

A WOMAN'S CLUB BEGINS YEAR
(Continued from page 3)

discriminating critics. Her rich vibrant quality with range. Her actions showed her marked ability and her audience was equally pleased with "Carmen Rigoletti" which showed her ability and "The Lux Gardens" by Manning, played a smooth velvety tone and a difficult surer. Mrs. Marie Hammer who is an accomplished pianist accompanied Miss Rarden. A delightful afternoon. It was an unusually delightful afternoon and the program, Mrs. A. B. Tanner, president, and the committee, are to be congratulated upon its success. A luncheon was prepared and members of the philanthropic committee and the house were present. It was simple and delicious. The excellent taste, served in an efficient manner. The regular year book of the club decided to curtail by a simple folder and programs, lists of committees and club members. This has been the work of Mrs. K. who with her committee and arranged a folder of work. The folder is a soft orange toned paper on its cover a lovely picture approach to the Village done by Hazel Crowe

"Can't you cheer your boys up and stop his crying?"
"Well, did you ever see anybody up that's just as happy as two hot dogs and cream cones?"—Hot

Experts in the reconditioning of batteries. A fresh battery will give your old battery life.

PARK 266

Star Electric Service
H. P. 266
SECOND STREET

Libertyville to Get New Post Office Too; Is Washington Report

Erection of a new postoffice at Libertyville as a unit in the federal government construction program coming under terms of the relief act which allocated 100 million dollars for public buildings was announced last week by the treasury and postoffice departments.

It will be the third federal building project for Lake county this year, another now being in process of construction at Waukegan and bids ordered for a new one at Lake Forest.

Six of the proposed postoffices will be in Illinois at Fairfield, Jacksonville, Monticello, St. Charles, Urbana and at Libertyville.

Libertyville in the past has had its federal headquarters located in rented buildings. At present the postoffice is located on rented property on Milwaukee avenue. There has been but little agitation in the village for the new building and not long ago the village board refused to approve a petition seeking construction of the new office.

According to treasury department announcements 227 projects have been authorized, most of them to cost less than $100,000. Previously, 41 buildings costing more than $300,000 each and 142 costing between $100,000 and $300,000 had been announced.

CHAS. E. RUSSELL

Republican Candidate for Re-election as

County Surveyor

November 8, 1932

Your Favorable Consideration Respectfully Requested.

Townships Empowered to Care for Paupers As They See Fit, Claim

Townships may contract with the county board for the care of their paupers, or may care for them independently of the county, Attorney General Oscar E. Carlstrom has advised State's Attorney Henry E. Pratt of Peoria.

The question was brought up by the failure of the township of the city of Peoria to pay the amount due for the care of its 200 paupers since spring of this year, at the rate of 80 cents per person daily. The board of supervisors voted to give the township until October 15 to settle their account in full or have their paupers taken from the Peoria county home and delivered over to the township overseers of the poor.

"The town of the city of Peoria," Mr. Pratt's letter said, "takes the position that it is the duty of the county to own and maintain a home and hospital, and that all improvements made upon the home and hospital and repairs shall be made at the county's expense and that these expenses should not be considered in arriving at the basis of the maintenance cost."

The cost of 80 cents a person, the township contended, was excessive, but the board of supervisors held that a lesser amount would not cover the expense the county would be put to.

Attorney General Carlstrom refused to become involved in the controversy, declaring that the question was one of contract between the county and the township.

"There is no mandatory duty," he said, "imposed on the county to accept township paupers into the county home. The legislature has left the whole matter for contract between the county and the townships. On the other hand townships are not compelled to support their paupers at the county home."

Recent Proceedings in Probate Court

Recent proceedings in probate court, of interest in this section of the county, are reported as follows:

Augusta Schmidt, Highland Park. Rule entered on executrix to make report as to condition of estate by October 27.

Frederic Sears Shepherd, minor, Highland Park. Petition for letters of guardianship filed. Bond fixed at $2,000.

Giovanni Ranieri, Highwood. Further hearing on citation to pay claim and continued to October 27.

Andrew Husted, Highwood. Inventory and final report approved. Estate closed.

William Hansen, Highwood. Hearing on petition for discharge of conservator. Verdict of jury respondent competent and conservator ordered to file report forthwith.

Edward M. Laing, Highland Park—Claim of Hattie Laing allowed for $977.41.

Harold J. Lynn, Ravinia—Hearing on final report continued to October 17.

Daniel Frohman, Sage of Stage, to Speak in Evanston November 3

The arrival of Daniel Frohman in Evanston under the auspices of the alumnae and active chapters of Zeta Phi Eta on Thursday, Nov. 3, at the Haven school awakens memories of sixty years in stage history. We, along with other cities, have profited by his active life since its beginning.

He crossed the country first as an advance agent of the old time minstrels and shows. Theatres from coast to coast, in the early days, knew comedy and tragedy because his energy and vision brought them to their door. This city knew him. We knew him too, when under his management there came to us the great figures of his star system, for Daniel Frohman is one of the triumvirate which made more stars than any other manager in theatrical history. His name, through the years of his work in its interests, has come to stand as a symbol for what the stage has been, and for what it may become.

Charles Frohman and David Belasco are gone. In the memory of Daniel Frohman alone lives the vivid record of these three whose work directed the destinies of stars and playwrights for fifty years.

Daniel Frohman is the only personality in the theatre whose vision of it embraces two epochs. He sees clearly the contemporary stage as he saw clearly the stage of yesterday. Alive, vital, he keeps his record of activity in the theatre today as he did 50 years ago. There is no one living like Daniel Frohman: his place is unique. The coming of this great figure of the theatre is an event.

Approval by Voters of Relief Bond Issue Is Urged by E. L. Ryerson

Failure of the $20,000,000 relief bond issue at the polls November 8 will mean an increase in the general property tax for state revenue from the present 39 cents per $100 to between 70 and 74 cents, Edward L. Ryerson, Jr., relief head, said in an address before the Chicago Rotary club last week.

The bond issue, proposed at the last special session of the legislature and subject to referendum, will go before the voters election day.

The money is already being spent, Ryerson pointed out, and the bond terms arrange for its re-payment through the gas tax funds returned to each county by the state. If the bond plan is not approved, the money will have to be collected from the property tax, with a consequent increase, he explained.

Testimony

They say Shakespeare never told the same story twice, but there's nothing unusual in that. Plenty of court witnesses have the same record.—Rocky Mountain News.

Elect

L. J. WILMOT

Clerk of the Circuit Court

Republican Candidate for Re-election

Election Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1932