

MEN'S CLUB KENOSHA, 33-6

Highwood A. C.
Next Sunday
at 2 o'clock

Kenosha Aces, previously this season, walked into Sunday afternoon, when on the chin by a 33-6 lustered to them by the Men's club footballers. Horween and others. The first half of the game set up a valiant battle machine which appeared squeaky in spots, but chief engineer" stepped gas himself during the r, "the old steam roller action perfectly."

Park was first to score the close of the first to the ground-gaining Parker and Rogan, the ng the touchdown. The extra point was wide.

Tied at Half recovered the ball on ark's 15-yard line near the second quarter and wiggled through for a after Highland Park was Kenosha, however, ke good for the extra e score was tied 6-6 ended.

started with a forward en to Mosely, good for his brought the ball to -yard line, and from ogan went over for a ued on page 27)

Copy Dance Be Here Nov. 25

now being sold for copy dance to be held Highland Park Woman's ay, Nov. 25, at 8:30 p. n annual project of the ce department of the s this year under the Mrs. E. T. R. Murfey. of the dance go to the nthropies of the club. Harvey orchestra will music. There will be f amusement for those are to dance. The tick- d at $1.50 per couple. ite, (H. P. 1716) is in ticket sale.

-T.A. to re for Book air in November ber meeting of the Ra- t-Teacher association d to a program of dra- reviews by the school pen the annual Book air will be held at the e from Nov. 28 to chairmanship of Mrs. the committees are rganizing an unusual children's books to be ime, the books to be mily Beers. derived from the Book s usual to the library hool.

FRANK A. LAING, 67, DIES HERE TUESDAY

Prominent in Politics, Civic Affairs in Highland Park for Years

Frank Alexander Laing, 67, for many years a public officer in Highland Park and Lake county, died on Tuesday at his home on Glenview avenue, following several years of falling health. He was the last surviving son of the late Alexander and Elizabeth Hadden Laing. His brother, Edward M. Laing, former president of Sunset Valley Golf club and secretary of the East Park district, died just a year ago, on Nov. 13.

It was a coincidence that Mr. Laing, who had served the public for many years, and had been prominent in politics and civic affairs, should pass away on election day.

Came To This City

Mr. Laing was born Jan. 21, 1865, in Milwaukee. In 1888 he came to Highland Park and engaged in road building with his father. On Oct. 25, 1899, he married Henrietta Egenah, of Lake Forest, and came to Highland Park, where they have resided ever since. Three children, (Continued on page 28)

League of Women Voters to Hear

Mrs. M. Pollock

On Wednesday, Nov. 16, the Highland Park League of Women Voters will hold their regular November meeting at 12 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A.

The speaker for the day is a local woman, Mrs. Maurice Pollack, who is well known to old members of the League and to the Illinois League, of which she is state chairman of the committee on living costs. Mrs. Pollack was graduated from Smith college and later studied for one year in the school of social research and administration at the University of Chicago. She will speak on "Public Utilities in Relation to the Family Purse," a subject which touches on an item found in every family budget.

Make reservations for the lunch which will precede the program, by calling the Y. W. C. A.

Friendship Club Educational Tour

The Friendship club of the Y. W. C. A. is having an Educational Tour to Chicago Sunday, November 13. In order to be assured of a full bus, they are extending a cordial invitation to any one in Highland Park who would be interested in making the trip. Men as well as women are invited to join.

This tour will include the World's Fair grounds, visiting the Travel and Transportation building, Science Hall and Fort Dearborn, besides the World's Fair buildings. Other points of interest will be included in Chicago. The trip will be made by bus leaving the Y. W. C. A. promptly at 4:30, returning late Sunday evening.

Registrations must be made by Friday in order to reserve a seat. For further information call the Y. W. C. A., H. P. 675.

FRANK LAING

Frank Laing, former assessor, who passed away Tuesday, at his home

Friends Night to Be Observed November 16

At the regular meeting of Campbell chapter No. 712 held Nov. 2, a short business session was held after which the doors of the dining room were thrown open to a most delightful scene in the form of a Halloween Masque party. Many curious and unique costumes were displayed and during the grand march to the strains of delightful music, the judges selected the winners of the various prizes. Appropriate refreshments were served during the dance intermissions and all reported a most enjoyable time and one long to be remembered in Campbell chapter.

The next meeting to be held on Nov. 16 will be our annual Friends Night at which time friends of the present officers will fill the various stations. It is hoped that all members will endeavor to attend.

Illinois Garden Club Sponsors Lecture

The Garden Club of Illinois is sponsoring an interesting lecture by Mrs. Bert Schiller McDonald on Flower Arrangement, Monday, Nov. 14, at 2 p.m. at the Palmer House, Chicago. Mrs. MacDonald is one of the most outstanding women in the floral industry.

All garden club members are invited to come and hear her and have the privilege of inviting a guest.

