

BRARY

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

this problem: s organization on ief—
d Distribution of Relief.
r Personal Contact
ts of Relief.
on Made. Work for Unemployed.
ning for Care of Transient Men.

anning for Home-
Boys.—The exper-
n cities in the win-

Reading List

of Chicago Press
list of books for
so that the audi-
been hearing the Council on Radio
casts could cong and study this rary has the fol-

"The Epic of challenge to the mericans today.
Only Yesterday."
our times; the e from November,
esent. Allen fol-reportorial style
n his chronicle,
"The United
5." These authors
oscopic picture of hich affords marr study.

"American Party
mple compass of y history.

d Beard, William,
athan"; "The Re-Machine Age."—
federal govern-
tually functions,
n the new techn-
es which science
ave made neces-

er, and Scrobbs,
nited States in
—An unbiased
oreign relations
al year just past.
e, "America
—A penetrating
ican institutions
a French view-admirable sup-e monumental Bryce's "Ameri-
th."
," "Autobiogra-Steffens."—An
of American
y a journalist
unusual oppor-
ve important nd.

Flowers

which add so atmosphere of e supplied each
d Park Garden

e Day
will be closed 932.

Miss Lelah Kreh and Clarence (Pat) Rolman were married Friday afternoon at the Deerfield Presbyterian manse with Rev. M. J. Andrews officiating. Attendants for the young couple were Miss Grace Sherman and George Ward. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Hazel Vant Kreh and the groom is employed at the Siljestrom Sinclair Filling station in Highland Park. Mr. and Mrs. Rolman will reside in Highland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Batt have a daughter born Thursday at their home. Mrs. Batt, who was Mildred Roll, has been critically ill and a zone of quiet was placed in the vicinity of their home on Central avenue for several days.

Mrs. Paul M. Dietz and her sister, Miss Mayme Karch went to Cross Plains, Wis., this week, to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kalcheur, who were drowned Sunday at a lake near Madison. Mr. Kalcheur went to the rescue of his wife and the double tragedy resulted. They leave three little daughters between the ages of three and nine. Mrs. Kalcheur is the former Angie Saeman and visited in Deerfield many times with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Saeman, who was Kitty Karch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bingham and daughter, Sally, and Miss Mary Bleimehl were Sunday guests at the Eugene Ender home.

Mrs. Dan Holmes, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison, spent the week-end in Galesburg. Mrs. Holmes' son, Le Ray Gunkel, has been very ill at the Galesburg Cottage hospital, following an operation, and they visited him.

Mrs. Daisy Beston of Northbrook visited her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Cooksy, on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Johnston Davis have returned from a trip to Missouri. Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. Sugden, of Evanston, remained at the Davis home during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Koebelin and daughter Constance, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ott visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Spath of Chicago, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamill will remain at the Wery home on Stratford road for the summer. Mrs. Hamill will teach again next year at Bannockburn school.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Matseck were the guests of Mrs. Matseck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Albrecht of Mundelein, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson and daughter, Doris Jean, are on a trip through the Ozarks. They left Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lemm of Glencoe have rented the first apartment in the L. C. Hole house on Deerfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Grohe of Knollwood road have as their guests Mrs. Grohe's mother from Fitchburg, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sorenson and little daughter, Marilyn, returned to Chicago on Thursday after a week's visit with Mrs. Sorenson's grandmother, Mrs. Olivia Anderson.

Miss Mayme Stoeffel of Dubuque, Ia., and Mrs. Katharine Hansen of Chicago have returned to their homes after spending several days with their brother, Mr. J. A. Stoeffel of West Fair Oaks avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Stoeffel are residing in the W. B. Carr bungalow.

Mrs. Irving Brand returned Saturday from Evanston where she spent the past week. Her sister, Miss Rose English has been critically ill in St. Francis hospital, Evanston.

The annual picnic of the Bethlehem Evangelical church will be held jointly with the Prairie View church on Monday, Fourth of July.

Harry E. Moore of Chicago visited friends in Deerfield on Thursday.

Miss Irene Rockenbach had as her guests on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Wright, daughter Lois, son Robert, and Mrs. Wright's mother, Mrs. Emma Cass of Chicago. She entertained them at a picnic luncheon at the Lewis Mills farm near Diamond Lake.

The first of a series of band concerts by the Prairie View band was presented Tuesday evening, June 28, in Prairie View. Included in the personnel of the band are quite a number of Deerfieldians.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haggie entertained guests from Forest Glen on Sunday.

Members of Dorcas Circle Four entertained the children at an outing at Sunset park last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Wortham entertained eighteen guests at a buffet supper on Sunday, at their home on Deerfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hammer of Cedar Rapids are moving into the Arthur Cashmore house the first of July.

Maurice Cazel and his uncle, Mr. Shantz, have returned from a trip to Lake Charlotte, Wis.

The picnic outing of the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce was postponed from last Thursday to today, as a great many wished to attend the Banker's banquet last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Glos of Freeport visited Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Notz on Saturday. Their guests on Sunday were Rudolph Notz of Chicago and Mrs. Emilie Glos of Northbrook.

Mrs. Sarah Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gilmore of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman of Whitefish Bay, Wis., visited Mrs. J. C. Huehl on Sunday. Mrs. Huehl is slightly improved in health.

The Areme club will meet Thursday evening, July 14, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Notz.

