

Church Gained 11 Votes; Recount for Congress District Over James

Church gained 11 votes in the recount for the 1st Congressional District over James. The defeated candidate, who petitioned for a recount. This makes Simpson 131 votes over the prevailing spirit around the Board of Election in City hall, Chicago, which is in progress is a sure winner, with more votes than he received in the recount organization.

The recount organization in Evanston precincts; three in Wilmette, one in Kenilworth, Northbrook. A total of 53 precincts in Evanston wards have been counted. Church gained 11 votes in the recounting of the wards. There now are 11 precincts for Com. Rusch's recount or complete before they all of the district in the country towns. This should be complete of the week; when the organization will return to city wards and open boxes.

It is now that the recount of 50 persons will be begun next week will start in the there of recounting the 75 precincts in

It is noted that the figures 7 or 11 of gambling committee that Church on the 7th month should

Y.M.C. Nine Defeats Highwood in Hard Fought Game, Sunday

By the narrow margin of one run, the Highland Park Young Men's club baseball team snapped their three game losing streak with a 4-3 victory over the Highwood Indians last Sunday. George Yeary let the Indians down with five hits, emerging victorious in a pitching duel with Johnnie Artis, who, by the way, yielded only four blows.

The Highland Parkers scored one in the first without the aid of a hit, two walks and a fielder's choice turning the trick. The next uprising of the victors took place in the third when Frank McLaughlin was hit by a pitched ball, "Red" Silver beat out a bunt, and both scored on "Moon" Stipe's timely wallop. The final and winning run was scored in the seventh on a hit by McLaughlin and a pair of Highwood errors.

The Indians scored one in the first on a hit by "Buck" Taylor, a walk, and a couple of errors. Their other two markers clattered across in the sixth as a result of solid smacks off the bats of Armstrong, Maestri, and Baruffi.

Taylor, the losers' third baseman, was the only athlete to garner two hits.

Next Sunday the local nine meets the Fort Sheridan outfit at Sunset park. The game will be called at 8:00 o'clock and the usual cash prize will be awarded to the holder of the lucky number.

"States Attorney." In "States Attorney" John Barrymore over acts in a picture made from previous legal-hero films — political aspirations complicated with illicit love, with hero performing prodigies now for, now against crooks. Waste of time and talent.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 19, 20, and 21, "Letty Lynton." Perhaps the sexiest film to date. Wealthy heroine, let go by long suffering mother, enjoys sex orgies around the world. Meets clean hero, "true love," poisons last lover, and perjury by mother, maid and hero brings happy ending. Adults should see it and think. Bad for youth and children.

Reinstall Exhibits of Ore in Museum

The large collection of ores of heavy metals, building stones, and non-metallic minerals on exhibition in Frederick J. V. Skiff Hall at Field Museum of Natural History have been reinstalled, the revision including the addition of much new material, and the improvement of methods of display. To assist students and other interested individuals, more complete informational labels have been provided, and many cases have been equipped with maps showing the distribution of the materials.

D.A.R. Better Films Committee Review

The Alcyon presents this coming week a program for adults.

Thursday and Friday, July 14 and 15, "While Paris Sleeps" and "Man Wanted." "While Paris Sleeps" shows the long lost father, supposed dead, as a war hero, escaping from prison to find his daughter imperilled by the underworld. He saves her at the cost of his life. Some human bits, but acting very ordinary. Entirely unsuited for young and children. "Man Wanted." Rich playboy husband and hard working editor wife who love each other, but lead independent lives. Hero becomes secretary to editor, so that her divorce and his broken engagement are necessary for a happy ending. Sophisticated but not offensive. Unsuitable for young or children.

Saturday, July 16, "Radio Patrol" is propoganda for high duty of police force toward community welfare. It is heavily cluttered with crude romance, brutal murder and hero turning grafter. Chief merit is role played by Russell Hopton as pal of grafter. Not good for young. Sunday and Monday, July 17 and 18, "Reserved for Ladies" and
