reme club will meet Thurs ing at the home of Mrs. Huhn of Springfield ave.

eorge Harder will enter. bridge club on Friday

Reichelt spent Friday rday as the guest of Ed. aker of Natoma Farm near racle's night is to be ob the Deerfield Camp of the eighbors on Thursday evenight) the Masonic tem.

dependent Social club will dnesday afternoon at the Mrs. Earl Frost of Oster.

. D. Bleimehl will be host-Circle One of St. Paul's n Wednesday afternoon at her home on Deerfield ugust Winter will enter-St. Paul's Sewing society day afternoon, Sept. 15, at on Elm street.

urke family moved last n the Bruggman house.

d Mrs. Julian Rocquier of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Hutd daughter Louise Ann of were dinner guests on y at the R. D. Reeds home d lane.

d Mrs. Dan Holmes and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison spent end at the R. E. L. Holmes Clarksville, Mo.

mre Ott of Chicago speni at the home of his uncle. rge Rockenbach of Elm for guests at the annual nty Sunday school conveng held September 29 in are well underway by the cal protestant churches of the W.M.S. of the Bethangelical church will serve on and the Dorcas society esbyterian church the dinlowing the dinner there young peoples program hoirs of St. Paul's church ng Friday evening to be rsals for their part in the

Mrs. F. H. Meyer enter dinner and supper on Suners were laid for twenty nd for twenty-five in the Their two sons and their f Deerfield, Mr. and Mrs orton and baby daughter , Mr. and Mrs. William nd their family of Arlingits, Mr. and Mrs. D. L Wauconda, Dr. and Mrs. ne of Oshkosh, Wis., Mr. J. Roy Ozanne and son of Evanston were the he party was in celebrane birthday anniversaries ster F. H. Meyer, his son, rt Meyer and Mrs. Wilfueller Porter.

man's Missionary society Thursday afternoon, Sept Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gardner and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beeker moved Street theater in Chicago, Saturday ited Mr. Gardner's brother, Mr. Savage. Campbell Gardner.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1932

land Park hospital.

contest for amateur performers held Tuesday at the State-Lake theater. Chicago newspaper, is being held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the play is to be continued. of this week. The local young peo- The Ladies' Aid society of St. in the preliminaries.

Mrs. Robert Miseles spent the week- avenue. end at the William Hellman home in Waukegan.

Sister Mary Leonette and Sister with relatives in El Paso, Ill. M. Leonette is the former Lucy Wis. O'Connor.

Forest who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. Joseph O'Connor of Osterman avenue, will remain here while attending high school.

daughter Doris Jean spent Sunday high school. with Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Macadie of Chicago.

Robert Grohe of Knollwood road, with a group of friends returned Wednesday (yesterday) from a fishing trip in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer of quite ill this past week. home.

Helen and John Engstrom re- On Wednesday (yesterday) Mrs. week's visit with relatives in Mar- luncheon-500 club. ion, Ia.

tions for entertainment on Saunders road, entertained out ter in Minneapolis. Their home will of town guests on Sunday.

> Miss Frances Biederstadt began her fall term in piano September 7, for her music classes.

nephew David Easton, returned Monday from Glenview to the evening. Tuesday evening from Jefferson Browning house on Waukegan road, Barracks, Missouri, where they vis- recently vacated by Father Joseph

An executive meeting of the E. L. Carter, the small son of Mr. and C. E. was held Tuesday evening at Mrs. R. D. Reeds underwent a ton- the Bethlehem Evangelical church. silectomy last Tuesday, at the High- Plans for the fall and winter months were made, and a discussion of the A number of young musicians play "The Slave Maid of Israel" from Deerfield entered the audition took place. The sudden and tragic death of one of the principal characters, Helen Cox, had brought the The contest, being sponsored by a progress on the play to a standstill. Announcement will be made later if ple were entered for trombone solos, Paul's church is being entertained Thursday afternoon (today) Mrs. Frank Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Fredereka Koebelin of Central Convent, Chicago, spent Monday at and two sons returned this week just returned home from the hosthe James O'Connor home. Sister from a month's sojourn in Hayward, pital, following an appendictomy.

part of the week with relatives in Osterman avenue. Minneapolis. The Savilles moved from Chicago to the Carl Knigge month. Dora Jane will enter her Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson and sophomore year at Deerfield-Shields

> Jack Gibbs returned Saturday to the Chicago Junior school at Elgin, following a visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. F. C. Biederstadt.

Mrs. Virginia Hicks has been Morton Grove were guests on Wed- Mrs. Julius Johnson was hostess nesday at the Joseph O'Connor to the members of her bridge club last Monday afternono.

turned Saturday from a three Julius Johnson entertained her

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Krogstad are The W. A. Manns of "Ridgeview" leaving this week to spend the winbe occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Scott, friends of the Sturtevants.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huhn and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson at-Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Browning and tended the WLS show at the Eighth

Mrs. Peter Juhrend, Mrs. Hubert Juhrend and Mrs. Paul Hatfield were the guests of Mrs. Hazel Vant Kreh at Long Lake on Wednesday.

George Stryker and Richard Wolterding are leaving for the University of Cincinnati on Monday, Sept.

