

Resident Awarded Prizes
at Flower Show

E. Millard, of Pasadena, senior resident of this city, secured fourteen first, twelve second and twelve third prizes in a Fall Flower show held at the Civic auditorium in that city. He was one of the amateur exhibitors and he had a large and fine exhibit of potted plants and other specimens.

The older residents will remember Mr. Millard as the son of the late William Millard, early publisher of the Highland Park Press. Mr. Millard is always glad to receive news of former residents and enjoys passing it on to other readers.

Attendance at Rachmaninoff Recital

The Highland Park Music club opened its season of Artist-Recitals on Monday, October 31, with a recital by Sergei Rachmaninoff, before the largest audience in the series. It is presumptuous to attempt to do justice to an artist. Before the recital of Rachmaninoff as a musician, one must have a certain admiration. The recital was a masterpiece of power, the exquisite clarity of the ensemble together achieved an effect which was almost perfect. In brief, from the recital of Rachmaninoff stepped upon the stage until the last perfect note the listener was intensely interested in the personality—one that has made history, I am sure, with the name of Rubenstein.

The program itself much might be an unusual arrangement, with Scriabine's Sonata, Opus 19, and ending with the Quasi Sonata, the mood and interpretation of the Haydn and Chopin were consistent and unvarying and brilliant of execution combined made of the whole allowe'en never to be Nothing more to be said. The recital, heard this outstanding temporary times, is to be profound and moving as is offered to us in contact with artists of the caliber of Rachmaninoff that we realize that "music is our refuge."

A QUESTION of
LIFE AND DEATH

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO?

*Literally hundreds of families in our community cannot EXIST this winter without your help! Desperate, gaunt-eyed men . . . discouraged, ill, incapacitated women . . .
despondent. Undernourished babies . . . boys and girls who cannot go to school because they haven't clothes . . .*

To share . . . to work . . . to give . . . that we may alleviate this situation, that we may remedy this crisis in our community . . . this is the duty of every man, woman, and child in Highland Park!

does not lessen your responsibility. The fact that you cannot afford a large contribution must not deter you. Give as much of yourself as you can in work and in service; give to the fullest in moral support and co-operation; give all that you can in dollars and cents! But Give!

The fact that you have given . . . and given,
