

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

First Church of Christ, Scientist
 First Church of Christ, Scientist, Highland Park, Illinois, 381 Hazel avenue, is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The Sunday morning service is held at 11 o'clock, and the Wednesday evening meeting, which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing, is at 8 o'clock. Sunday school is open to pupils between the ages of four and 20, and is held Sunday morning at 9:30.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson sermon, "Are sin, disease, and death real?"

A free public reading room is maintained by this church at 43 N. Sheridan road, which is open daily from 9 o'clock in the morning to 6 in the evening. On Sunday the reading room is open from 2:30 to 5:30. Here the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased.

All are cordially invited to attend the services and make use of the reading room.

 Mission Sunday
 Sunday school 9:30.
 Morning service 10:30.
 Evening service 8:00.

Our annual Mission Festival will be celebrated on Sunday. At the morning service the Rev. A. Guertel of Chicago will occupy the pulpit, and at the evening service the Rev. Paul Meyer of Glenview will be the guest speaker. We look forward to a good attendance at both services.

It is but natural that in these days of unemployment the receipts of the church for mission purposes has dropped, greatly curtailing the work. May everyone of our members come prepared to "give according to ability."

The Junior league will hold its business session on Thursday evening.
 On Friday evening the S. S. Teachers Institute will open up the first semester. While intended for the S. S. teachers, it affords at the same time an excellent opportunity to all of our members for Bible study.

On Saturday we will open a Saturday school intended for the children from the ages of 8 to 12. If only the parents would realize the need for more religious instruction than that offered in the Sunday school. School will begin at 9:00.
