See the BIG DOIN'S IN CHICAGO

CROWDS! ACTIVITY! EXCITEMENT!

Chicago is in gala attire, in the greatest display in years as the Democrats are holding their national convention. You can buy tickets to the big meeting itself . . . held at the Stadium (right on the "L") or join the festive crowds downtown. Be sure to put in at least a day in Chicago during the Convention sessions.

The big U. S. Army Tournament is on at Soldier Field . . . airplanes . . . thrills . . . shooting . . . horsemanship . . . fireworks . . . each evening June 24 to July 4 . . . North Shore Line direct to Roosevelt Road Station. You should take the children to see this vast patriotic spectacle.

The many night and day trains on the North Shore Line enable you to go to both events at your convenience and without getting into highway congestion. And the one-day round-trip tickets make the trips low-cost ones.

Said Ed Wynn to Graham McNamee: "Certainly I know what a parking space is—one of those places where they put little dents in your fenders." Ride a comfortable train and save repair bills.
