

Claim for Lake
Share of Schools
Distributive Funds

County school superintendent today made a claim of $102,703 against Francis G. Blair, county auditor of public income, for the Lake county distributive fund. Blair, who is in charge of the state distributive fund, will lay the claim against Blair, state auditor of public income, for payment. Blair sought $102,703 for the Lake county elementary schools but only $62,611 was available because of the slowness of tax collection. There has been a delay in payment for two months. Blair asked of this district this year is based on the enrollment in the schools in the county, Petty benefits less than the other counties in the state and, as he said, it is the policy of the state to "backward" counties so that educational advantages can be obtained through Illinois. Blair said that in the state, districts in the state, are in Lake county, draw more than any local cause of the inability to pay from taxes to pay a salary, Petty said.

Treasurer Files
Suit for Priority
Claim Against Bank

Treasurer Jay B. Morse filed suit for a priority claim on the Highwood bank which closed July 28. He had a deposit there of $850 annually in a salary, Petty said.

Attorney A. V. Smith filed suit, which is similar to that filed by the treasurer in the Waukegan State bill sets up that State auditor Nelson has not accepted for this bank, it was ten days ago that H. who was one of the proposed Waukegan opening, is the receiver. Blair said that in the state, districts in the state, are in Lake county, draw more than any local cause of the inability to pay from taxes to pay a salary, Petty said.
