

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Dave Horenberger of Milwaukee is visiting at the home of her son, Edward Horenberger. Mrs. Horenberger, who resides with a daughter, Mrs. Stanley Reeves in Milwaukee, celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary on July 20. As Salome Iehl, she came when ten years old, with her parents and brothers and sisters from Alsace Lorraine to the very farm on which she is now visiting. Mrs. Horenberger's other son, Carl, resides here, also. She is the aunt of Mrs. Mary Huhn and Mrs. George Antes.

Mrs. Irving Brand is leaving on Friday with her sister Miss Ann English of Evanston, for a two weeks stay at Bishop Sheil's lodge at Power's Lake, Wis.

Mrs. E. H. Selig attended a bridge luncheon on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Bartling of Glenview, given in honor of Mrs. Bartling's sister, Mrs. Charles Anderson, who has spent the past four years in the Philippine Islands. Both Mr. and Mrs. Anderson teach in the Philippines and are returning there for another four years of service.

Due to the success of the bakery sale given recently by Dorcas circle No. 2, and because they were unable to fill the many orders, they are planning another sale for Saturday August 20, beginning at 9 a.m. at the Deerfield A. and P. store on Waukegan road. Orders for any particular kind of food which is desired may be phoned to Mrs. Peter Anderson, Deerfield 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rommel and two daughters Janet and Ruth of La Grange and Miss Frances Kent of Wauconda were guests on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Philip Rommel.

Mr. John Driscoll and Mr. Louis Rommel of Chicago were the Sunday evening supper guests of Mrs. Philip Rommel.

The Ira Gardners returned last Wednesday from Missouri.

Howard Haggie, Marshall and Orval Fredricks attended the professional match at the Ridgemoor Country club on Sunday.

Mrs. W. K. Hout entertained her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman of Lake Bluff were guests at the Lincoln Pettis home on Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Young moved into the Carl Knigge home on Central avenue on Saturday. Dr. Young is veterinarian at the dog refuge, Orphans of the Storm.

S. P. Hutchison and Leo McLane who served on the jury for a whole month, during the Waukegan bank trial, have returned to their respective homes.

The Friday Evening Dinner club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. W. W. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds of Orchard lane had as their dinner guests on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Hutchison and daughter Louise Ann of Chicago, Mrs. Hutchison's mother, Mrs. Fletcher and little granddaughter Jean Fletcher, both of Auburn, Ind.

The Sunshine group of the WMS met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Orville Enderbrok.

A play, "Everybody's Affair," for wild flower preservation, is being rehearsed by Girl Scouts of Troop 1, under the supervision of Mrs. V. W. Spriggs. No date has been set, but the girls are busy making their paper flower costumes.

Mrs. A. H. Muhlke, Mrs. R. M. Vant, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhlke and daughter Betty were the guests of Mrs. George Vetter of Austin on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine and children were guests at the Joseph Neild home in Highland Park on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shafer of Long Lake were guests on Saturday evening at the Bruce Blaine home.

A beach party was given Friday evening by a group of fourteen as a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bowman of Harlingen, Texas. Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brand and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Meyer.

Miss Josephine Trute has moved to Chicago and will stay at St. Joseph's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heine of Lake Forest visited Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Schrickel of Bradford road entertained out of town guests this past week-end.

Miss Anna Kruse was hostess at luncheon on Saturday to six guests from Chicago.

Mr. Eugene Ender is quite ill again. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. C. W. Getty was home this past week-end from Philadelphia for a visit with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Fair Oaks avenue spent the week-end with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philips of Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Trygve Nelson and Miss Anna Ott returned Thursday from a vacation trip in Minnesota.

The former radio station WHT, just north of the village limits on Waukegan road, is now known as "The People's Pulpit association WCHI." The property was owned by William Hale Thompson, former mayor of Chicago, from which it derived its initials, WHT.

Mrs. William Voas and son Bobby have gone to New Mexico, where they will remain for the coming year. Mr. Voas, who is an instructor in the Winnetka school system, will reside in Winnetka.

On Saturday, Mr. William Voas with Mrs. Baker and children of Winnetka visited Mrs. Harry Whitcomb.

There will be no August meeting of the Deerfield chamber of commerce. The July meeting was also called off.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitcomb and two sons George and Wilbur of Barrington were guests on Saturday at the George Harder home on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Irving Brand spent Saturday with her sister Miss Rose English of Evanston.

