Local and Personal of Highland Park

Mrs. William R. Tapper has made an on-the-spur-of-the-moment decision to be with her son-in-law and daughter, the Baron and Baronne d'Almeida, in Paris for Christmas. Perhaps one of the biggest drawing cards is the new grandchild whom Mrs. Tapper is to see for the first time. The baronne is the former Barbara Tapper. Mrs. Tapper will return early in the new year.

The marriage of Miss Margaret LaShelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rayner LaShelle and Frederick Perry Boynton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Boynton will take place Saturday. The ceremony will be held at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Christoph Keller of Trinity Episcopal church officiating. Miss Elizabeth LaShelle will serve her sister as maid of honor and Woodward Boynton will act as best man for his brother. There will be no other attendants. The young couple do not plan a wedding trip at present, but will settle in Chicago as soon as they find an apartment. Miss LaShelle attended Ferry hall and was graduated from the Bennetts school near Boston. Mr. Boynton is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

John I. Marshall, Jr., will return home on the 18th from Ithaca, N. Y. to spend the Christmas holidays with his mother Mrs. John Irwin Marshall at their home 140 Prospect avenue. He will have as his house guest for the holidays Mr. Walter H. Lemley from the Hill school, Pottstown, Pa. Mr. Lemley is assistant instructor of English and Latin.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tullis and two children have moved back into their own home on Green Bay road in Lake Forest, having resided in Highland Park and Ravinia during the summer and autumn.

Miss Louise Gehr a student at Tuscon, Ariz., is spending the holidays in Palm Springs and Pasadena, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Fay with Mr. Russel Clavey and Miss Mary Lou Kensel of Glencoe motored to Shelbyville, Ill., and spent the weekend with Miss Kensel's parents. While there the men folks enjoyed hunting.

Miss Louise Van Norden of South Green Bay road left Wednesday for San Francisco, Calif., to sail on the Taiqu Maru to the Far East. She will return in about four months.

Mrs. Harlan Rogers of Half Day road entertained the members of her bridge club on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Raffery of Deerfield are the happy parents of a son born Monday at the Highland Park hospital.

Miss Genevra Nash daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Nash of N. Green Bay road who has been attending boarding school in La Grange will return home next week to spend the holidays with her parents.

Lake Shore temple No. 242 Pythian Sisters of Highwood gave a surprise handkerchief shower on Mrs. Annie Gunset, one of their members at their last regular meeting. Mrs. Gunset is making her new home in Lynn, Mass. The evening was spent in playing cards and bunco, after which refreshments were served.

The Book Review class of the Fine Arts department of the Highland Park Woman's club will meet at 2:30 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 19, in the club house at Sheridan road and Elm place. Mrs. Herbert P. Beers will speak on the subject "Current Publications of Fiction," and Miss Barbara Sincere on "Ten Minutes of Modern Poetry." Three books will be reviewed. Miss Constance Williams, Mrs. Charles Mason, and Mrs. Carl Pfanstiehl will contribute to this part of the program.

Denton Smith, who is attending the School of Engineering at the University of Cincinnati, will arrive Friday to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Smith of South Linden avenue.
