

Announces Photoplays of Merit

Alcyon announces a most at-bargain "Early-Bird" price starting tonight. This price available at the following week days—6:30 to 7:00 p. m.; 1:45 to 3:30 p. m.; 1:45 to 6:30 p. m. Patronage has made this re-admission possible and management is passing on its share to the public. Children years of age are always of the lessened admission program for the coming year. For today and tomorrow feature photoplays are presented. Conrad Nagel and Alcyon head the cast of "The Red Back," which is rich in appeal. The other feature is an unusual portrayal of the North, "Igloo," with an all-time and locale. "Sign of the Four" with company comprise the for Saturday only. Both are splendid shows for the evening. On Saturday afternoon the newest chapter of "Heroes and Villains" will be shown.

Alcyon will play one of the most talked-about photoplays in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" and "Madame Rackett." Both of these provide a most interesting and old. Marian Nixon and Alcyon are featured in "Ready to Wear" with Alison Skipworth and Alcyon in "Madame Rackett." Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 21 and 22, the Alcyon company will play one of the most talked-about photoplays in "The Price of Hollywood," "Constance Bennett and Alcyon"; also "Week End with Loretta Young and George Brent." Surely the line-up of shows is inviting and should make the Alcyon a success for the next week.
