

Local and Personal
of Deerfield

Rev. F. A. Render of the Trinity Evangelical church is to give a series of magical performances, interspersed in his talk on "Helpful Suggestions for Wholesome Living" at an open meeting for men of the community given Thursday evening (tonight) by the Brotherhood at the Bethlehem Evangelical church.

Waukegan road was opened Saturday from the County Line road to Deerfield avenue. The north section from the main corners in Deerfield to Route 22 (Half Day road) will be opened this week.

Mrs. Clifford Huber of Elgin is staying at the Philip Scully Sr. home to be near her husband, who is in the Highland Park hospital.

Dan Hunt and Alfred Anderson of Deerfield Legion post attended the installation ceremonies of the Baxter-Evans post in Waukegan Tuesday evening. Mancel Talcott, second division commander, was the installing officer.

Mrs. John Woodman of Clearwater, Florida is visiting Miss Sadie Galloway. Her son Roscoe, is with an uncle Arthur Funk, at Funk's Grove, near Bloomington.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seago of Sunset court have been visiting their daughter, Phyllis, at the University of Oklahoma this past week.

Mrs. Fred Haggie will entertain Dorcas circle three on Friday afternoon.

Deerfield Chapter O. E. S. is sponsoring a Hallowe'en dance and card party on Saturday evening, Oct. 29, at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Mae Reid has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Engstrom, after a several weeks visit in Minnesota.

Tuesday has been designated as sandwich day for Deerfield and all contributions should reach the Deerfield Grammar school before 9 a.m. The high school children send their gifts of sandwiches each Wednesday for distribution by the Northwestern University Settlement House.

Boy Scouts of troop 52 are making an appeal for broken or discarded toys which they will repair and give as Christmas gifts to the children of less fortunate families. They may be sent to any scout in troop 52, or by communicating with Scoutmaster James G. Russell, they will be called for.

The Tri C society was entertained by Miss Edna Johnson on last Tuesday evening.

The Bungalow Lightweights have started their basket ball practice in Huhn's barn, which has been equipped as a gymnasium for the boys.

Miss Grace Vaughan, who resides at the Harry Stupple home on Greenwood avenue, went to Mattoon this week because of the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Auston Plagge and daughter Lorraine of Hines, Ill., visited at the William Plagge home on Sunday.

A group of bowling enthusiasts met Tuesday evening in the Arno Frantz basement, where a bowling alley has been made. This is their second season and the meeting was for the purpose of reorganizing the teams. Last year between thirty and forty men contested, with Donald Easton high bowler for the year and Arno Frantz, runner-up for the title.

Mrs. William Johnston entertained out of town guests on Thursday.

A large group of Deerfield Boy Scouts, commissioners and local leaders attended the get-together meeting at the Elm Place school in Highland Park on Monday evening to meet the new executive, C. G. Spears.

Miss Verna Taylor, who has lived at the home of her sister, Mrs. Andrew Savage the past two months, has dropped from the Deerfield-Shields high school and has returned to her parent's home in Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Williams of Elgin were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mericle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cruickshank and children visited at the Lewis Mills home near Diamond Lake on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Swanson of North Chestnut street visited friends in Niles Center on Sunday.

Mrs. Martha C. Lowe, Mildred Love Gunckel, Mrs. Berry Devine and son Norbit visited at the home of Mrs. Julia A. Seyl of West Lake Forest on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stupple had as their week-end guests, Mrs. Stupple's brother, Thomas Roberts and Miss Ruth Hoban of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. McMullen of Waukegan were Sunday guests at the A. V. Mericle home.

Clifford Huber, 30 years, of Elgin, was seriously injured Monday afternoon, when his automobile was struck by a Skokie Valley electric train at the Clavey road crossing. He was taken to the Highland Park hospital, where his condition is considered very serious. Mr. Huber, who runs the mixing machine for C. C. Kapschull, lived with the Scully Sr. family in Deerfield for three years and returns to Deerfield to their home when working in this vicinity. His work with the Kapschull Co. had just been completed and he was in quest of another job when the accident occurred.

Miss Helen Engstrom will be hostess at a masquerade party on Friday evening for members of Girl Scout troop two, at the George Engstrom home on Central avenue.

The new home for Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kapschull has been started. It is located on Deerfield avenue, just west of the Elmer Clavey home. The Kapschulls are residing in the Lincoln Pettis apartment.

