Morrison's record of 140 for the thirty-six holes, scored last season, and the course record in tournament play of 69 for 18 holes, shared by Abe Espinosa and two or three others.

Tickets are now on sale at the Sunset Valley Golf club and through members at special rates. HIGHLAND PARK PUBLIC LIBRARY HIGHLAND PARK ILLINOIS

Some new books added to the Highland Park public library during July:

- Reference: Dictionary of American Biography, vol. 9. Political Handbook of the World, by W. H. Mallory. The Deerfield, 1932. Essay and General Literature Index, edited by M. E. Sears. Philosophy: What We Live By, by Ernest Dimmet. Men, Women and God, by A. H. Gray. Social Sciences: Successful Living in This Machine Age, by E. A. Filene. White House Conference, 1930. Pony Express, by A. Chapman. Natural Science: Practical Mathematics for Home Study, by C. I. Palmer. Wild Cargo, by Frank Buck. Useful Arts: Book of Metals, by D. Wilhelm. Aircraft Mechanics Handbook, by I. W. Miller. Artificial Light and Its Application, by M. Dygert. Hotel Management, by Lucius Roemer.

I find great consolation in the public library. In the branch or suburban library, as a rule I cannot find that which I seek. In the vestibule or corridor of the Main (at present home of the unemployed) on the shelves, there is at all times any thing and everything my heart or mind desires. As a rule, mine is non-fiction principally the ifs, whys wherefores, causes and cures of the attempts to solve the universal depression of the last three years. Likewise I read the Forum, Survey, Graphic, and the Nation. Under the present conditions the public library to a man of my age, a bachelor, and no home ties, is a perfect haven of quietude, rest, peace, and consolation.

Independent Social Club Annual Picnic

Two hundred guests attended the annual picnic of the Independent Social club on Sunday at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckman near Aptakisic. Three baseball games in progress that day and the Beckman team...

of their own families won all three games. There were cards for those who desired to play and the Horenberger family carried away the honors, Mrs. Fred Horenberger receiving high score and Mrs. Ed. Horenberger low score.

A contest of keen interest was the horse shot pitching contest. Jack Salvey of Lake Forest and his partner Cecil Meiter of Waukegan, defeated Earl Frost of Deerfield and his brother-in-law, Edward Nolan of Lake Forest in a close game.

Winners in games and races were Mrs. Albert Hagi, L. J. Soefker, Emeline Walker, Florence Ott, Chris Willman Jr., E. M. Palmer, Barbara Boone, Voneta Frost, Mrs. Earl Frost and Mrs. J. C. Nolan.

The basket dinner was served on the spacious grounds and the ideal weather made the day a complete success.

DOLLAR DAYS HERE ON AUGUST 12-13

Indications are that there will be heavy patronage at all business houses participating in the sale, and buyers are urged to shop early in order to get the advantage of selections from complete stocks of the articles advertised.

Remember the dates—Friday and Saturday, August 12 and 13—for the biggest Dollar Days sales Highland Park merchants have ever put on.

Mrs. Richard B. Patterson, her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Hedges, and baby granddaughter Louise, of Edison Park were the guests of Mrs. W. W. Clark on Friday.
