

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Getty and family moved yesterday to St. Davids, Penn., a town about twenty minutes ride out of Philadelphia. Mr. Getty, who is assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, has been transferred to the east. The Gettys have rented their home on Westgate road to Mr. and Mrs. Horace King of Chicago who are moving to Deerfield on Thursday (today).

Mr. and Mrs. B. Minorini of Greenwood avenue had as their guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Koropps and daughter Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Sagerquist, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson, Miss Myra Olson, Miss Catherine Wille and Mr. Peter Newton of Chicago, Mr. Lewis Caspy of Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. C. Bastian, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. C. Bastian, Jr., Mrs. Schultz of Portage Park and Miss Dalle Stapleton of Austin.

Miss Jane Wood will assist with nine others on Saturday afternoon when Miss Ellen Truax makes her bow to society at the home of Miss Truax' grandmother, Mrs. William C. Egan, in Highland Park.

Miss Ethel Titus, who spent the past year with Mrs. J. G. Myers in Madison, Wis., is now visiting in Libertyville.

Father Savage, pastor of the Holy Cross church is moving next month from the Browning house, to the Walter Toll residence, one door north.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith (Faith Reichelt) of Wilmette, visited at the Reichelt Jr. home on Sunday. On Monday, the Smiths accompanied Mrs. John A. Reichelt Sr. of Wilmette and Mrs. Sue Cowlin Read of Woodstock to the Senior Reichelt Chautauqua cottage at Boulder, Colo., for a month's sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Wilson and sons of Libertyville were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Willey of Niles Center were guests at the George Engstrom home on Sunday.

David, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Burns, is recuperating nicely from a series of operations for tonsils, adenoids, and appendicitis, which he underwent recently at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bondi and little daughter of Chicago were week-end guests at the Arthur Wagner home.

Miss Alice Eads, who has made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Burns of Todd court, completed four years of study at Loretto academy at Niagara Falls in Canada in June. On last Monday she entered the convent of the Order of the Sisters of Loretto at their new noviate in Chicago to become a nun, where she will remain for a year, before entering the Abbey in Toronto. Miss Eads will take the name of a beloved nun, who passed away last year.

Helen and John Engstrom are visiting their grandfather in Marion, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Wilson who have been occupying the Albert Hagi house, 1003 Osterman avenue, have moved to the Udell apartments in Highland Park. Mr. Wilson is a partner in the Wilson and Reagan Deerfield Meat market.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Varney and family have been visiting relatives in Michigan this past week.

The play "Everybody's Affair," teaching wild flower preservation, which was to have been given this week by Girl Scouts of troop one, has been indefinitely postponed, is the announcement made by the captain, Mrs. V. W. Spriggs, as two of the important characters, Ruth Andrews and Sarah Getty, are moving away.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Devine were guests on Thursday at the Harry Granstrom home in Zion.

A surprise farewell party for two of their members, Ruth Andrews and Sarah Getty, was given Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church by the Girl Scouts of Troop One. Sarah moved on Wednesday to Pennsylvania, and Ruth is departing for Kentucky.

Miss Jane Warner was hostess to the Girl Scouts of Troop Two at her home on West Deerfield avenue, Monday evening.

Edwin Wood and Edward Cazel deserted their "flivver" in Utah and returned home by odd train rides last week from a vagabond trip of several months, during which time they visited the West Coast and many states.

Mrs. Alex Withman will entertain her sewing club next Wednesday afternoon at her home on Waukegan road.

Mr. and Mrs. Auston Plagge and daughter Lorraine of Hines, Ill., visited at the William Plagge home on Saturday, en route to Duluth, Minn., for a two weeks visit with Mrs. Plagge's relatives.

Mr. C. E. Friedland of Chicago spent Saturday visiting friends in Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shulder and children of Lily Lake were guests at the Emil Fredricks home on Saturday. Betty Shulder remained to spend the week with her cousin Charlotte Fredricks.

The Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church will hold a picnic at Sunset park on Thursday, September 1. All are asked to meet at the church at eleven in the morning, bringing their own sandwiches and one extra dish of salad or desert. In case of rain they will have their luncheon in the church.

The Holy Name society met Monday evening at the Holy Cross church.

Miss Dorothy Vetter sang at the Barrington Camp meeting on Sunday in a duet with her cousin from Downers Grove.

Miss Dorothy Lidgerwood left Saturday with Miss Evelyn Scheel (a former Deerfield teacher) of Chicago and Miss Scheel's parents for a five days cruise on the Great Lakes.

The Altar and Rosary society will meet next Friday evening, Sept. 2, at the parish hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merner and family spent the week-end at the Galt cottage at Brandywine Lake, Michigan.

Miss Ethel Button is spending this week with Miss Helen Hartman of Hinsdale.

Miss Mabel Ducker and Miss Winifred Nichol have returned from a trip to Casper, Wyo.

