

Dudley Crafts Watson
in Last of Series

Sunday, Dec. 18 at 4 o'clock, Mr. Dudley Crafts Watson will give the last of his series of inspiring lecture-recitals at Matz hall, Community house, Winnetka.

Appropriate to this time of the year, Mr. Watson has chosen as his subject "Genesis to Revelations" depicting the Religious art from the earliest times through the Renaissance to the present. He brings to all in this talk very close to the spirit of the Christmas time, inspiring the intellect through the world's masterpieces of art and enlightening the emotions with the master compositions of music in correlation. There has been much interest in these lectures and it is hoped all who can avail themselves of this opportunity will attend this, Mr. Watson's last one here, for some time.

Grotti will be interpreted as will Michael Angelo, Raphael, Leonardo-Vinci, Corregio, Murillo, Durer, Stock, Bellows, Roerich. Music by Palestrina, Gregory, Bach, Handel, Brahms, Sowerby and Stravinsky.

Akron, Ohio, Communists have demanded of the city council a $15,-a-week-dole for every jobless man, free housing, free food, unemployment insurance, pensions, no work, and control of the charity fund. We take it they've already got chauffeurs and valets.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph.
