

Getting a law passed is all too frequently a mere preliminary to getting it passed up. — Arkansas Gazette.

Man Beaten and Robbed Is Thrown from Car at Rondout Last Friday

Beaten and robbed by two men whom he met at a Milwaukee speakeasy, John Chmilweski, 29, of 235 S. 16th st., Milwaukee, was taken to the county hospital after being found in Rondout last Friday.

Chmilweski was drinking with the two strangers with whom he became acquainted in the Milwaukee bar-room. He said he collapsed from over-drinking and did not come to his senses until he woke up in a moving boxcar and discovered that the two strangers were going thru his pockets and he started to fight back. Both attacked him and when they got his money they threw him from the box car at Rondout where residents discovered him and called the sheriff.

Garden Club Meets Next Week Wednesday

The Garden club of Deerfield will meet Wednesday evening, Sept. 21, at the Carlton S. Scribner home on Landis lane. Assisting hostesses will be Mesdames C. E. Piper, Richard Farmer, Lewis Ashman and E. J. Ginter. Mr. Frank K. Balthis, chief horticulturist of the Garfield Park Conservatory, will give an illustrated lecture on "Fixing up the Garden." Husbands of the members will be the honored guests.

O. E. S. Is Sponsoring Bake Sale September 17

Deerfield chapter No. 940, O. E. S., is sponsoring a bakery and food sale to be held Saturday afternoon, Sept. 17, at two o'clock at the R. A. Nelson Grocery store on Waukegan road. There will be a fine selection of cakes, breads, etc., also baked beans. Mrs. F. P. Browning is chairman of the sale.

Our Want Ads Bring Results

Miss Elizabeth Grobber

Local Director of New Trier and Highland Park Council of Girl Scouts

SEASONAL PLANTING

- Virginia Bluebells
- Bleeding Heart
- Peonies
- Oriental Poppies

These perennials must be, and many others should be, planted in the late summer or early fall. We have the best selection of good stock that we have ever offered. All of it developed as field grown in our nursery.

We invite your patronage with confidence based on unsolicited expressions of satisfaction from our many friends.

The Jordan Nurseries
Waukegan Rd., Deerfield
Just North of County Line Road

WELLMAN

IS

ABOUT

HERE

SEPTEMBER 23rd

Bridle Paths

Polo Field

The Polo Pony championship of the 6th Corps area will be decided at Fort Sheridan, Sunday, Sept. 18, when teams of Fort Sheridan and the 124th Field Artillery play for the military championship of Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan. The game will be staged in connection with the Fort Sheridan Horse show being held at Fort Sheridan, Sept. 16-17-18. The best performing pony in the game will be declared polo pony champion of the Fort Sheridan Horse show. Carl Crawford, well known six-goal player with the Onwentsia club will act as judge.

The Fort Sheridan line-up will be composed of Maj. C. C. Smith, Capt. C. E. Davis, Capt. C. A. Wilkinson, and Lieut. G. S. Smith, while the 124th F. A. will retain the same line-up that recently defeated the strong Oak Brook quartet. In the 124th line-up will be Col. Richard Hunter, Herb Lorber, Lieut. Chris Schuh, and Capt. Bill Everitt.

Prior to the polo game, which starts at 3:15, other championships of the Fort Sheridan Horse show will be decided at the polo field.

The jumper, hunter and hunter sweepstakes championship classes will be shown beginning at 2:30.

The Evanston Drum and Bugle corp will give exhibitions before and during the horse show and polo games.

Polo Match Sunday At Oakbrook Freebooters And Black Horse Troop

Outstanding polo stars from the North Shore and Uptown sectors will be seen in action Sunday afternoon, Sept. 18, at the Oak Brook Polo club stadium, York road and Twenty-second street when the famous Black Horse troop and Chicago Free Booters clash. The game will start at 3:30 o'clock, and is expected to draw a record throng, not only because it is certain to be a hard fought, spectacular battle, but also because special attractions have been arranged to enliven the proceedings.

These added features will include Austin Day with music furnished by the Austin Community Girls' band, the largest girls' band in the United States, between periods of the polo game. A race for women drivers piloting midget one-cylinder automobiles will be staged during the half-time intermission of the polo match. At the wheels will be prominent society matrons and debs.

GEOR WAS His that himself appret School Gen Dur much man o land. enchar Geor the ol they r days a visited to the Was son, heart toward and at Mary sternly mother proudly pride great was of ers she her bo always having early heart point. ing ba over a of the foot la the Po Mary for Ge visiting ence a better sented in the and Lo George' loaded happine day he the Po of time sea. N Then, his mot must no It wa let alon The bo enduran try to e For n was ag his hap package It cont The hu crowded ground. TEN Y IS ANN The E ten-year as a de building The p boy in shall-ha training The pi to a gro intereste voted to fare and ment of "It w zens, less service t A cop of its p the Nor James F Similar by a nur it will locally. Dr. W carried t ident Ho precedent Honorary also upo unusual organizat dent's en to Walter of the na America. The pr Mr. Walt Boy Scou My dea It was recently report of America part of not only ually incr It is n the activi and indee building hope that heretofore such gene