Misses Martha and Mayme Karch returned Sunday from a two weeks in St. Paul and Minneapolis and with their sister, Mrs. Frank Sae-man of Cross Plains, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz, Miss Laura Wessling, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rapp and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wessling attended a rally at Des Plaines on Sunday.

Mrs. Ross Sherman entertained her club on Friday afternoon at her home on Osterman avenue.

Mrs. Roy M. Miller entertained her luncheon bridge club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred La Bahn spent Sunday with relatives in Evanston.

Edward L. Cooney of Forest Park was buried Saturday in St. Patrick's cemetery, West Lake Forest. Mr. Cooney is survived by his widow Aldine, and a brother Thomas.

The former F. W. Russo home on Forest avenue has been bought by Mr. Johnson of Evanston, who is connected with the Cadillac Co.

Dorcas Circle Three met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. M. Vant.

Miss Lucille Miller of Freeport and Mr. Homer Fehr of Dakota, Ill., spent the week-end with the Rapp and Wessling families.

Mrs. Mary K. ... spent Monday with her cousin, Mrs. Fred Mohrbach in Winnetka.

Ruth Shapiro is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Taitel in Knox, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brennan and son Edward have been visiting relatives in Moline, Ill., this past week.

Circle One of St. Paul's church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Willman of Chestnut street.

Mr. William H. Ducker Jr. of Chicago, spent last week with his sister, Miss Mabel Ducker at the home of Mrs. A. R. Warner.

Richard Welterding and George Stryker completed their school year at the University of Cincinnati and returned to their home Saturday. They will return to school the first of October.

The Dorcas society is holding an all day meeting today at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seago of Sunset court entertained out of town guests this past week-end.

Max Malter of Chicago will erect a home on a twenty acre tract near the corner of Deerfield avenue and Wilmot road, it is reported.

Albert Mitchell of the Rustic Kennels on Deerfield road will exhibit eight or nine breeds of dogs at the Northbrook Kennel club show being held August 6 and 7 in Northbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Roggow had as their guests on Sunday, Mrs. Roggow's three nieces Mrs. Louise Copeland, Mrs. Frank Wiener and Mrs. Lillian Wiener of Brighton Park.

Mr. and Mrs. William Niemeyer and children of Arlington Heights were guests at the Emil Fredricks home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Orrell and two children Leslie and Muriel have moved from the Earnest house at 850 Rosemary Terrace to Oak Park.

Auxiliary members of St. Paul's church attended the annual outing at the Bensenville Children's home on Friday.

Hans Stressler and George Primo, who had been residing at the Chester Wessling home have gone to northern Michigan where they are building a cabin.

The Rainbow Group of the WMS met Friday at the home of Mrs. Arno Frantz.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Taylor and daughter Virginia of Glen Ellyn and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Taylor of Vinton, Iowa were dinner guests on Saturday evening at the George Rockenbach home.

Walter Metcalf Jr. is attending the Culver Naval school at Culver, Ind. this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bowman and daughter Jane, who have been visiting Mrs. Bowman's sister, Mrs. Harry Muhlke, left Saturday for their home in Harlingen, Texas.

Mrs. Le Roy Scully (Hazel Easton) is very ill at the Highland Park hospital, where she was taken a week ago Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Jacobs Jr. entertained her bridge club on Thursday afternoon at her home on Elm street.

The family which resided in the oKtrasch house on Elm st., moved to Highland Park on Saturday.

Alice Louise, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clavey, entertained thirty-five guests, on Saturday afternoon, in honor of her third birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ott entertained at dinner on Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Johnson was hostess to the members of her bridge club on Monday afternoon.

A surprise party was given Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frost in honor of Mr. Frost's birthday anniversary. Guests were his brothers, sisters, father and relatives all of Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Palmer have returned from a trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. Relatives from Chicago stayed at the Palmer home during their absence.

The Independent Social club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Juhrend of Elm street.

The E. S. Plagge family of Rogers Park spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Stanger.

Billy and Bobby Bendt of Chicago spent last week with their little cousins, the children of Mr. and Mrs. George Ott.

A surprise birthday party was held at the Ira Bubert home in Wheeling on Monday evening, in honor of Mrs. Leana Wessling. Guests from this vicinity who attended were Mr. and Mrs. George Stanger, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger and two sons, with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stanger of Highland Park and Mr. and Mrs. Simson S. Stanger of Ravinia.