Mrs. F. P. Browning, worthy matron of the Deerfield chapter of the Eastern Star, acted as Marshall, last Thursday evening at the Libertyville O.E.S. when advanced officers' night was observed. Mrs. Arch Abercromby of Highland Park filled the office chaplain.

Recent Proceedings in Probate Court

Probate court proceedings of interest in this part of the county, are reported as follows:

Edmund Russell Dawson and Lawrence Rolf Russell Dawson, minors, Lake Forest. Invest authorized.

Emma Moran, Lake Forest. Hearing on final report continued to December 5th.

John Rectenwald, Highland Park. Administrator authorized to receive interest on notes, and to receive new notes secured by trust deed.

William H. Vehon, Highland Park. Petition for probate of will filed and set for hearing, Nov. 17. Estimated value of estate $15,000 personal and $85,000 real estate.

Eugene Joseph Mitchell, Highland Park. Report of distribution approved. Estate closed.

William Hansen, formerly insane. Final report of conservator approved. Estate closed.

Harold J. Lynn, Ravinia. Final report approved. Estate closed. Order entered in all estates in which Continental Illinois Bank and Trust company is executor or guardian showing change of name of bank to Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago.

Philip S. Anderson, et al, minors, Highland Park. Letters of guardianship issued to Bessie B. Anderson. Bond of $20,000.

"CAMPAININ'"

The Fall Eleksbun's comin'
You can hear it in the air
Frum coast to coast she's bilin'
Jes' a-spreadin' ever' where
An' it's all about the people
How to help 'em hav' their rights
An' it seems a mortal pity
That it takes sich awful fights.

I guess they ain't no question
With only jes' one side
Er it wouldn't be a question
Fer folks to help decide
An' it takes a lot o' thinkin'
With observin' all along
To keep frum votin' maybe
Jes' the way that might be wrong.

But somethin's in campaignin'
That helps a awful lot
To set us sort-o wonderin'
If we know what's right er not
It's a kind o' edgeukashun
Fer folks on either side
An' helps the winnin' fackshun
To make a better guide.

It fetches out the issues
That's affectin' Uncle Sam
An' helps 'em git adjusted
So they won't be in a jam
An' I 'spect a little fussin'
Over pickin' our own boss
Is a dern sight better bizness
Than the kind they do across.

Splittin' up 'bout politicks
Is jes in fun you know
'Caus' ev'ertime a war comes up
All parties join an' go
A marchin' always side by side
All follerin' jes' one flag
Fer Stars an' Stripes to fight an' die
In uniform er rag.

So when the votes is figger'd
On that November day
An' winnin' roosters start to crow
Jes' 'spose we kneel an' pray
Fer God to help us one an' all
In homes frum Sea to Sea
To LOVE our chosen leader
Who ever he may be.

Copyright October, 1932, by Jesse W. McGinnis.

Mrs. J. C. Huehl had as her guests on Friday, Rev. B. C. Ott, Rev. B. A. Ott and Mr. and Mrs. Scotti of Chicago. On Sunday, Rev. Giles of Moody Bible Institute was a caller at her home.

Miss Emilie Knaak was quite ill the first part of this week.

Miss Grace Braun of Chicago was the week-end guest of Miss Barbara Huehl.

W L S
ORCHESTRA and ENTERTAINERS
— at —
AUSTIN STABLES
1/2 mile North of Grand Avenue on Green Bay Road
Old time and popular dancing
SUNDAY, OCT. 30, 1932
Admission 50c per person Hard Time Dance
20 watt amplifier installed for the occasion

Again!
Rochester
MINN.

$9.50

ROUND TRIP
INCLUDING BERTH

Go
Sat. Oct. 29th
or
Sun. Oct. 30th

Were you unable to take advantage of our last excursion to Rochester? Here's another opportunity . . . and you can stay four or five days! The same remarkably low fare will be in effect:

. . . only $9.50 round trip including lower berth, going and returning, in tourist sleeping car.

Leave Highland Park Saturday, October 29 or Sunday, October 30—9:05 p.m. Arrive Rochester 7:15 a.m.

Returning, leave Rochester Thursday, Nov. 8—9:15 p.m. If you wish to return earlier you may travel in coaches on day or night train—or for $5.00 extra you may return in lower berth in standard sleeping car.

Make Reservations Early, Please

E. C. OHRMUND, Agent
Phone Highland Park 972