

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

COMMUNITY COMMENT

IF WE APPEAR TO BE STINGY
CHEAP OR TOO EXACTING
JUST REMEMBER IT IS YOUR MONEY
WE ARE HANDLING
DEERFIELD STATE BANK
DEERFIELD, ILLINOIS

Local and Personal of Deerfield

A meeting for mothers of eighth grade children has been called for Friday afternoon (tomorrow) at 2:30 at the school. The conference has been arranged by the room mothers of Miss Hazel Miller's and Miss Grace Ronningen's eighth grades, Mrs. F. G. Piepenbrok and Mrs. Bruce Blaine.

Miss Vivian Haggie attended a Cook County Teacher's Institute on Monday at the Lyons Township high school in LaGrange.

Miss Genevieve Card, with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Becker, spent the week-end with Miss Card's mother in Stevens Point, Wis.

A father and son banquet will be given on Friday evening at the Presbyterian church. This is the third annual affair given by the Boy Scouts.

Mr. Arthur Cashmore is on a hunting trip in Wisconsin with friends from Wheeling.

Miss Irene Mitchell won first place in the Hunter's Hat class, last week, at the Indian Hill Hunt club, riding Mr. John Hartnett's horse, "Eddie Curtis."

Mrs. S. Wohlbrook, Mrs. Albert Mitchell and her daughter, Miss Irene, visited in Delafield, Wis., on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt J. Dickens of Chicago were the guests of Mrs. Dickens' sister, Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Jr., on Sunday.

Miss Edna Fritsch who received her Master's degree at Northwestern in June, is continuing her part-time teaching at Moody Institute and is taking another course at Northwestern university this year.

Leonard C. Blank, who formerly had a meat market in the corner store now occupied by the Shugrue restaurant, has opened a shop in West McHenry.

Mrs. Mark Neville and children, Arlene and Mark Jr., of Libertyville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rafferty last Sunday.

George Rockenbach, Deerfield's

Nonogenarian, is proudly displaying cornstalks eleven feet in height, grown by his son, Ormon Rockenbach, who has a two acre tract of corn all that same height near Fremont, Ill. The cornstalks are labeled and being exhibited in the Deerfield in the Deerfield state bank.

An Italian squash of unusual dimensions grown by Albert Easton of Chestnut street is also on display in the Deerfield Stat bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Holmer and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison were Sunday dinner guests at the William Hutchison home in Waukegan.

Members of the Tri C society are rehearsing the play "Deacon Dubbs," which they will present on Friday evening, Nov. 18, in the Deerfield Grammar school.

Duncan, Walter and Carter Reeds visited Admiral Bird's arctic ship in Chicago on Saturday and had the privilege of seeing Admiral Byrd when he shook hands with the Sea Scouts in a ceremony aboard the ship.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker were the guests of Mr. Stryker's sister, Mrs. Herman Fabry of Evanston, on Sunday. Another sister, Mrs. Alice De Young, who was injured in an automobile accident, has been moved from the Ravenswood hospital to Mrs. Fabry's home to recuperate.

Are you saving used candles and soap for the less fortunate families of Erie chapel district in Chicago? They may be sent to the Deerfield Grammar school or directly to Mrs. Lewis Lehman.

Miss Hariett Stryker entertained a group of young people at her home on Saturday evening.

Dorcas Circle One met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Stadler. Circles two and four are meeting Thursday, Oct. 28. Circle two meets at the home of Mrs. William Koebelin and Circle four at the home of Mrs. Emil Fredricks. Circle Three is meeting the last Friday in October at the home of Mrs. Fred Haggie. All four circles will join together for the monthly meeting on Thursday, Nov. 3.

Mrs. Hazel Vant Kreh and son Billy and daughter Doris of Waukegan and another daughter Mrs. Clarence Rollman, of Highwood, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Vant on Sunday.

Betty Haggie of Northbrook visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haggie, on Saturday.

The Areme club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Klug of Northbrook. Mrs. William Lorenz, also of Northbrook, will be the next hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tappenbeck and Mr. Thomas Tappenbeck of Chicago were dinner guests on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fredricks.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edwin H. Johnson of Todd court. Her mother, Mrs. George Pettis, is acting as assisting hostesses. Mrs. Ira Gardner and Mrs.

Edward Therrien, Sr., of Highland Park, will have charge of the lesson. Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. attended the annual conference of District 21 of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers in the new auditorium of the Grant Township high school at Ingleside on Friday afternoon.

