Sit Down—Iron in 1/3 the Time

Why spend six hours bending over an ironing board when you can do the job in two hours, sitting comfortably in a chair? Simply guide your ironing over a heated roller—shirts and ruffles and pleated things are as easy to do as flat pieces. We'll be glad to demonstrate in your home next ironing day. No obligation.

Only $4.95 Down

You can buy one of the Thor Ironers for only $4.95 down. Prices on this popular model have just been reduced from $79.50 to only $49.50 at your Public Service Store.

Deerfield R.N.A. To Give Play Nov. 3-4

The committee representing the Deerfield Royal Neighbors, headed by Mrs. Henry Juhrend as their president, met on August 29 with a representative of Universal Producing company, Fairfield, Iowa, and made arrangements for the famous production "Henry's Wedding" to be staged on November 3 and 4 in the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium. This production is something entirely new and different in the way of entertainment and promises to be the only "Henry's Wedding" to be held in this community this year. The most outstanding thing about "Henry's Wedding" is that three couples get married, making it a triple wedding. The costuming is unusual and spectacular, and the newspaper reports throughout the entire country praise this unusual show. It takes 125 local people to present this elaborate outstanding event which promises to be the greatest social and political entertainment of the year. Two outstanding features of the Beaus and Belles of Grandma's Time and the Colored Brethren and Sisters of the Mystic Shrine. Full particulars will be given concerning these unusual entertainment features at a later time.

Indications point to "Henry's Wedding" being the high spot of entertainment in Deerfield as has been the case throughout the entire country.

No one can afford to miss attending "Henry's Wedding" at the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium on November 3 and 4. Watch for particulars in regard to cast and other details.

Bannockburn School To Open September 19

The Bannockburn school will open its second year on Monday, Sept. 19 with the same teachers: Mrs. Ham-mill, principal and primary teacher, and Miss Hildred Kuehl of Decatur, the upper grade teacher.

During the past year the Garden club of Bannockburn has worked on its project of landscaping the grounds of the school. Recently they sponsored a card party at the home of Mrs. Arthur Harrison and the money realized from the affair is being used for the purchase of screens for the attractive new school of Colonial architecture.

Deerfield P. T. A. to Open Season Sept. 23

The Deerfield Grammar School P. T. A. will meet Friday afternoon, Sept. 23, at 2:30 o'clock in the grade school auditorium. It is to be a welcome tea for parents and teachers, with Mrs. Lewis Ashman, the new president, in the chair preceding the reception. Principal C. E. Bates will give a word of welcome.

Mrs. Belle Kist of Chicago has been visiting her sister, Miss Josephine Woodman, this past week.

Two very fine tennis courts have been made on the John Stryker property, which Mr. Stryker is offering for use to the young people of the community.

Local and Personal of Deerfield

St. Patrick's church of West Lake Forest (Everett) celebrated the hundredth anniversary of its establishment last week, Saturday, Sunday and Labor Day. Deerfield was well represented each day.

The choir of the Presbyterian church met Wednesday evening (last night) to reorganize. Rev. Mark Andrews, who departed last week for Harlan, Ky., had been director, so a new leader was selected.

The news of the marriage of Mr. Otis Ritchie will be of especial interest to those from Deerfield who attended the Deerfield-Shields high school in the era of the horse-drawn bus. "Otis" as he was called by the students, started working for Martin Ringdahl, (who owned the ancient vehicle) in 1910 and continued to drive until the advent of motor coaches. More recently he has been employed at the G. and R. Stables. His marriage to Miss Laurie Evans of Highland Park took place last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Frantz and two daughter Ruth and Caryl returned Sunday from a week's trip to Canada. They visited Mr. Frantz' relatives in Selkirk. Mrs. Drehmer, a sister of the late Eli Frantz, who resides there is 95 years old.

Mrs. Hazel Vant Kreh and Mr. L. O. Brockway of Waukegan visited at the R. M. Vant home on Sunday.