Miss Barbara Huehl was guest soloist at a concert at St. Paul's church of Palatine, Ill., on Sunday evening. Miss Huehl also sang solo parts with the choir.

Mrs. Roy Miller attended the wedding of her brother, Herman Frey and Miss Doree Silverhorn, in Chicago on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Frey are honeymooning in the Black Hills.

Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen entertained at a bridge luncheon on Friday at her home on Westgate road.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Klink of Chicago are staying at the C. W. Getty home on Westgate road until after the fourth of next month.

Edwin Wood Jr. and Edward Cazel left Saturday with Mrs. Campbell and little daughter of Wilmette. The boys are driving the car to California. Mrs. Campbell will take it on to Hawaii.

The Marshall Pottenger family spent Sunday on the Iroquois river, near Kankakee. They were accompanied by Orval Fredericks, Mrs. Carl Hertel and son, Herbert, and Beatrice Pottenger. Miss Pottenger remained at Kankakee and her sister returned to Deerfield for a visit with her father.

C. W. Getty and two children Sarah and Philip have gone to Philadelphia to visit relatives. The older Getty son, James, has gone to Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds and sons were guests on Saturday at the Julian Rocquier home in Gurnee.

Miss Marie Jane Friedland of Chicago is spending the week with Miss Dorothy Wessling.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wessling and daughter, Dorothy, with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller and Miss Marie Jane Friedland of Chicago spent Sunday at Lake Geneva.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Wood and daughter Miss Jane, were the guests of Mrs. Wood's sister, Miss Elizabeth Knapp of Riverside, Conn., who is at the Drake hotel during the Democratic convention. Senator Walsh of Montana was also a member of the dinner party given by Miss Knapp and her aunt Mrs. Valerie.

Mrs. J. A. Stoeffel attended a bridge luncheon on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Emma Holt of Wilmette.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welter of Wilmette and Miss Margaret Ludlow of Chicago, who were enroute to Lily Lake, Wis., visited at the Love home on Friday.

Mrs. George Engstrom will entertain her luncheon bridge club next Wednesday at her home on Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunther Schaumann have Mrs. Schaumann's mother, Frau Fanny Reichelt, as their guest. The Schaumanns reside on Osterman avenue.

The Altar and Rosary society will meet Friday evening, July 1, at the Holy Cross parish hall.

The Tuesday Evening Sewing club will be entertained next week at the home of Mrs. J. R. Notz of Knollwood road.

Pietro Marchi of Highland Park, was soloist at the Mission services on Thursday and Friday evenings at the Holy Cross Catholic church. Mrs. Ben Brynaldson of Chicago was soloist on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McMahon and son Billie of Chicago were guests on Sunday at the R. D. Reeds home on Orchard lane.

Don't miss seeing the one-act comedy, "Miss Nonchalance" to be given by the women of Dorcas Circle Four, tonight, at the Presbyterian church assembly room. The play is to be followed by an old-time ice cream social and sing fest.

Patricia Stace of Green Bay, Wis., is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr.

The Just Sew club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. R. Knaak. Mrs. William Kreh will be the next hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Meyer were Sunday dinner guests at the Denver Courson home in Waukegan.

Fenton Hopkins, John Derby and Edmund Koebelin are on the staff at the Boy Scout camp, Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan. They left last week and will return the first part of August. Local scouts left for camp on Monday, June 27. Fenton is waterfront director, John dining hall director, and Edmund assistant camp clerk.

Mrs. R. V. Hutchison and daughter, Louise Anne of Chicago, were luncheon guests on Monday at the R. D. Reeds home.

Ernest Heidbrink of Chicago was the guest of Wallace Reichelt on Monday evening.

Mrs. Thorn of Forest Glen spent Monday with Mrs. Fred Meyer.

Last Sunday afternoon, Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok assisted by four members of the Tri C society, took members of the L.L.L. club on a tour to the Maxwell Street Market and to the Hull House. The condition of the market was quite a surprise to the young people and the tour through Hull House proved of great interest.

Mrs. Edna Orsborn and son Charles left Sunday with Mrs. Lester Stanger and daughter Bonnie, of Highland Park and Mrs. Vinton Thompson of Rogers Park to visit relatives in Grand Junction, Iowa. Charles will remain in Iowa for the summer.

The annual parish carnival of the Holy Cross church is scheduled for July 21 to 24, from Thursday to Sunday inclusive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bach of Itasca, Ill., have a baby girl born last Monday.

The Dorcas society will meet Thursday, July 7, at the Presbyterian church.

Postmaster Fred H. Meyer, accompanied by Mrs. Delbert Meyer, Mrs. Raymond Meyer and her three little boys left Tuesday to be gone until after the Fourth. Mrs. Delbert Meyer will stop off at Vandalia, Ill. for a visit with her sister, Mrs. William Renshaw, and will continue to Brownstown to visit her father and then on to St. Louis and to New Florence, Mo. The rest of the members of the automobile trip will go directly to New Florence, Mo. for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer (Bess Schilstra).

Mrs. Fred Meyer went to Harvey, Ill. on Tuesday to remain with her daughter Mrs. Harry Norton, while the family is in Missouri.

Dorothy and Kenneth Vetter and Raymond Carter acted as hosts at the C. E. business meeting Tuesday evening at the Bungalow church.