

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

NEEDS FOR DEERFIELD RELIEF

Money for Christmas baskets.

PLEASE HELP!

Children's clothing all sizes

Telephone donations to Deerfield 241
M. A. Pottenger
Deerfield Relief Organization

Local and Personal of Deerfield

Quite a large number of parents attended the Christmas entertainment of St. Norberts school in Techny on Sunday when fifteen Deerfield children were included in the program. Those participating were Mary, Adelaide and Jerry McGuire, Bobby and David Burns, Kress Willman, Matt, John, Earl and "Sis" Klemp, Bob, Tom and Betty Coleman, Anna Marie and James Kilcoyne.

The Independent Social club met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Pettis. Officers to serve for the coming year are: President, Mrs. Edwin Palmer; vice-president, Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Louis Soefker. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 28, at the home of Mrs. Edward Horenberger on West Deerfield road.

Sandwiches will be collected as usual on Tuesday during the Christmas holidays at the Deerfield school for Northwestern Settlement House. Mrs. Robert L. Johnson will be in charge and all are urged to make a special effort to get their sandwiches to the school before 9 a.m.

Mrs. D. A. Hastings and son Robert visited Mrs. Hastings aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Chatterton in Berwyn on Tuesday.

On Thursday, Mrs. W. S. Comstock of Niles Center, with Mrs. D. A. Hastings and son Richard, attended the funeral of their cousin, Policeman Edgar Chatterton in Berwyn, who had been killed when he and another policeman were sent to a home to find out why a man kept his children home from school. Chicago papers carried accounts of the shooting, which was done behind a closed door.

Dr. and Mrs. William Mott of Harrington, Kansas, visited Miss Sadie Galloway last week. Mrs. Mott is the former Mabel Mason Schafer and resided at the C. B. Easton home a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rollman (Lelah Kreh) have moved from Highwood to the Ross Sherman bungalow on Osterman avenue.

Miss Dorothy Myers of Madison, Wis., will be the guest of Jean Pettis next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kress and little daughter have moved to the former Trute house on West Deerfield avenue.

Burr H. Kress is leaving this week to join Mrs. Kress in Rutherford, N. J., where they will spend the holidays with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kress.

The new home for Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kapschull on West Deerfield road is nearing completion. The Kapschulls are residing in the Lincoln Pettis apartment.

Installation of newly elected officers of the local camp of Royal Neighbors will be held Thursday evening, January 12, at the Masonic temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Easton have moved from the Rudie Knaak flat to the Cassius Easton house on Hazel avenue.

Mrs. C. W. Boyle entertained her little group of pre-kindergarten children at luncheon on Monday.

W. W. Clark has been quite ill with the flu this week.

The Just Sew club will not meet during the holidays.

Mrs. E. H. Selig entertained her luncheon bridge club on Wednesday (yesterday).

The Tuxis society will not present The Life of Christ in tableaux on Christmas night, as had been previously planned. The young people feel that the morning service that day is sufficient.

Joan Peters entertained a group of her little kindergarten friends at a birthday party on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hoffman have moved from Todd court to Glenview.

The Areme club will meet the second Wednesday evening in January at the home of Mrs. Raymond Dobbin.

R. F. Grohe returned Friday from a business trip to Iowa.

The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's Evangelical church will be held Friday, Dec. 30, at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Miss Louise Mendel of Alton, Ill., is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brennan of Chestnut street.

The Bethlehem Evangelical church Christmas entertainment is being given this evening (Thursday).

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison were dinner guests at the William Hutchison home in Waukegan on Saturday.

A North Shore group of young people visited the Dorcas Home on Sunday, brought gifts to the children and gave a program of Christmas carols.

Bruce Blaine and daughter Shirley spent Sunday in Franklin Grove, Ill., with Mr. Blaine's mother, Mrs. Sadie Blaine.

Richard Mau, who is employed at the Ford agency in Highland Park, has been ill with flu.

Barbara Ashman entertained at a Christmas party for the Girl Reserves on Tuesday afternoon, after which they went caroling.

Ask for Deerfield Relief Thrift Stamps!

Miss Irene Rockenbach attended a Christmas party on Wednesday at the Fourth Presbyterian church in Chicago given for the staff of the church school workers.

