De Wolf Hopper Stars in "The World Between" at Adelphi Theatre

Sidonie Espero, the vivid, dark haired beauty appearing in Fritz Blocki's romantic adventure of the Sargasso Sea, "The World Between," new in its third week at the Adelphi theater, who enacts the role of "Carmen" an opera singer, has in real life appeared on the concert stage in leading Italian opera productions. De Wolf Hopper also stars as a member of the cast.

Miss Espero has been a member of the French theater of New York and her first big success was in light opera opposite John Charles Thomas. She was a soloist also with John Phillips Sousa. Morris Gest engaged her for a lead in "Kitty Darlin" for which Rudolph Friml wrote the scores. She had the prominent feminine role in "Maid of the Mountain" and also appeared with Sam Harris' "Honey Girl."

In 1923 she went to France and remained to star in stage work in a production called "May." An accomplished linguist, speaking French and German she appeared in popular hits at the French capitol as well as in England and Germany.

Miss Espero did the part of "Carmenita" in an Earl Carroll show and also sang the role of "Carmen" with the Italian opera company and now portrays a French opera singer characterization also named "Carmen" in the Blocki fantasy.

Quite by coincidence while Miss Espero was conversing with De Wolf Hopper who enacts the role of Sir Henry Bingham in this saga of the Sargasso sea, it was found that Miss Espero's mother had sung in the choir of Grace church in New York at the same time with De Wolf Hopper and now "The World Between" has brought Mrs. Espero's daughter Sidonie and De Wolf Hopper together on the Adelphi stage.

Urge Residents to Vote on Bond Issue

Unless Deerfield residents awaken to the facts concerning a bond issue at the coming general election Nov. 8, it will be placed in a position to foot the poor bills for other counties in the state. If the bond issue does not pass it will mean a great increase in our taxes. This is the first bond issue that means a saving. Call Supervisor James O'Connor for particulars.
