Olson Family Group to Repeat Musical Program at Church

"The Olson Family program given at the Highwood M. E. church last Saturday evening was a real success," say those in charge of the benefit musical offering which was announced in last week's Highland Park Press, Lake Forester and Deerfield Press. "The large crowd, greater than the seating capacity of the building could accommodate, responded to the numbers of the program in so pleasing a manner that several encores were required."

A great amount of versatile talent was displayed by the group, consisting of five brothers and five sisters, all residents of Lake Forest, Highwood and Highland Park. A photograph of this musical family was featured on the cover of the Highland Park Press, the Lake Forester and the Deerfield Press last week.

Many people who were unable to attend the program have requested that it be given again, and the Olsons have consented to repeat their performance, with a few variations, on Saturday evening of next week, Nov. 19, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of the Highwood M. E. church.

Social Service Is Starting Its Drive for Season's Funds

To Begin Nov. 20

This committee feels that it is very necessary to have a large body of workers in this campaign in order to insure its success. While asking and earnestly hoping for the cooperation of those public spirited men and women who have so unselfishly given of their time and effort in past years, it is also making an effort to get as many new workers as possible from among those who heretofore were probably not offered an opportunity to feel the satisfaction that comes with work of this type. The committee is taking this means of appealing to those citizens of Highland Park who share with it a deep sense of responsibility in the care of our poor that they volunteer as soon as possible to do their bit during this campaign which will begin on Sunday, Nov. 20, and is expected to end on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24. This committee has already appealed to most of the mens and womens organizations in the city and will continue to do so, asking them to seek out from among their members those willing to help in this fine cause and by doing so further the aim of the committee in trying to have some 150 to 200 workers for the drive.

Those with such connections may be called on very shortly by their clubs or organizations to share in this work, but to lighten the work of their own officials, as well as the Campaign committee, they are earnestly solicited to get in touch with either their own organizations or a member of the Campaign committee and volunteer their services.
