

Local and Personal of Deerfield

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clavey were hosts at a party Saturday evening, at their home on Spruce street.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Erickson of Rosemary terrace entertained five out of town guests, Independence day.

Deerfield was mentioned in Friday's Herald-Examiner in the "Believe It or Not" by Ripley. A picture of a large dairy cow had the following explanation: "Queen Bessie Pietertze Ormsby produced 2,876.4 pounds of butter in two years—Elmwood Farms, Deerfield, Ill.

Mrs. Roy Miller had as her guests on Monday, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer of Chicago, who are leaving this week to spend a month at Charlevoix, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall of Elgin spent Wednesday and Thursday at the Edward Brennan home. Miss Marion Hall, who had spent the past week with her aunt and uncle, returned to Elgin with her parents.

Last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tappenbeck and Mr. Thomas Tappenbeck of Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. Derrickson of Forest Glen visited at the Emil Fredricks home on West Central avenue.

Jack Repenning of Pontiac, Mich. has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Long.

Mrs. Roy Haggie was hostess to her luncheon five hundred club yesterday (Wednesday).

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Mele of West Central avenue have been entertaining relatives from Chicago this past week.

Mrs. George F. Danforth is spending several weeks at the home of her son, Rev. Leland Danforth of Kenilworth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wing of Osterman avenue spent the week-end in Urbana, Ill.

The Christensen family has moved from Mrs. Elizabeth Kent's house on Osterman avenue. Glenn Christensen was a member of the 1932 Deerfield-Shields commencement class.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's church is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C. Kapschull.

Wallace Reichelt attended a steak fry and beach party Friday evening at Lake Forest.

Mr. Young, veterinarian at the Orphans of the Storm, dog refuge, has rented Carl Knigge's bungalow on West Central avenue. The Knigges are residing near Half Day and are operating a Sinclair Service station on Milwaukee avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kerrihard and children of Greenwood avenue, have gone to Red Oaks, Iowa, for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jacobson and Mrs. Jacobson's grandfather, Mr. George Rockenbach, were guests on Friday at the home of Mrs. Jacobson's brother, Auston Plagge of Hines, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Matseck spent the week-end with Mrs. Matseck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Albrecht of Mundelein. Mrs. Matseck is proprietor of the Kay Beauty Shop.

Wallace Journey of Rotary International visited local Rotarians last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Potterton of West Central avenue, have a son born June 27 in Beloit, Wis. They have named him Wayne Russell.

Jack Gagne spent last week visiting his father, Edward Gagne, and his grandmother, Mrs. Otto Fromm in Chicago. His sister, Marilyn, returned to Deerfield with him for a visit with their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Plagge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wood of Rosemary terrace, spent their vacation at Corey Lake, Mich. Miss Jane Wood, who is attending Moser Business college, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Fabian of Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr., had as their guests on Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reid and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krueger and Mrs. George Alcott, all of Chicago. Mr. Alcott edits a Chicago Realty paper.

A meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of St. Paul's Evangelical church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mathilda Borchart of Highland Park.

Mrs. Olivia Anderson has gone to Traverse City, Mich., with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lundgren of Highland Park, to spend the summer.

Mr. E. S. Wortham's niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. James Hart, spent several days during the Democratic convention with Mr. and Mrs. Wortham. Mr. Hart was a delegate from Virginia.

The Konsitski family has moved from the Ebert farm on Wilmot road to Hazel avenue and are residing in the Lorence Gloden house.

Miss Mary English of Evanston was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Irving Brand, from Thursday until Sunday.

Elmer Haggie is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Miller and assisting in the Briar Sweet shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brennan moved into the R. E. Pettis house, 761 Chestnut street, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Getty and two children Sarah and Philip returned from Philadelphia to be at their home on Westgate road over the Fourth. James came home from Colorado Springs last week. Mr. Getty left yesterday to return to the east but Mrs. Getty and the children will remain in Deerfield for the time being.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Shapiro and three children and Mrs. Shapiro's sister Miss Rebecca Taitel of Knox, Ind., who is their house guest, were Sunday guests at the Ansel Levinson home in Chicago. On the previous Sunday they were among the sixty guests who attended the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taitel at Bass Lake, Ind.

Mrs. Earl Frost entertained her club last Monday. Mrs. A. J. Johnson, who is the next hostess, will entertain on July 27.

A shower was given last Friday at the home of Mrs. Charles Grant of Highland Park, in compliment to Mrs. Hans Bahr (Tanis Greer).

A card party has been planned for tonight (Thursday) at the Masonic temple by members of the Eastern Star, following the regular meeting.

Miss Gertrude Johnson is spending two weeks at Deep Lake at the home of her uncle, Mr. A. E. Chelberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacobs Sr. are returning this week from Lake Wandawega, Wis., where they spent several weeks.

The Independent Social club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Ott.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bingham and daughter, Sally, and Mrs. Amelia Pyle of Chicago, were guests at the Ender homes on Monday.

Miss Vivian Fehr of Freeport, Ill., spent last week with relatives in Deerfield.

Mr. Fred Dow of Chicago is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson. His nieces Vivian and Muriel Dow, are spending this month with the Johnsons.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Dondanville (Eva Ender) and their family of Moline, Ill., will arrive next week for a visit with the Ender families.