The William Neimeyer family of Arlington Heights visited at the Emil Fredricks home on Sunday. Mrs. Carter M. Christensen entertained at luncheon on Friday in honor of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. L. W. Kennard was hostess to friends from Chicago on Thursday at luncheon and cards at her home on Central avenue.

Dr. W. F. Weir of Evanston was a dinner guest on Sunday at the George Stanger home.

Deerfield Girl Reserves have elected the following officers: president, Shirley Blaine; vice-president, Mary Alice Ransdell; secretary, Zella Doland; treasurer, Doris Ott. Advisers for the Deerfield school this year are four teachers, Miss Hazel Miller, Miss Genevieve Card, Miss Mabel Ablard, and Miss Mildred Newton.

Lorraine Bahr returned last week from Alameda, Calif., and has re-entered the Deerfield grade school. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Long Lake on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Richigar and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max Gottschlich and son Edwin, and Edward Clouse of Cicero, Miss Lillian Zimmerman and Miss Mae Mareck of Chicago, were Sunday guests at the Albert Roggow home. The Roggows entertained sixteen at dinner and supper in honor of their wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gentry of Highland Park have rented Mrs. Eugene Ender's home and will move to Deerfield the first of November. Mr. and Mrs. Stanly Johnson and son of Half Day road, with Mrs. E. H. Johnson and two children and Mrs. George Pettis visited Mrs. Joseph Milligan in the Desplaines hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bauman and two children of Maywood were Sunday dinner guests at the E. H. Selig home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huhn were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman of Whitefish Bay, Wis.

Miss Louise Huhn spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Petrie of Milwaukee.

Miss Irene Rockenbach attended an executive meeting of church school workers of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Chicago, on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plagge of Oak Park and Miss Flossie Plagge of the Methodist Settlement House in Chicago were Sunday guests at the home of their uncle, William Plagge. They also visited a former neighbor, Miss Hyla Bubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Rockenbach of Los Angeles, Calif., were the guests of their uncle, Mr. George Rockenbach on Sunday. They were enroute to Gary, Ind. to visit Mrs. Rockenbach's mother, after a visit with his mother, Mrs. Fred Rockenbach of St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Cawley of Elkhart, Ind., has been staying with her daughter Mrs. E. J. Ginter, this past month. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sims of Homewood were guests on Saturday at the home of Mr. Sims' sister, Mrs. Philip Scully, Sr.

Richard, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Grohe of Knollwood road is ill with a throat infection.

Mrs. Fred Meyer is returning this week from a several weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meyer in New Florence, Mo.

Mrs. William Kent was hostess to a group of friends on Tuesday at her home on Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson and daughter Doris Jean were guests on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Macadie of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gruver of Central avenue entertained out of town guests on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wessling and daughter Dorothy were Sunday guests at the C. E. Friedland home in Chicago.

Mrs. D. A. Hastings and three sons spent Sunday with Miss Gertrude Hastings in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaBahn spent Sunday with Mrs. F. J. LaBahn Sr. in Evanston. The previous Sunday Mrs. LaBahn attended the birthday anniversary celebration of her niece, Miss Wilma Daugherty in Chicago.

The Robert Coles have moved from the McArthur house into their own home at 1438 Somerset avenue, which has been vacated by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hanner are residing in an apartment in the Deerfield State bank building, which was formerly occupied by Mrs. Elsie Le Fevre. The Hanners moved from the Scavuzzo building.

Mrs. D. A. Hastings with her little grandson Bobby Hastings of Highland Park attended the fourth birthday anniversary party of another grandson, Donald Comstock, at Niles Center, on Saturday. Mrs. Roy Clavey and two children and Mrs. C. B. Easton were also guests.

Mrs. F. C. Biederstadt and her three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Gibbs, Misses Frances and Isabel Biederstadt accompanied Mr. Fred La Bahn to Elgin last Sunday where they visited Jack Gibbs at the Chicago Junior school.

Arlis Mae, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson (Anna Mae Ott) was baptized Sunday at St. Paul's Evangelical church by Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok. Sponsors were Edward Johnson and Mrs. Trygve Nelson (Elsie Ott). A family dinner was held at the John Ott home Sunday evening in honor of the christening.

The Sewing society of St. Paul's church is meeting this afternoon with Mrs. Olivia Anderson and Mrs. Bruce Blaine as hostesses at their home on Deerfield avenue.