Mr. and Mrs. Poidevin and family of Winnipeg, Canada, have returned to their home after a visit with the W. B. Carr and Harry Olendorf families.

Mrs. Jacob Yenni and son Glenn of Sonoma, Calif., who are visiting relatives in this vicinity, spent Thursday with the Louis Sohmers family in Wheaton.

The R. R. Gobeli family has moved from 1106 Hazel avenue to Evanston. Mr. Gobeli is in the employ of the Public service.

The Deerfield Woman's club will resume its meetings the latter part of September.

John Fordham who fell out of a tree while at play last week was found to have received no broken bones. He remained in the Highland Park hospital under observation for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Weinstock and children have returned from Marietta, Ohio, to their home on Warrington road.

Mr. and Mrs. Franc Hempstead are enjoying an automobile trip through Yellowstone National Park.

Miss Eleanor Krueze of Des Plaines spent last week at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Hutchison and daughter of Chicago spent the week-end with Deerfield relatives.

The Auxiliary carnival committee met in Kapschull's office on Monday afternoon to complete the financial report of their work in the refreshment stand last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Antes and Mrs. George Antes left Saturday for Marquette, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Antes will return the latter part of this week, but Mrs. Antes expects to remain there for about three weeks, until the hay fever season is over.

Mrs. L. H. Waite of Cedar street has returned from a trip to Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Timson and family of Evanston visited in Deerfield on Saturday. The Timsons have a home on Wilmot road.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Meyer and grandson Freddy Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Meyer were guests on Sunday at the Harry Norton home in Harvey. Freddy remained to spend the week with his aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sticken Jr. (Helen Roll) left Sunday to spend two weeks with relatives in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Anderson were hosts at a party on Saturday evening at their home on Chestnut street.

About thirty attended the Royal Neighbor picnic last Wednesday at Jewett park and enjoyed a basket luncheon followed by games for young and old.

The Tuesday Evening Sewing club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Harold Youngs of Todd court.

Mrs. Irving Brand returned Thursday evening from a two weeks trip with her sister Miss Ann English of Evanston. They stayed at Bishop Shiel's lodge at Powers Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Arnold and daughter of Stratford road have been visiting relatives in Iowa.

Miss Stella Spriggs is recuperating from her recent operation at the home of her brother, Dr. V. W. Spriggs, where she will remain for several weeks.

Faith Sodd, 21, a granddaughter of John Plagge of Barrington, died Sunday at the West Suburban hospital from an infection. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sodd (Nora Plagge.)

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe McKillip expect to leave this week-end for a several weeks stay at Eagle River, Wis.

The bridge club which was to have met last week at the home of Mrs. V. W. Spriggs has been postponed until next Wednesday afternoon.

Wallace Reichelt was a guest at the Senn home in Chicago Heights on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Emmerson of Cedar Rapids, Ia., arrived Monday evening for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Engstrom of Central avenue. Mrs. Emmerson is Mr. Engstrom's sister.

Mrs. Carl E. Bates and son, Carl John, will remain in Iowa with Mrs. Bates' mother until October first. Mr. Bates, who is principal of the Deerfield Grammar school, is expected to return this week.

Mrs. Roy Haskins and three daughters of Wilmette spent the week-end at the Biederstadt home. On Saturday Mrs. Haskins and her sister, Mrs. Mildred Gibbs, accompanied Fred Meyer to Elgin to get Jack Gibbs who is a student at the Chicago Junior school in that city. Jack returned with them for a two weeks visit in Deerfield.

Mrs. Albert Krause entertained out of town guests last week.

Sunday dinner guests at the George Rockenbach home were Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Rockenbach and daughters Elizabeth and Shirley and Miss Eva Williams of Crystal Lake. The girls returned that evening, but Mr. and Mrs. Rockenbach remained over night.

Orin Spalding and Edwin West made a brave rescue of one of the animals of John Stryker's menagerie last Tuesday evening. An alligator escaped from its cage and was wandering in the street. While attempting to get away, the alligator was struck by a passing car, but was only stunned. Several turtles have disappeared lately, and all the turkeys have died.

igger the market
etter the results.
HAT EXTRA ROOM
ANT-ADS for Results

EPHONE 410
SMITH
Dealer in UNK
St. Highland Park

STEINER

NATURAL
PARKLING
BLE WATER
TTLED IN GERMANY

WITH YOUR MEALS

Also a full line of GINGER ALES AND MINERAL WATERS

No extra charge for suburban deliveries.
Orders before 10 a.m. are delivered the same day.

CALumet 4230

IDT PRODUCTS CO.
CHICAGO LOS ANGELES

ARKLE

ow Cleaner

orth Shore friends.
y not You?

nd by merchants who der a real service to ers, and there's a

today from one of sted below and you that reason.

AND PARK off Hardware al Hardware and Bros.
y Furniture Co.
pp Bros.
Park Pharmacy

AVINIA
ter Hardware
ERFIELD
Hardware Co.
SHWOOD
dan Garage