

tomorrow (Fri-
ral out-of-town
e to help them

is Shepherd of
ppy parents of
unday at the
tal.

ur Swanson of
ained at sup-
ge last Sunday

ho has been in
pital, Chicago,
eks, is getting
pected that
the latter part

es Kent spent
days with Mr.
ney, Ill.

el Brandonisio
s for the mar-
r Anna to Mr.
will take place
at two o'clock
Highwood. A
the ceremony
ten hall.

ns, dramatic
opolis Ind., high
ays last week
rs. Laura A.
building.

rad, who has
ome with the
is able to be

who under-
the Presbyte-
on Monday,

-T.A.
Wednesday

ed meeting of
T. A. will be
ternoon, Dec
e school audi-
dee and Miss
ighland Park
about "Books

atson
rden Club

club members
Mr. and Mrs.
281 Marsh-
Dec. 9. Mrs.
ss for this
son will in-
h one of his Symphonies,
ountains."

xtension lec-
Art institute
ctures from
resident of
l beloved on
The Ravinia
e in having

tinue

ne Highland
is called to
started by
outskirts of
out of con-
always re-
t danger of
ut persons
requested to wer to keep

Offer Fine Program
at Alcyon Theatre

A three day showing of Harold Lloyd in "Movie Crazy" starts tonight at the Alcyon, "Movie Crazy" is considered one of the finest and cleanest comedies to come to Highland Park this year. Lloyd is at his best in the story of a stage-struck youth.

George Raft, Wynne Gibson, Alison Skipworth, Mae West, and Constance Cummings in "Night After Night" will be at the Alcyon Sunday and Monday. On Sunday only the Cumberland Ridge Runners of radio station WLS will appear in person.

The long awaited "Grand Hotel" arrives on Tuesday, Dec. 6 for three days. The cast of this truly great picture includes Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, the Barrymore Brothers, Wallace Beery, and Lewis Stone. The regular bargain admission prices will prevail.

Every Saturday afternoon the Alcyon is giving away a Speed-o-Byke in conjunction with some of the more progressive local merchants. The new free theatre parking space is proving to be most popular with the local theatre-goers.

Dante Alighieri Club
Program Is Successful

A full house was on hand at the Pearl theatre last Sunday evening to cheer and applaud those who took part in the excellent program sponsored by the Dante Alighieri club of Highwood and Highland Park.

The program was directed by Emil Perseo Pietrobelli, a connoisseur of the art of stage-craft, an accomplished dancer, and a clever actor. He was generously applauded for his recitative sketches, assisted by Eritrea Pasquesi. His rendering of the Apache dance in the cafe scene thrilled the audience. He was assisted by Edith Monterastelli, also a clever dancer.

Miss Marie Ceccarini, who was the guest artist of the evening, afforded the audience a new thrill. Her beautiful soprano voice resounded through the atmosphere with firmness, naturalness, and perfect tone production. The audience responded with bursts of applause in appreciation of her art, and gracious manner.

Others who took part in the program were: Maria Santi, soprano; Enea Pichietti, tenor; S. Muzzarelli, baritone; E. Bernardini, I. Monterastelli, Emily Leone, Marie Lawther, M. Bertucci, Camille Corso, Ada Bernardi, Charles Beck, Herbert and Leonard Herrigus, Margaret Mellipelli, Maura Bortolotti, Nina Muzzarelli, J. Bortolotti, M. Balocchi, J. Morandi, P. Guerrini, C. Vignocchi, F. Pasquesi, W. Roda, and eight beautiful chorus girls.

Alma Galassini, pianist, accompanied all the soloists, and was generously applauded.

Aldo Biagi, orchestra director was applauded for his brilliant composition the "Dante Alighieri March."

The first white settler in the section now covered by Highland Park was Mathias Stoltz, a squatter, who came in the early 1830's, building a log cabin on the present southeast corner of Hazel avenue and Lake avenue.

GARNETT'S

Santa Claus will be here Saturday from 2 to 5 p. m.

GIFT SALE
Handbags

THERE is a perfect bag here for every member of the family from Grandmother to Sally. Every one a replica of a more expensive bag. Black, brown, wine.

Other Hand Bags for Gift Giving are priced at $1.95, $2.95 $4.95