

BAD FOG IMPERILS ALL SHORE TRAFFIC

Minor Accidents Reported As Result of Haze Sunday Night and Monday

North shore traffic was slowed down and the safety of all who ventured out was imperiled by a dense fog which covered all of northern Illinois late Sunday afternoon and evening, and nearly all day Monday. The fog was especially thick in the sections near Lake Michigan on the north shore, although traffic was impeded as far north as the Wisconsin line, as far west as Rockford, and as far south as Champaign-Urbana.

Scattered by gentle winds and rain, the fog began to disperse Monday night, and Tuesday morning, although cloudy, was free of much haze. At times during the day, the sun came out to encourage voters to go to the polls in the general election held that day.

Numerous minor accidents were reported along the north shore Sunday night, Monday and Monday night, but no fatalities resulted from the dangerous driving conditions. Miss Clara Hessling, 39, a maid in a home at 221 Vine avenue, Highland Park, was seriously injured when a car in which she was riding plunged into a ditch at North Caldwell and Touhy avenues, Chicago, the fog preventing the driver of the car from seeing the roadway.

Students of the weather point out that Mondays and Tuesdays for the past eight weeks have been cloudy and rainy, whereas Saturdays and Sundays have been clear, for the most part, and "sunshiny."

D.S.H.S. Art Teacher Exhibits Her Works

Miss Margaret Kerfoot, teacher of art in Deerfield-Shields high school, held an exhibit of her work in the Federated Women's clubs, under the auspices of the Marquette, Mich., Woman's club recently.

The Marquette Mining Journal make this comment: "Seven artists who exhibited in the Chicago outdoor show have their work on view in the club house. The work I liked best came from the brush of Margaret Kerfoot and Emil Arnim. Margaret Kerfoot has in her work something of the same spaciousness, flexibility and freedom of execution noted in Arnim's, but it is the expression of quite a different personality. She spent a year abroad traveling and studying with Lorado Taft and a summer painting in Ireland and Scotland. Her angle of presentation is fresh and original; there is a flair for the decorative in her pictures and her color is gorgeous."

To get an idea of the original interpretation of an ordinary and old subject, look at her "Court House Steps."

Thanksgiving Dance Nov. 24

The Highwood Indians are planning a Thanksgiving dance to be held at the Oak Terrace school, Thursday evening, Nov. 24. There will be good music and all who attend are assured a pleasant evening.

Social Service Is Starting Its Drive for Season's Funds

The Social Service committee of Highland Park is preparing for its annual drive for funds to carry on its work among the needy of the city during the coming winter and spring.

Last year slightly over 1,000 people were registered and were receiving relief, a large part of them women and children. Last year's contributions in the amount of $25,000 were exhausted by this committee in alleviating the need. This sum of money did not provide sufficient means of support for work to any one family and was successful only in the cooperation with other agencies to bridge the gap between actual want and mere existence. A maximum of about four days' work per month per man could be provided, and that only in very few cases.

Almost Exhausted

With winter approaching there is already some increase noted in the number of people seeking aid, based on the investigation of the committee's workers, found to be eligible for relief. This year's budget of $30,000 can hope to accomplish no more than what was done last year, and it can hardly afford to be able to do less. About $5,000 was received from contributions since the latter part of the summer. These funds are about to be exhausted, making it imperative that the balance be raised as soon as possible.

The Board of Directors of the Highland Park Social Service committee by resolution of Nov. 8 have asked a campaign committee composed of Maurice Berkson, Henry Getz, John W. Newey, F. W. Ross, A. T. Sihler and L. B. Nay, chairman, to raise these funds.

Bethany Church Hears Missionaries Sunday

Both the 11 a.m. and the 7:45 p.m. services at the Bethany church on Sunday will be sponsored by the Woman's Missionary society of the church. They have secured as their special speakers Rev. and Mrs. T. L. C. Suhr, who are on furlough from the mission fields of China. Rev. and Mrs. Suhr have been serving as missionaries in Shenchow, West Hunan, China, for the past 22 years. They have had many thrilling experiences, especially during the recent internal upheavals within China. It was necessary for them to withdraw from their field of activity for a period of months to seek safety in Shanghai, while the bandit armies looted their homes and took possession of the Missionary compound. About a year ago, however, they were permitted to go back to their station and have been working there up to the time of their furlough. The Rev. Suhr will relate some of their experiences at Bethany at the morning service, while Mrs. Suhr will speak at the evening service. The Woman's Missionary society will receive their annual Missionary Thank Offering at this occasion.