Caroline Sieffert entertained at a party last Wednesday afternoon at her home on Todd court, in honor of her eighth birthday anniversary.

Douglas Hastings of Chicago spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hastings.

Mrs. George Stanger is recovering from an attack of flu.

Mrs. Samuel Rockenbach is spending the week at the home of her son William White in Chicago.

E. H. Selig and H. R. Vant attended a county meeting of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. on Tuesday in Libertyville. Last month the county meeting was held in Deerfield.

Jane Comstock of Niles Center spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hastings of Somerset avenue.

Pietro Marchi of Highland Park will be the soloist on Christmas Day at the Holy Cross Catholic church.

Miss Frances Biederstadt attended the reopening of the Auditorium in Chicago on Wednesday evening when a concert was given by the Bohemian club.

Rehearsals for "Pay As You Enter" to be presented January 12 and 13, have started. The Deerfield Drama league and the American Legion are sponsoring the play.

Dorothy Jean and Ward, children of Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Anderson, have recovered from their recent illness.

All those who took part in the play "Henry's Wedding" are being feted this evening by Royal Neighbors of the local camp.

Ask for Thrift Stamps. Help an unemployed man by lending a dollar. Ask your merchant for particulars.

Members of the Tri C society will have a roller skating party at the Libertyville rink on the Wednesday evening following New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen are entertaining at a family dinner on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Rasmussen's birthday anniversary.

Jean Scully has been ill with the flu this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olendorf entertained guests from Chicago and Libertyville at tea on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Turner have rented their home to people from Barrington and moved to Chicago on Saturday.

Arthur Gathman of Itasca was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Pettis on Thursday.

A great many Deerfield relatives and friends of Mr. George Hessler attended his funeral on Monday.

Mrs. George Meyer is giving a party for the junior girls of St. Paul's church on Thursday, Dec. 29, at her home on Osterman avenue.

John Klemp Jr. underwent a major operation at the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago last Monday.

Officers elected for the 1933 eighth grade class of the Deerfield grade school are: President, Charles Mele; vice-president, Muriel Lemm; secretary and treasurer, Mary Alice Rapsdell.

Mrs. Alex Rafferty and little son are returning from the Highland Park hospital to their home on Cedar street this week.

Children of the Junior and Intermediate departments of St. Paul's church will meet Friday at 6:00 p.m. at the church to go caroling, provided the weather is not too severely cold.

Richard Kenny of Chicago was the week-end guest of George Stryker. Wallace Reichelt gave a dinner for Mr. Kenny Saturday evening followed by a party for ten young couples at the Stryker home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and twin sons of Libertyville will be the Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olendorf.

Mrs. William White of Chicago visited her mother Mrs. Henry Meyer on Sunday. Mrs. Meyer is ill at the home of her son, Albert Meyer.

Miss Eleanor Van Zandt of Grays Lake was selected as the most beautiful farm girl in Lake county recently, and will compete for a national beauty title at the Chicago World's Fair. Miss Van Zandt attended Deerfield-Shields high school a number of years ago and lived in Deerfield with her aunt, Mrs. John Peters.

Constance Koebelin has chicken pox.

Jack Gibbs will arrive Friday from the Chicago Junior school near Elgin to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Mildred Biederstadt Gibbs.

Dr. W. L. Weir was ill Sunday, so his son occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church.

The cantata "His Natal Day" will be presented on Christmas morning by the vested choir of the Presbyterian church. Dwight Merrell is directing with Miss Frances Biederstadt at the piano.

Mrs. Charles Roll has been quite ill at her home on Central avenue.

The S. P. Hutchison and Dan Holmes families were Sunday dinner guests at the Roy V. Hutchison home in Chicago.

Children and workers in the Junior department will entertain the parents at a Christmas party on Thursday evening (tonight) from 7:30 to 9:30 at the Presbyterian church.

The Leslie D. Smith children are attending the Green Bay school in Highland Park.

Helen Hoffman is recuperating from her recent operation at the Augustana hospital in Chicago.

Deerfield Girl Reserves sang at a gathering at the "Y" last Friday in Highland Park.