Local and Personal

Mrs. Frank Bemus spent the week end in Michigan visiting friends.

Mr. Oscar Iverson, collector on the Northwestern railroad, has returned to his home from St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, where he underwent the amputation of a toe, following an accident in which his foot was injured several weeks ago. His many friends will be happy to learn that he has returned home and is getting along nicely.

The G. V. Lehmann family of Chicago were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scott of Deerfield.

Herman Denzel, Frank Siljestrom and Lloyd Sheahan spent the weekend at the Four Seasons Golf club on the Wisconsin border with a party of friends from along the north shore.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bell and children spent Sunday at the F. C. Shadle home in Mundelein.

George Gaffrin of Chicago is visiting his aunt Mrs. Nels Jeppesen of Waukegan avenue.

James Condon, of 24 Washington avenue, Highwood, a member in the Student Naval Officers' Reserve of Northwestern University, left on Thursday with the organization for an ocean cruise and training trip.

Little Nancy Bernardi celebrated her first birthday on Tuesday when she entertained several of her little friends at a party.

Mrs. John Rhinehart of Homewood avenue, is under observation at the Highland Park hospital.

General and Mrs. Robert E. Wood left yesterday for Annapolis, Md., where they will visit their son Robert, who is a "plebe" at the naval academy.

Miss Catherine Muller left last Monday for Des Moines, Ia., where she will act as playgrounds director during the summer.

The Grace M. E. Ladies' Aid will hold a bakery sale at the Laegeler Pharmacy, Saturday, June 25. Come and buy your Sunday goodies.

Mrs. Larry Annen entertained the members of her five hundred club Tuesday evening at her home in Fort Sheridan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Lehmkuhl of North avenue, are entertaining four couples this evening (Thursday) at a beach party.

Mrs. Bernardi of Green Bay road returned home Tuesday from the Highland Park hospital where she underwent an operation a few weeks ago.

Mrs. L. W. Ferguson with her granddaughter, Shirley Gibbs, left Tuesday for Fond du Lac, Wis., where they will spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Mrs. W. C. Eddy of Des Moines, Iowa, spent the week-end visiting her mother, Mrs. Bender, and sisters, Mrs. Blanche Muller and Mrs. Catherine A. Levin.

Mrs. William Saathoff entertained at a beach party Monday evening in honor of her daughter Janet's birthday anniversary.

The Udell families and relatives from Highland Park, Burlington, Iowa, Maywood, St. Charles and Chicago, are planning a reunion picnic Sunday, June 26th, at Starved Rock.
