visited Miss Clara Dietz of Northbrook on Sunday. Miss Dietz, who is a science teacher in Glencoe, has returned from Mayo Brother's hospital, Rochester, Minn., where she underwent an operation and is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Carl Hertel and son, Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. William Hertel and four sons were Sunday guests at the Albert Wildhagen home in Prairie View.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Stenson of Chicago were over night guests at the Albert Krause home on Sunday.

A meeting of the Bethlehem Evangelical Church Brotherhood will be held next Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hastings were hosts at bridge on Friday evening.

Mrs. Mary Koebelin and Miss Ruth Soefker with Miss Luella Willman of Chicago attended the tulip festival at Holland, Mich., on Saturday.

Jimmie Hastings of Evanston spent Friday evening with his cousins Richard and Billy Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wessling and daughter, Dorothy, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller of Chicago.

The Deerfield Chamber of Commerce will meet next Thursday evening at 6:45 at Fehr's restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Bates will entertain their bridge club on Wednesday evening.

Faust penmanship certificates were awarded this week to six children in the Wilmot school: Raymond and Florence Ott, Elizabeth and Anna Konsitsky, Shirley Ward and Julia Horenberger.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer returned Tuesday from a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer of New Florence, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton of Harvey spent the week-end at the Delbert Meyer home.

Mrs. B. J. Dickens and Miss Elsie Tate of Chicago were Sunday guests at the Reichelt home on Chestnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yore of West Lake Forest were guests on Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frost.

Mr. D. A. Hastings attended a business banquet at the Home Art Guild in Chicago, Wednesday evening, at which the employees of his firm were guests.

Dorcas Circle One met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen of Westgate road.

Miss Barbara Huehl attended a concert on Sunday, given by the Elmhurst College Men's Glee club, at the Immanuel Evangelical church in Chicago.

Arthur Freddie Stockel, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stockel of Chicago was baptized Sunday afternoon at St. Paul's Evangelical church by Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok. He was born March 19. Sponsors were the baby's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stockel of Deerfield.

Mrs. Fred Trute left Saturday evening to spend several days with relatives in Eau Claire, Wis.

Mrs. Albert Roggow was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ritchiger of Cicero on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Seyl of West Lake Forest were dinner guests on Sunday at the Ben Siljestrom home on Saunders road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stickler were guests on Friday at the home of Mr. Stickler's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold of Lake Zurich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parsons attended a party on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wojak of Chicago, given in honor of Mr. Parsons' birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Olson had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. S. Person of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Knigge have taken a seven acre tract on Milwaukee avenue, north of Half Day and are in charge of a Sinclair Oil station and refreshment stand. Edward Knigge will assist at the gas station and Carl Knigge will continue his work for the Siljestrom Ice company.

A group of sixteen young people of the Bethany Evangelical church enjoyed a barbecue dinner at Phil Johnson's on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Voas were the dinner guests of Miss Maureen Lamb of Winnetka on Saturday evening and attended the Skokie school play, "The Thief of Bagdad."

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parsons attended the funeral of Mr. Max Gaitsch of DesPlaines on Sunday.

No one was severely hurt in the automobile accident on Sunday evening at the intersection of Waukegan road and Fair Oaks avenue. The impact could be heard clearly for quite a distance.

Herbert Baxter of Chicago is visiting at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perry of Rosemary terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson and daughter of Chicago were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Leist.

Byron Lane spent Thursday with Berry Devine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stuppel had as their Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roberts and son of Highland Park and Mr. T. Roberts and Miss Ruth Hoban of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Filson and children of Chicago were Sunday guests at the Dan Hunt home on Fair Oaks avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stickler visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wright of Chicago on Sunday.

Miss Rose Nolan of Rondout was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Earl Frost, of Osterman avenue on Sunday.

Roy Baxman of Calumet City, Ind. visited his grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Freese, last week.

Boy Scout troop 51 held its annual camp-o-ral on Friday and Saturday in the woods east of Deerfield.

The Clarks, who reside in the Albert Meyer house on Chestnut street are moving to Wheaton this week.