

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Home oyed by Fire

Park and Deer-ts were called out ay to fight a fire
n at the unoccucomplete house
m Seiler, situathome on Deer-

, which sounded d explosion, the building burst

on the first floor
ner near a stair-g was not plasaped rapidly to is not wired for was an exten-Seiler home to The house has tion for about ad recently rehland Park hosblaze from a

he fire fighters occupied by the also.

Huhn expresses the response emen from the partment and volunteer fire-efs of both del the burned n the evidence pector, as they tain the origin considered at

Teachers Duel

Society Cleaners victory over All-Stars. He hits and two North Chicago en hits by the
The Deerfield double plays.
nd was played minutes. Next cleaners travel they meet the d game is in hope to win the season.

Chicago (O)

AB	R	H
4	1	0
3	0	1
4	1	0
4	1	3
4	0	2
4	0	0
4	1	1
4	0	2
4	0	2
34	4	11
AB	R	H
4	0	1
3	0	1
4	0	1
4	0	0
4	0	2
4	0	2
1	0	0
2	0	0
2	0	0
32	0	7

UNDRY
NG CO.
178
EANING

Miss Lorraine Weigle, daughter of Mrs. Edwin F. Weigle, of Deerfield avenue, Deerfield, and Hubert N. Kelley of Evanston, were married Monday, June 6, in Waukegan. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kelley are students at Northwestern university. Mr. Kelley is now in the Passavant hospital, Chicago, where he underwent and appendicitis operation. The bride is a grand daughter of the late John Irwin Marshall of Highland Park. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley will live in Evanston.

The bus will run for Deerfield pupils attending the summer session of the Deerfield-Shields high school, beginning June 20, providing twenty or more pupils attend.

Mrs. C. W. Getty is leaving June 20 to conduct a group of young people on a tour through Washington, D.C., and Gettysburg.

Mrs. B. J. Dickens of Chicago was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kynett Haehlen returned to their home in Dysart, Iowa, on Monday, after a visit with Mrs. Haehlen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker. Miss Harriett Stryker, who has spent the past year with the Haehlen's in Iowa returned to Deerfield with them and will remain with her parents.

Wallace Reichelt had as his guests at dinner, on Sunday, John Onion of Lewistown, James Wennermark of Fort Wayne, Ind., Donald MacDonald and Richard Kenny of Chi-ma fraternity at Lake Forest college. All are members of Digamma.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Frost announce the birth of a daughter on Thursday, June 9, at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nroton (Eleanor Meyer) of Harvey, Ill., are the proud parents of a daughter, born Friday, June 10. This is Postmaster F. H. Meyers' first grand daughter. He now has four grand children.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison visited in Wheaton on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton (Eleanor Meyer) of Harvey, Ill., are on Sunday at the Harvey hospital. Their first granddaughter has been named Elizabeth Lu for Mrs. Meyer. In the evening the Meyers were guests at the William Mueller home in Arlington Heights.

David Stryker was host to members of the YPMC on Tuesday evening at his home on Orchard lane. Milton Merner had charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toll had as their guests on Saturday evening, fifteen relatives from Chicago.

Albert Hagi, who bought the Finstad restaurant in Libertyville a year ago, has re-sold it to Miss Gyda Finstad.

Mrs. Irving Brand attended a recital of the Betty Jones School of Dancing on Sunday at the Goodman theatre, Chicago. Mrs. Brand's sister, Miss Mary English, was one of the dancers.

The Woman's Missionary Society is meeting this afternoon at the Presbyterian manse with Mrs. M. J. Andrews as hostess.

Three Deerfield teachers who will act as councilors for the Girl Reserves at Camp Merry Days, Druce Lake, from June 18 to 30 are the Misses Donna Belle Jensen, Mabel Ablard, and Genevieve Card. Quite a number of local Girl Reserves will leave for camp on June 18.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Meyer attended a meeting of the Lake County Postmasters' convention on Monday evening a week ago at Mundelein.

Mrs. E. J. Ginter and family have gone east to bring her son Robert Hanmer home from Cornell University. Mr. Ginter joined them at Detroit. Bob will bring with him two Cornell classmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson (Elsie Beckley) have a son born Thursday at their home.

Six Deerfield students were initiated into the national honor society on Senior Day, June 10, at Deerfield Shields high school. The six, who among the 33 of the senior class of 223 members are Grace Sherman, Ruth Bolt, Mary Jane Galloway, Edgeley Todd, Mary Hoffman and Helen Engstrom.

The Deerfield Dramatic League closed its first season with the financial cupboard bare but no debts, is the report of Dan Hunt, who was asked by members to untangle the finances of the organization. Final receipts of "Back Stage" proved sufficient to cover the league's total indebtedness. Mary Jane Galloway succeeds Mrs. Lansing Beebe as the treasurer of the league.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Piper announce the birth of a son on Sunday, June 12, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bowman and daughter, Jane, of Harlingen, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Bowman's sister, Mrs. Harry Muhlke.

Jane Warner and Jean Pettis attended a birthday party at the home of Retta Ree Hipsley of Northbrook on Saturday evening. Other guests were from Highland Park.

Mrs. Ethelyn Gebhardt and Mr. and Mrs. Horton of Chicago visited at the Reichelt home on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson and two children and Mrs. George Pettis spent Sunday at Lake Wandawega, Wis.