Marriage Licenses Issued

Daniel Rickett, 27, Highwood; Louise Reynolds, 30, St. Louis, Mo. Richard Morrison, 19, Highland Park; Lorraine Utpadel, 20, Wheeling, Ill.

Highwood Carnival for Relief Fund to Be Held Nov. 18, 19

The Highwood Relief committee is sponsoring a carnival to be held at the Oak Terrace school on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 18 and 19. This carnival is being given to raise needed funds to help carry on the local relief work during the coming winter.

This is an opportunity for all to be entertained at small cost and at the same time help the needy of Highwood," is the appeal.

The committee has appointed Guy Viti as general chairman. Mr. Viti has had much experience in putting over carnivals in the past.

A small admission entitles the purchaser of a ticket to a chance on a radio that will be given away on Saturday evening. Amusement will be offered in the form of games such as corno, knocking down bottles, and cats, ringing canes and drawing numbers on hams, bacon, baskets and groceries, blankets, etc. A big Turkey Raffle will be held both evenings.

On Saturday evening, the Italian Women's Prosperity club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Somenzi, will serve an Italian dinner from 5:30 to 10 o'clock. "The price will be so low that one can well afford to take the whole family. This is an opportunity to get a real Italian dinner," is announced.

Ellsworth Sheridan will also be on hand to furnish his music for dancing on Saturday evening.

Bible Lecture Nov. 11

The fifth of the Bible lectures by Dr. James R. Kaye, will be given Friday evening, Nov. 11, at 7:45 p.m. at the Y.W.C.A. This week's lecture continues the Patriarchal Era, through Abraham and Isaac, — Jacob, Father of Israel, — Joseph, the Dreamer in Egypt, — Gen: 22-45. These lectures are free. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Vandals Take Trees, Shrubbery at Fiore's

Charles Fiore, who operates a nursery and garden on Highway 22 at Prairie View, reported to the Lake county sheriff's office at Waukegan Sunday that vandals had visited his gardens and had taken shrubbery and trees valued at several hundred dollars.

This was the second time the nursery had been robbed in recent weeks. Mr. Fiore's office is in Highwood.

Dante Alighieri Plan Entertainment

The Dante Alighieri club will present a performance at the Pearl theatre, on Sunday, Nov. 27.

This is the first performance of the season by this club which will give a series of programs including comedies, vaudevilles and revues in which new talented players are to be featured.

The members of the club are putting forth every effort to make their programs interesting and solicit the patronage of the public to make them successful.

"REBOUND" FIRST RAVINIA OFFERING

Gertrude Williams, Sherman Goble, Jr.; To Have Lead Roles

Promptly at 8:30 Friday night, Nov. 11, the curtain will rise on "Rebound," the first Ravinia Player show of the season, in the Ravinia Village house. All indications point to a packed house for the opening night, and tickets are selling fast. The second performance will be in the Highland Park Women's club Nov. 12.

The complete cast for "Rebound," by Donald Ogden Stewart, is confident of giving Highland Park a good performance. Gertrude Williams and Sherman Goble, Jr., are in the leading roles of Sara Jaffery and Bill Truesdale, "The Great Lover." Featured players are such well known names as Mary Lou McClernan as Liz Crawford; Jacqueline Buhl as Evie Lawrence; W. Morgan Weed as Johnnie; Albert Snite playing the part of Les Crawford, "The model husband"; and the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Jaffery in the capable hands of Dick McPherson and Mrs. Harold Lynn; with Orrin McCorison holding down the part of the rich Lyman Paterson.

Tevis Gibson in Part

Two maids that add to the story in a Paris hotel are Elizabeth Davis and Lassie Davis, and the part of Marta, the very typical servant, is played by Tevis Gibson.

Unlike the usual way of little theatres, everything is clicking nicely through the last week of rehearsal under the direction of Eugene O'Brien, one of the best directors the Ravinia Players have ever had. The (Continued on page 30)

Mrs. Homer Spencer Giving Lectures on Current Events Here

Mrs. Homer Spencer, of Chicago, is giving a course of lectures here under the general topic of "Interpreting Current Events." Large groups have been out to hear her discussions of the happenings and problems of the day.

This course is sponsored by the Home and Education department of the Highland Park Woman's club, of which department Mrs. J. S. Weinberg is chairman. It is offered entirely free to all club members, although others are asked to pay a small fee.

The lectures take place at the Highland Park Woman's clubhouse at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesdays in November. "Come and be informed on these questions of vital interest to us all," is the invitation.

Mrs. Merrill Gives Second Lecture Nov. 16

The second of Mrs. Anthony French Merrill lectures will be held on Wednesday morning, Nov. 16, at 10:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Henry Vail, 225 Laurel avenue. Mrs. Merrill's topic will be "Where Is Biography." For extra reservations call H. P. 2205.