

Allan Wolff Bowls 253 in Pin League

Resuming competition after the Thanksgiving holidays, the Fell team won two games of the series from Santi's Dairy in the Business Men's Bowling league at the Majestic Alleys. The Highland Garage took three from the Lincoln Market and the Highland Sweets won three games from Bock's. Last Thursday, the H. P. Beverage team won two from Louis Shoe Repair. Linderman won high game of 245 pins as well as high series of 604.

Tonight the H. P. Beverage team will meet Santi's Dairy and the Highland Garage will bowl Bock's Service station.

The high bowling score of last week was rolled by Mr. Allan Wolff, who bowled an exceptional game of 253.

In the Luck-Pirate league, the Lucky Strike team stand in first place, the Pirates in second, and the Ulcers in third. In this league, Chaffee is high bowler with 155 and Hiatt third with 154.

Beginning next week, the Majestic Alleys will award a weekly prize to the individual bowler who makes high score for the week.

Dr. C. M. Utley Will Address Meeting of Ravinia Woman's Club

Dr. Clifton M. Utley will be the guest speaker at the Dec. 14 meeting of the Ravinia Woman's club, which will be held Wednesday afternoon of next week at the Ravinia Village House.

Dr. Utley is world-renowned as an expert on international affairs and is, at the present time, director of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations.

Officers of the Ravinia Woman's club say, "He is an extremely young and interesting personality of today, and is so much in demand for lectures that the program committee of the club feels it is a distinct privilege to present him for a talk on current events."

After Dr. Utley was graduated from the University of Chicago, he went to Germany where he studied at the University of Munich. Later he was a student at the University of Algiers in northern Africa.

Last summer he traveled extensively throughout Europe and studied for sometime in Germany. He was present at the discussion of the frontier problem in Poland, and spent some time in Paris on the German equality question.

In 1931 he became editor in chief of "Foreign Notes," a bi-weekly publication dealing with international events.

The program committee of the Ravinia club says, "He is avid and keen and is an interesting speaker. As the date of his talk at the club is Dec. 14, the day before the European debt payments are due to the United States, it is hoped that Dr. Utley may touch upon his subject with some interesting information."

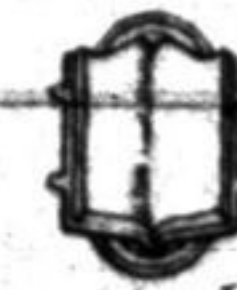

Howard H. Hitchcock, Banker, Dies at His Highland Park Home

Howard H. Hitchcock, the Chicago banker, died Wednesday night of last week at 11 o'clock at his home, 543 Waverly road, Highland Park, after a brief illness of pneumonia. He had been in the banking business in Chicago for many years, and since 1919 was the head of the investment house of Hitchcock and Company. He was 74 years old.

Mr. Hitchcock was born in Lee Center, Ill., and was educated in the Chicago public schools. He entered the banking business in 1875 and later became associated with the Metropolitan National Bank of Chicago, becoming cashier in 1894. When the bank was consolidated with the First National in 1902, Mr. Hitchcock was elected vice-president, a position he held until 1919.

The widow, a son and a daughter survive. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:45 at the Highland Park residence, and burial was in Rosehill cemetery, Chicago.

More than 400 student singers will take part in the annual Christmas concert to be given by the music department of New Trier high school, Winnetka, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 11, at 4 o'clock in the Leslie F. L. Gates gymnasium.

HIGHLAND PARK PUBLIC LIBRARY

HIGHLAND PARK ILLINOIS

1932 — A Busy Year

It is for public libraries. The nation-wide condition of unemployment has turned people's attention toward less expensive recreational pursuits, and, of course, reading ranks high among them.

It is doubtful if a single public library in America, unless it suffered a severe cut in its appropriation, reported a reduction in activity for the past two years.

The Highland Park Public library has made notable gains in all its work. Up to Nov. 1, 1932, 240,495 books were issued for home reading in the past two years, a gain of 70,410 over the figures of the previous two years. In fact finding and research service there was a healthy growth.

There are now more than 6,000 readers registered as card holders in the library, or more than fifty per cent of the population of the city.

Unemployment Insurance

Mrs. Homer Spencer's recent discussion of unemployment insurance at the Woman's club brings to mind several books on this subject which may be found at the Highland Park Public library. Ask for them at the desk.

1. National Industrial Conference Board—Lay-Off and Its Prevention.
2. E. C. Buehler—Compulsory Unemployment Insurance.

3. Frazer Hood—Everyman's Insurance.

4. M. P. Cornelius—Third Party Insurance.

5. J. B. Maclean—Life Insurance.

A Notable Anniversary

The 200th anniversary of Walter Scott's death is celebrated this year with an affectionate revival of interest in his novels and in his life and times. Make it the occasion of renewing your own youthful response to the romance of Ivanhoe, The Lady of the Lake or Kenilworth, and an opportunity to give young people the noble life story of this great man.

For Those Who Cannot Come

For those who cannot come to the library, also those who can, the library recently posted a long but selective reading list covering good poetry, good drama and good short stories.

This list was compiled by Mr. Wilber L. Buchanan of Highland Park, who has made of it not only a list of English titles, but international as well. Ask for one at the desk. It will serve as a check list when choosing books for one's friends.

We Thank Our Friends

In the last few months books and magazines have been presented to the library by Mrs. S. P. Johnston, Mrs. J. D. Cole, Miss Szulerecki, Mrs. W. H. Dehon (plants), Mrs. I. E. Steiglitz, Dr. Douglas Boyd, and Mrs. E. P. Sedgwick.
