

indstrom, chairman of the committee, presided at the meeting, ideas were exchanged and action followed. Those present were Mesdames Schemmel, Lind, Shifflett, McCreadie, Renner, Hutton, and St. John.

Wood Play School
Children 2 to 6 years

Director
Benedict K. Goodman,
Director

National College of Education vised playgroup for the run-child. Unusual equipment includcabin playhouse, vita glass sunplayroom 20x40 ft, gardens, and fields; moderate rates including ation to and from school.

HIGHLAND PARK 1329

INDERGARTEN

MRS. JOHN MITCHELL

es the reopening of her country rten for little children, 2-6 yrs. cility for happy work and play mother's capable supervision. gins Sept. 19, reasonable rates.

Tel. Highland Park 2776
South Ridge Road

n Elizabeth Taylor

Piano and Theory

Columbia School of Music—and Park State Bank Bldg.
Tel. H. P. 380

TERM OPENS SEPTEMBER 12th istration September 8-9-10 d Park Winnetka

ey School of Music

FALL TERM OPENS
SEPTEMBER 12th rates for young children are t during season 1932-1933.

Telephones
Highland Park 1138
Winnetka 3012

FAMOUS for CONES

5c and 10c of Parking Space

Ice Cream Kitchens
e-Made Ice Creams
ER ST. 727 MAIN ST.
A 3122 WILMETTE 3122

Mrs. E. D. Bullard of San Francisco, Calif., arrived yesterday (Wednesday) to be present at the debut of her granddaughters, the Misses Barbara and Caroline Bullard, which will take place Saturday at the Exmoor Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Norwood Bard will present their daughter Dorothy to some 200 or 300 of their friends on Saturday, Sept. 24. They are giving a tea at their home in Egandale road and in its surrounding gardens. A dinner-dance will follow the tea at Exmoor for the de-butante, her assistants and their escorts. Miss Bard will be assisted by her cousin, Janet Bard, and by Eleanor Page, Honore White, Martha Lee, Ellen Truax, Barbara Bullard, Mary Louise Morris, Dania and Mary Mavor, Madeline Bliss and Anne Mills. Miss Bard will leave the day after her debut for Connecticut college.

Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Reynolds of Chicago and Lake Villa entertained at dinner Saturday evening at the Exmoor Country club for her nieces the Misses Felicite and Jacqueline Buhl, daughters of Mr. and Mrs.
G. A. Buhl. The two German Princes, Prince Louise Ferdinand and Prince Frederick Wilhelm, who are making an extensive visit in this country, were the honored guests of the evening. Those who were privileged to meet these young men were delighted with their pleasing personalities and their charming manners. After the dance Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith entertained at a supper party in their honor.

Mrs. Joseph B. Card and their son Richard and daughter Mrs.
Sutherland Campbell of Los Angeles, Calif., left last evening for Winnipeg, Canada, to attend the marriage on Saturday of their other son, Joseph Phelps Card and Miss Dorothy Fawcett. The wedding is to take place at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at St. Stephen's Broadway church, after which there will be a reception at the Manitoba club.
Miss Fawcett is the daughter of William Francis Fawcett of Winnipeg. The bridegroom-to-be and his sisters, the Misses Mary and Ruth Card, went to Winnipeg the latter part of last week to attend all the prenuptial festivities, as did George Strickland of Chicago who is to be Mr. Card's best man. Miss Mary is to be a member of the bridal party also. Mr. Card will bring his bride to Chicago soon after October 1, and he has left their place of residence to be selected after her arrival.

Miss Lillian Smith entertained a group of young people at a beach party Sunday evening.

Mrs. Alfred Braun and son David left Monday evening for their home in Burlington, Ia., after spending the past ten days at the William Saathoff home on South Second street.

The Misses Myrtle Dorr and June Kuehne, student nurses at the Evangelical Deaconess hospital, spent Sunday at their respective homes.

The Misses Phyllis Dexter, Beatrice Thorsen and Kay Davis left last Thursday evening for Marysville, Tenn., where they will enter their sophomore year at the college there.

Miss Dorothea Himmler left Tuesday evening for Marysville, Tenn., where she will attend school.

Miss Helen Leuer is leaving soon for Webster college, Webster Grove, Mo., to enter her senior year. Miss Madeline Theilen of Ft. Sheridan is leaving with Miss Leuer to enter her freshman year at the college.

Mrs. Wheeler, wife of Col. Mark Wheeler of Berkeley, Calif., has been the guest of her sister Mrs. N. S.
Mayo, for the past two weeks. Mrs.
Wheeler started on her return trip on Monday.

Miss Mary Martin of Omaha, Neb., is visiting the Misses Virginia and Louise Ruffner. Miss Martin's family is moving here and she will be with the Ruffners until her parents arrive and occupy the house on Indian Hill road in Winnetka which they have taken.

Mrs. Frank Fink and daughter Katherine have returned from a ten day visit with Mrs. Fink's mother in Ironwood, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph, Jr., of Clifton avenue, entertained at a farewell party last week for their son Victor who left Thursday for St. Mary's of the Lake seminary at Mundelein where he entered his second year of Priesthood.

Mrs. Frank Lichtwalt of West street, who met with an accident Monday morning when her car skidded off the road into a culbert near her home, is greatly improved.
Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Edwin Fulkerson and daughters Mertha and Alta are enjoying a two weeks vacation at Allison Bay, Wis.

The Rhinehart family held a reunion Sunday at the dam in Wheeling. There were seven families present. The day was spent in baseball and horseshoe and in talking over times. Everyone there reported a delightful time.

Curtis and Charles Rogers and William Barker have left for Yale university where they will attend school this coming year.

Mrs. Joseph Jacobs entertained the members of her five hundred club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Walz of Burton avenue, Ravinia.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McCoy and small son Jerry, who spent the past three months visiting friends and Mrs. McCoy's parents Mr. and Mrs.
Jasper Rhinehart of Homewood avenue, returned Monday to their home in Florida.

Mrs. Herman Black of Dean avenue, reports that one of the dahlia plants in her garden was measured by her gardener and found to be ten and one-half feet high with blooms six and one-half inches in diameter. This plant has been full of blossoms all summer.

Saturday afternoon between the hour of four and seven o'clock, the Misses Barbara and Caroline Bullard, daughters of Mr. and Mrs.
Sellar Bullard, and Miss Janet Bard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A.
Bard, will make their formal debuts at a joint tea to be given at the Exmoor Country club. A dinner will follow for the debutantes and their assistants and escorts.

PIANO TUNING
Inexpensive Skillful Service
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED Formerly with Lyon & Healy and Cable Piano Co.
—PHONE HIGHLAND PARK 3147—
L. MATHEW
1855 County Line Road.

HAVE HOME MOVIES NOW!

NEW Professional Subjects For Home Movies At LOW RENTAL RATES

This new series of short subjects is made into 16MM size from Educational Pictures, "The Spice of the Program" and in our opinion represents the finest cartoon, scenic and comedy subjects ever released to the home motion picture field.

Prepare now for the indoor amusement season. A complete list of the rental film subjects is available at our stores.

RENTAL RATES
WEEK DAYS50c PER REEL
WEEK-ENDS75c PER REEL

PROJECTORS ALSO RENTED

Almer Coe & Company
Optical, Photographic & Meteorological Instruments 1645 ORRINGTON AVENUE, EVANSTON

Chicago Stores:
105 N. Wabash Ave. 78 E. Jackson Blvd. 18 S. LaSalle St.

WADSWORTH BROS.

Rebuilding of fine Motor Cars

Phone
Winnetka 3810

16 Carlton Ct. Winnetka, Illinois