Miss Edna Fritsch received her Master's degree at Northwestern university on Monday. Her thesis is "The King with the Hundred Knight in the English Arthurian Romances." In addition to her studies at the university, Miss Fritsch has taught phonetics at Moody Institute for the past five years.

Members of the Deerfield-Shields high school band played for the veterans in the hospital at Great Lakes on Wednesday evening.

Harold Klooden has sold his property to E. M. Rapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz and daughter Olive, and Mrs. James Fritsch attended the commencement exercises at Northwestern university on Monday.

The Parent-Teacher Association of St. Paul's church will meet the first Tuesday evening in July. There will be no meeting during August. Rev. Maurice Haehlen received his Master's degree at Northwestern University on Monday.

Mrs. Harry Whitsomb was hostess to members of the Independent Social club last Wednesday afternoon. They will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Backman of Aptakisic. Transportation will be provided and guests are asked to meet at 1:30 p.m. at the bank corner.

Rev. Mark J. Andrews left Friday to attend the Synod of Kentucky and expects to return this week. Rev. Joseph Taylor of Highland Park occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday, in the absence of Mr. Andrews.

Jack Gibbs is home from the Chicago Junior school in Elgin for a two weeks' visit with his grandmother, Mrs. F. C. Biederstadt of Central avenue.

Mrs. Krueger and baby daughter have returned home from the Evanston hospital. The Kruegers are occupying Mrs. William Hamilton's house on Central avenue.

The William Biederstadt family of Chicago visited Mrs. Fred Biederstadt on Sunday.

Miss Mary McGuire, who has been staying at the Albert Krauss home, returned Saturday to her home in Lawrenceville, Ill.

The children's choir made its last appearance until fall on Sunday at St. Paul's church. Rehearsals will be discontinued for summer.

Mrs. Samuel Roekenbach entertained the members of her circle of St. Paul's church and their guests on Thursday afternoon at her home on Springfield avenue.

Mrs. Thilo Toll, who fell downstairs in her home, a week ago Monday broke her right leg. Mrs. Toll was just recovering from an infection in her left leg and is now still in bed. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter Toll, is caring for her.

The Tuesday Evening Sewing club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Roy Miller of Waukegan road.

Mrs. W. W. Clark, Miss Charlotte Brand, and Mrs. Irving Brand attended the Friday Evening Dinner club last week at the home of Miss Helen Boyce of Highland Park.

Misses Edna and Lulu Behrens were the dinner guests of Mrs. C. T. Anderson on Wednesday evening, preceding commencement exercises at the Elm Place School.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Holmes and grandson Earl who have been visiting in Waukegan were dinner guests at the R. D. Reeds' home on Thursday evening. They were week-end guests at the S. P. Hutchinson home and departed Monday for their home in Clarksville, Mo.

Mrs. A. D. Moody of Chicago was the guest of Miss Amelia Petersen on Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Weimer of the Hotel Sovereign, Chicago, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dan Hunt, for a few weeks.

Miss Lillian Ackerman entertained the teachers of the Chicago school of which she is principal at a luncheon on Saturday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Hunter on Westgate road.

Mrs. Scheibner, who has been staying at the Fred Jackson home since the death of Mrs. Jackson, will return to Chicago when Mr. Jackson and daughter Ruth leave for the east the latter part of this month.

John Derby has returned home from De Pauw university.

Harold Vant preented one of his "rag" pictures with musical accompaniment at the children's day exercises at the Grace Evangelical church of Prairie View Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wortham entertained guests from Chicago Sunday. The Worthams are occupying the Leslie Brand house this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds and sons Walton and Carter were the dinner guests on Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McMahon of Chicago.

Guests on Thursday at the Henry Juhrend home were Mrs. Amelia Juhrend and little granddaughter of Highwood and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Numson of Gurnee.

Dorcas Circle One will have a picnic supper on next Monday evening.

Betty June, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Plagge, entertained a group of little friends on Thursday in honor of her seventh birthday anniversary. Her grandmother, Mrs. A. Jardine and her little cousin Theresa Provost of Chicago were also guests.

Mrs. D. A. Hastings and son Richard and Mrs. W. S. Comstock went and Mrs. W. S. Comstock went to Champign on Sunday. Douglas Hastings received his degree as a mechanical engineer at the University of Illinois on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Juhrend is staying at the C. E. Piper home for several weeks.

A comedy, entitled, "Miss Nonchalance" is to be presented by the Dorcas Circle Four this month at the Presbyterian church, followed by an old fashioned ice cream social. The date will be announced later.

Miss Evelyn Kent entertained at a "kid's party" on Saturday evening at her home on Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Easton, Miss Harriett Stryker, Mr. and Mrs. Kynett Haehlen and Wessley Stryker visited Rev. and Mrs. Maurice Haehlen in Oswego, Ill., Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanck of Chicago were Sunday guests at the George Ott home on Forest avenue.

Mrs. J. C. Willman and Mrs. Mary Koebelin will leave Saturday to spend two weeks in Chicago. They will occupy the apartment of Misses Luella Willman and Nina Knigge while the two girls are enjoying a motor trip through the east and Canada.

Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen entertained her bridge club on Friday afternoon, at her home on Westgate road.