

THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS

Entered as Second Class Matter March 1, 1911, at the Post Office at Highland Park

ISSUED THURSDAY OF EACH WEEK

THE UDELL PRINTING COMPANY
Udell Building, Highland Park, Ill.
Telephones Highland Park 557-558-559

Chicago office, 6 N. Michigan ave. State 6326

A member of
The Chicago Suburban Quality Group
Chicago offices: 1616-17-18 Willoughby Tower
Telephone Central 3355

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 PER YEAR
All communications must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer. Articles for publication must reach the editor by Wednesday noon to insure appearance in current issue.

Resolutions of condolence, cards of thanks, obituaries, notices of entertainments or other affairs where an admittance charge is published, will be charged at regular advertising rates.

Vol. 21 December 1, 1932 No. 40

Local and Personal

The central council of childhood education will hold its regular monthly meeting Saturday morning Dec. 3 at 11 o'clock in the Central Eleanor club rooms, room 1800 Stevens building, 17 N. State st., Chicago. This will be a sectional meeting of special interest to teachers in and about Chicago Chicago in the nursery school, kindergarten, primary, intermediate, and supervision and teacher training fields.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Katz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Katz of Wilmette, and James Loeb Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Loeb of this city, took place last Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Rabbi Charles Schulman of North Shore Congregation Israel read the service. Only immediate members and a few close friends of the families were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Loeb plan to make their home with Loeb's parents. The groom is an assistant instructor in French at Northwestern university. The bride is studying at the American Conservatory of Music.

Music for the Presbyterian Guild dinner, Friday evening, Dec. 2, will be furnished by Mary Alan Hokanson, harpist, and Henry Belfield, violinist.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Mayo of Sheridan place returned Saturday from a ten days' motor trip to Kansas City, Mo., and Manhattan, Kans., spending Thanksgiving day with their daughter, Mrs. Asbe Lockhart in Kansas City. Mrs. Lockhart accompanied them home for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Chambers of Roger Williams avenue are the happy parents of a son, born Tuesday, Nov. 22, at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mitchell who were married last Wednesday, motored to the Kentucky Caves, returning home Sunday night. They will make their home at 132 Highwood avenue.

Mrs. B. Helke entertained members of her bridge club last evening.

Dr. and Mrs. L. K. Mitchell of Rockford spent the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Wurth of Yale lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Rybolt of Main street, Highwood, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter Saturday at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Fred Hall of Bridgman, Mich., and Mrs. Martha Hensch of DesPlaines were the Sunday guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wiles of North Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Rhinehart of Homewood avenue spent Thanksgiving with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rhinehart of Niles, Mich.

Mrs. Charles Swickard entertained at three tables of five hundred Tuesday evening.

Forrest Rose and son Junior and Frank Walz attended the stock show in Chicago last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson of Deerfield are announcing the arrival of a son Saturday at the Highland Park hospital.

Mrs. Ernest H. Volwiler has returned from St. Louis, Mo., where she spent several days visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Spaulding of Oshkosh, Wis., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheahen.

Patty Dickinson of Clifton avenue, is quarantined with chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Tillman and children spent several days last week in Quincy, Ill. Mr. Tillman went on a hunting trip while there.

Mrs. Garbolet, mother of Mrs. Grace Braune, is confined to the Highland Park hospital with a broken leg as a result of a fall down the cellar stairs about ten days ago. It is thought she became dizzy while going down the stairs, lost her balance and fell. Mrs. Garbolet is 75 years old and is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Emerson and their daughter, Barbara, have returned to Highland Park after spending Thanksgiving in the east with Arthur Emerson Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Boyd will celebrate their forty-second wedding anniversary tomorrow (Friday) evening. Several out-of-town guests will come here to help them celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shepherd of Winnetka are the happy parents of a daughter born Sunday at the Highland Park hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Swanson of Orchard place entertained at supper followed by bridge last Sunday evening.

W. H. Stockwell, who has been in the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, for the past four weeks, is getting along nicely and it is expected that he will return home the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kent spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. Kent's parents in Olney, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Brandonisio have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Anna to Mr. Peter Cimbalo which will take place on Saturday, Dec. 3, at two o'clock at St. James church, Highwood. A reception will follow the ceremony at 5:30 o'clock in Witten hall.

Miss Lola Perkins, dramatic teacher in an Indianapolis Ind., high school spent several days last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Laura A. Howard of the Udell building.

Mrs. George F. Conrad, who has been confined to her home with the flu for the past week, is able to be around again.

Mrs. H. T. Bakke, who underwent an operation at the Presbyterian hospital, Chicago, on Monday, is getting along nicely.

Lincoln School P.-T.A. Meets Next Wednesday

The regular scheduled meeting of the Lincoln school P. T. A. will be held on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 7 at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. Miss Cora Hendee and Miss Ida Agruss of the Highland Park Public library will talk about "Books for Children."

Dudley Crafts Watson Hosts to Garden Club

The Ravinia Garden club members will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson, 281 Marshman avenue on Friday, Dec. 9. Mrs. Watson will be hostess for this meeting and Mr. Watson will instruct and entertain with one of his famous Music Picture Symphonies, called "Gardens and Fountains."

Mr. Watson is the extension lecturer for the Chicago Art institute and has given these lectures from coast to coast. He is a resident of our own city and is well beloved on the entire north shore. The Ravinia Garden club is fortunate in having this opportunity.

Grass Fires Continue

Nearly every week the Highland Park Fire department is called to extinguish grassfires started by home owners in the outskirts of town, that have gotten out of control. The department always responds in time to prevent danger of catching buildings, but persons starting these fires are requested to use all means in their power to keep them under control.

Season's New DRESSES*in a thrillingPre-Holiday SALEin two price groups$12.50and$18.75

Sports - Street - Afternoon and Dinner Dresses. All the latest season's models in fancy and sheer wools—rough and Satin back Crepes and some Velvets. Don't miss this opportunity to be well-dressed for the holidays.

All of our fine
Felt and Fabric Hats

in two price groups
$2.75 and $4.50

The Loretta Shop

10 North Sheridan Road

Tel H. P. 463

Electro-Vaporized Mineral Baths
Scientific Swedish Massage
Infra-Red Generator

GIESER HEALTH PARLOR

(Women Exclusively)

North Shore Trust Building, Room 307

House Calls if desired

Office—H. P. 4902 — Tel. — Res.—H. P. 468