Alcyon Offers Fine Program Next Week

For the movie goes the Alcyon is playing today and tomorrow an ideal family show, two splendid attractions being on the bill. "Divorce in the Family," with Jackie Cooper, Conrad Nagel, Lois Wilson, and Lewis Stone is the feature, and is augmented by Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy in their newest comedy, "Scram."

For Saturday only the Alcyon will show Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson's "Congorilla," the only photoplay made entirely in Africa. At the matinee only the final chapter of "Heroes of the West" will be played. On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the funniest, nuttiest, and best comedy of the lot will be exhibited when "Horsefeathers" with the Four Marx Brothers takes possession of the screen. An S. S. Van Dyne story, "The Crane Case" is also on the bill.

"American Madness" has been called by critics the great American picture. Dramatic in story, superbly acted, brilliantly directed it has everything one can desire of a movie. Walter Huston, Constance Cummings and Kay Johnson head the cast. No one who appreciates fine plays can afford to miss this feature which plays at the Alcyon on Wednesday and Thursday, October 2 and 3.

The management announces that it is always possible to see the complete feature picture after 9:30 each evening, and that the entire second show never starts before 9 p.m.