The Citizens State bank of Deerfield was opened this week for those who wished to have access to their safety deposit vaults.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McMahon and son Billie of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds on Monday. The two families picnicked at one of the County Forest Preserves near Palatine.

Word comes from Galesburg that Le Ray Gunckel is improving in health and has left the hospital.

Mr. P. H. Meyer and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Meyer and her sons, have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer of New Florence, Mo. Mrs. Delbert Meyer expects to be gone for several weeks visiting in Vandalia, Brownstown, St. Louis and New Florence, Mo.

S. P. Hutchison and Leo McLane have been serving on the jury in Waukegan. They have been gone since a week ago Tuesday, and the case will continue possibly for another week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. William Koebelin and Mrs. Sarah Fritsch attended a family gathering on Monday at the John Schminke home in Wheeling.

Mr. and Mrs. Auston Plagge and daughter Lorraine of Hines, Ill., were guests on the Fourth at the William Plagge home on Elm street.

Mr. George Rockenbach and two daughters, Misses Viola and Irene, attended a family picnic Monday on the lawn of the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mills of Diamond Lake. They witnessed the "Prosperity Parade" of the Lake County Farm Bureau, which was two miles long and traveled 66 miles from the western side of the county, through many of the towns and Waukegan.

A "Homecoming" was held on Monday at the Dorcas Home. All boys and girls who have ever lived there were invited to spend the day in Deerfield.

An ice cream social has been planned for Friday evening, July 22, at the lawn of St. Paul's Evangelical church, Deerfield, sponsored by Circle Four, of which Mrs. Frank Jacobs Jr. is chairman. The Prairie View band of 35 pieces will give an open air concert that evening during the social.

Mrs. V. W. Spriggs and Miss Dorothy Lidgerwood accompanied 21 girls of Girl Scout troop one, on a picnic Friday afternoon, at the Forest Preserve at Dundee and Waukegan roads. Each brought a basket lunch. The afternoon was devoted to baseball. The girls are meeting tomorrow at the church for a continued study of flowers and nature work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Notz and two little sons attended the birthday anniversary celebration of Master Charles at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Notz in Chicago on Sunday.

Miss Ruth Jackson has gone east to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Hammond, in Baltimore. She will attend Beaver college in Philadelphia in the fall.

A large group of Deerfield people had a marvelous display of fireworks in the rear of Briarwoods subdivision, across from the Deerfield school, Monday evening. It was as interesting as any municipal display of pyrotechnics.

Dr. and Mrs. V. W. Spriggs were week-end guests at the Ranson Tyler home in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Allen Weinstock and two children, Thomas and Julia, of Warrington road, are spending the summer at a camp along the river near Marietta, Ohio. Mr. Weinstock spent this past week-end in Davenport, Ohio.

The S. W. Flint family of Highland Park, Mrs. Emilie Glos of Northbrook, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Glos and son Raymond of Freeport were guests on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Notz.

The Deerfield Chamber of Commerce members, wives, families and friends enjoyed an evening basket lunch picnic and outing at Diamond Lake last Thursday. The evening was enjoyably spent in boating, swimming and horseshoe pitching.

Monday evening dinner guests at the J. R. Notz home were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Notz and son Charles, Mrs. Anna Notz and Rudolph Notz of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lord Jr. and daughter Jacqueline and Mrs. Lord's mother, Mrs. Kaufman of Chicago were dinner guests on Monday evening at the Emil Fredricks home. Mr. Lord is a grandson of the late C. W. Pettis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Boyer are enjoying a two-weeks automobile trip through the Ozarks. Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Merrell are staying at the Boyer home with two of the Boyer children, Donald and Rebecca-Jean. The other two children Morley and Molly Bell are with Mrs. Boyer's parents in La Rose, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ellis of Austin visited at the home of Mrs. William Huhn on Monday.

Mrs. John Robertson writes from Joliet that her family had an eventful week during June. Her son, John, was married June 11 to Miss Margaret Barborn, her daughter, Betty, was graduated from Junior college, and Eleanor from the grade school. The other daughter, Lillian, is still attending high school. News of the Robertsons will be of interest to a great many, as they lived here and Mayor and Mrs. James Hood bought their home. Mr. Robertson died about four years ago, very suddenly, while on a business trip in Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Antes and children have returned from a visit to Texas. Mrs. Antes' father, Mr. Eberlein, has rented his home in Texas and is now visiting with his daughter's family.

of Christ, Scientist
of Christ, Scientist,
Illinois, 381 Hazel
branch of The Mother Church of Christ,
Boston, Mass. The Sun-
service is held at 11
Wednesday evening
includes testimonies healing, is at 8
y school is open to the ages of four and Sunday morning at

next Sunday's lesson
ment."

ic reading room is this church at 43 N.
which is open daily
n the morning to 6 in cept on Wednesday,
until 7:30. On Sunroom is open from ere the Bible and all stian Science literad, borrowed, or pur-

ally invited to attend
d make use of the

Evangelical Church
Deerfield

Repenbrok, Pastor
9:15 a.m.
ices, 10:15 a.m.
2:

meeting at St. John's
rch, Highland Park.
g and progressive prospective member.

our annual church
et park, Highland the day for your ur friends.

cream social on ponsored by circle
Aid. The Prairie resent a concert in the social.

WT-ADS

RESULTS

delicious

NNER

il 8:30 p.m.)

or you and ess" of our tivate your surround-afford you
our utmost

Club
O M