D.A.R. Better Films Committee Review

The program for the coming week at the Alcyon theatre brings more for adults than for children. There is however, one picture that the youngsters will enjoy—that is "The Night of June 13" with Olive Brook and Lila Lee, and will be shown on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11 and 12. It is a murder mystery, pleasantly different from the average. It is a well acted comedy and very amusing. "Back Street" is given again Thursday with Irene Dunne and John Boles in a well acted, problem play. "The Blond Venus" is to be given on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday with Marlene Dietrich as a cabaret singer, and unfaithful wife. She is turned out by her husband, and she kidnaps the child. After being hounded by detectives, she finally "arrives" successfully in Paris night clubs.

"The Age of Consent" is the picture on Wednesday, with Dorothy Wilson. This is another preposterous college story with smart aleck conversation and continuous girl chasing. Real love and sex impulse are thoroughly jumbled.

Services Held Saturday for Mrs. Hutchison

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchison, who died a week ago Monday in Albuquerque, N. M., were held here at 2 o'clock last Saturday afternoon at the chapel at 27 North Sheridan road. Cremation followed.

Mrs. Hutchison was the wife of L. R. Hutchison. In addition to her husband, she is survived by three sons, Louis, Jr., Robert and William; and three sisters, Mrs. F. Reum and Mrs. Fred Hess, of Chicago, and Mrs. Grover Grady, of Highland Park.

Mrs. Hutchison was 36 years old. She had been in New Mexico about a year before she died. Her sons and sister, Mrs. Grady, had gone to Albuquerque about six weeks ago.

Sunset Valley Golf Club Directors Meet

The first meeting of the newly elected board of directors of Sunset Valley Golf club was enthusiastic in plans for the year. Present were Mesdames Kennicott, Anthony, Carr, Fabian, Jordan, Kelly, Nay, Rosenthal, Schur and Miss Tschirgi.

The balance of the $40 in the charity fund was voted to be given to the Highland Park Social Service. In this community Mr. Nay who is also campaign manager of the Highland Park Social Service drive asks for the support of every citizen in the forthcoming campaign to insure funds for the care of Highland Park's needy this winter.

The question of golf fees for 1933 was discussed from many angles and all sorts of intriguing plans set forth which should be of interest to all members.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, Dec. 8, and meanwhile, the chairmen will be forming their various committees.

Former Resident Awarded Prizes at Flower Show

George E. Millard, of Pasadena, Calif., former resident of this city, was awarded fourteen first, twelve second, and twelve third prizes in the Pasadena Fall Flower show held in the New Civic auditorium in that city. He was one of the amateur exhibitors, and he had a large and unusually fine exhibit of potted chrysanthemums and other specimen flowers.

Many of the older residents will remember Mr. Millard as the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Millard, early residents here.

The Highland Park Press is always happy to receive news of former residents, and enjoys passing it on to their readers.

Large Attendance at Rachmaninoff Recital

The Winnetka Music club opened its ninth season of Artist-Recitals brilliantly, Monday, October 31, with a recital by Sergei Rachmaninoff, before the largest audience in the history of the series. It is presumptuous for anyone to attempt, to criticise such an artist. Before the giant stature of Rachmaninoff as a man and as a musician, one must stand in awe and admiration. The controlled power, the exquisite clarity of tone, together achieved an orchestral effect which was almost overpowering. In brief, from the moment Rachmaninoff stepped upon the stage, until the last perfect note died away, the listener was intensely conscious thetha e-h sh cmfwypeta ence of a great personality—one that will rank in history, I am sure, with either Liszt or Rubenstein.

Of the program itself much might be said: Its unusual arrangement, beginning with Scriabine's Sonata, Fantasia, Opus 19, and ending with Liszt Fantasia Quasi Sonata, the contrast in mood and interpretation between the Haydn and Chopin Fantasies, the consistent and unvaried beauty and brilliance of execution, all combined made of the evening a Hallowe'en never to be forgotten.

There is nothing more to be said. Not to have heard this outstanding genius of contemporary times, is to have lost as profound and moving an experience as is offered to us today. It is contact with artists such as Rachmaninoff that we realize, indeed, that "music is our refuge and our solace."

Blackhawk Society Meets on Saturday

On Saturday evening of this week the senior group of the Blackhawk society, Children of the American Revolution, will meet at seven o'clock at the home of Mrs. O. S. Peabody, 268 Moraine road. This is the first fall meeting. It is hoped every member will come to enjoy the interesting program.

Last Saturday the Junior division spent a delightful afternoon under the guidance of Mrs. Gordon Buchanan.