Mr. and Mrs. Romayne Stryker and children with Misses Emilie and Ida Knaak, Messrs. Theodore and Otto Knaak have been spending the past few weeks at the Knaak cottage on the Rox river.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jordan and son Bob, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wood have returned from the Jordan cottage at Corey Lake, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Selig, Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhlke and Mrs. P. J. Juhrend and Mrs. Hubert daughter Betty spent the week-end Juhrend visited at the William Selig home in Chicago on Tuesday. Their Mary Gonzaga of the Immaculata Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok daughter, Miss Bernice Selig, had

Mrs. Arthur Whitehead and son Mrs. Saville and daughter, Miss Robert of Chicago spent the week-Miss Dorothy Baldwin of Lake Dora Jane Kamps spent the first end at the A. J. Johnson home on

> Mr. and Mrs. Edward Segert and daughter Gloria spent several days house on Osterman avenue last of last week at Lake Wandawega, Mrs. Waiter Lange and two son Allen and Walter Jr. returned Monday from a week's stay at Lake Wandawega.

S. G. Mennell of N. Chestnut street, has returned from St. Luke's hospital in Chicago, where he spent several weeks under observation.

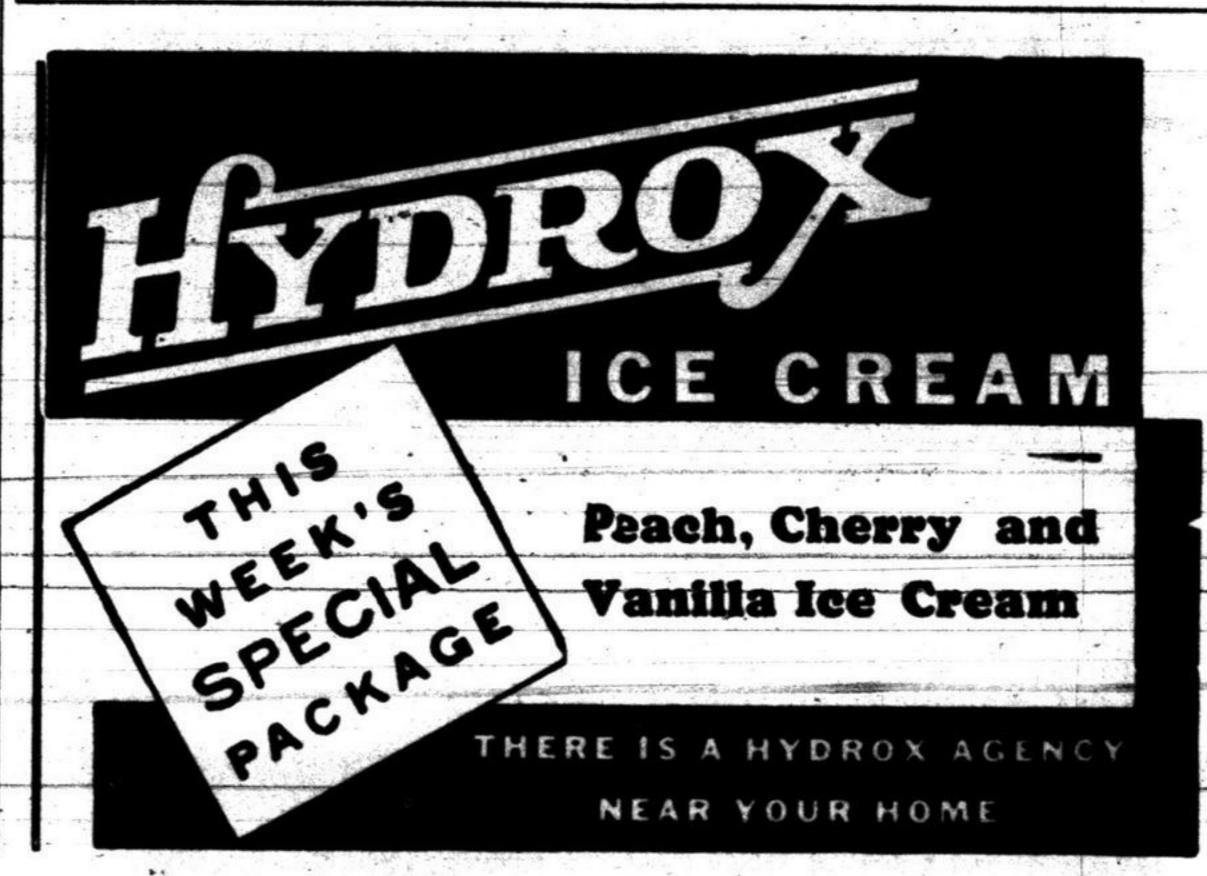

Mrs. William P. Turner Jr. of Colfax street, Evanston, is the new president of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Lone Bandit Holds Up Waukegan Druggist

A lone armed bandit who forgot no details and worked out a perfectly planned holdup, escaped with $300 in cash taken from the Druce Drug store at 17 North Genesee street, recently, leaving O. P. Eimerman, the owner of the store, tightly taped to a post in the back room of the Eimerman was a prisoner for more than an hour before he was able to work around, lift the phone receiver from the hook with his teeth and notify the telephone operator of his plight.

The internationalist is the fellow who believes there is no place like away from home.

Notice of a General Meeting of the Depositors of the Highwood State Bank

There will be a general meeting of the depositors of the Highwood State Bank at St. James' Hall, Highwood, on Thursday, September 8, at 8:00 p. m.

All depositors are requested to please be present in order to discuss matters of importance to all.

Depositors Association of the Highwood State Bank