

Pure Romance! Cozy Chalet-Bungalow camps are tucked away in the wilds in the very heart of the Rockies' wonders.

Swimming at Lake Louise—in a beautiful protected pool—with near-to-heaven sunshine and a snow-crowned mountain back-drop!

Banff is headquarters for a division of the famous Northwest Mounted Police. Rich in tradition, colorful, these "Mounties" are verily a part of the place!

Banff Springs Hotel is the Castle of the Rockies—This view shows its beautiful location overlooking the Bow Valley.

6½ Glorious Days in the Canadian Rockies. $60

ALL EXPENSES from Banff or Field

EVER hear of a bargain in travel? Here it is—sublime adventuring in the one part of the world that most people want to see.

All the High Spots

It includes among other noted places: Banff, Lake Louise, Lake Wapta, Yoho Valley and Emerald Lake. You travel de luxe, dine table d'hote at famous resorts and are always in the wilds yet always enjoy all the comforts of home.

124 Miles of Mountain Motoring

Riding in big comfortable cars you are given the best possible introductions to: The Great Divide, Yoho National Park, Kicking Horse River Pass, cathedral forest glens, sublime old Mt. Stephen, Natural Bridge and Emerald Lake.

Visit Banff Springs Hotel

You visit famed Banff Springs Hotel where every minute is sheer delight. Special trips are arranged here or you can go it on your own for a round of golf on the supreme course of the universe, swim in terrace pools, climb, ride sure-footed ponies or gaited horses, shop in the quaint village or just look and look and rest.

2 Nights at Lake Louise

Two heavenly nights! Time to feel the charm of the place. See the snow-topped mountains framing uncounted millions of brilliant alpine poppies. Watch the parade of color in that mirror lake.

Climb Indian-blazed trails. Swim, dance to marvelous music.

Chalet-Bungalow Camps

Tucked away in places of unique natural advantages, fascinating little Chalet-Bungalow Camps provide an intimate introduction to the really primitive life in the Rockies. Individual cabins assure privacy and cozy comfort. The central Chalet serves meals and is the center of the social life. You must stop at these camps if you are to know the Rockies and stop you do, for what is to many the most interesting part of the trip.

Stop-over Privileges

You are always free to stop over wherever and whenever the urge strikes you. Perhaps it will be the lure of mile-high golf, the thrill of skyline trail-riding, or the palatial hotels—you decide!

An Irresistible Invitation

Come up to the top of the world to play . . . Up where the alpine air scented with sun-warmed pines fills your whole system with new vigor and where the everyday, commonplace worries are forgotten in the thrill of exciting adventure.

Write for the intriguing little folder: "6½ Glorious Days in the Canadian Rockies." It gives a day-by-day account of the tour, details all information, and will prove the answer to this year's vacation searching. Then let us help you make your plans!

THOS. J. WALL, General Agent

71 E. Jackson Blvd., Straus Bldg., Chicago

Telephone Wabash 1904

CANADIAN PACIFIC HOTELS

and BREWSTER TRANSPORT CO. . . (Gray Line)

All-Expense Conducted Tours. GOING: Grand Canyon, California, Columbia Highway or Yellowstone, Mt. Rainier or Glacier National, Mt. Rainier—Alaska side-trip. RETURNING: Victoria, Lake Louise, Banff. Reduced summer rail fares.