

72 Baskets Given to Deerfield Families

Seventy-two Christmas baskets were sent out last week to help bring cheer to many Deerfield homes, through co-operation with the Deerfield Relief Organization. The school children's contributions, the "Happiness Barrels" sponsored by the Woman's club, the churches, the candy from the P. T. A., and the many individuals, who either filled the baskets personally or contributed to the fund, made this work possible.

The majority of the baskets were merchants with the assistance of distributed by two of the local merchants assisted by the Boy Scouts. Toys were distributed on Saturday by a group of scouts. The Girl Scouts dressed new dolls and made scrap books. Donations of many new and used toys with the gifts from the Girl Scouts provided a happy Christmas for children in 18 families.

Mrs. Wm. A. Tennermann and Mrs. Wm. A. Cruickshank were in charge of the toy distribution and Mrs. R. E. Pettis of the Christmas baskets.

"Pay As You Enter" to Be Given Jan. 12-13 By Deerfield Legion

Rehearsals are progressing satisfactorily, announces Kenneth Hunter, director of Pay As You Enter, the Deerfield Legion post play to be presented Jan. 12-13 in the Deerfield grammar school auditorium.

Choice of cast has proven to be exceedingly apt, he announces and the public of Deerfield may expect a production that will equal or surpass previous efforts of the Deerfield Civic Players.

An opening chorus of between fifty and one hundred school children has been announced by the committee. Direction of the portion of the two evenings' entertainment is in the hands of Carl Bates, principal of the school, and his staff of teachers.

Other features are being considered for between the acts of the comedy which, it is expected, will provide three hours of novel entertainment for the villagers and their friends.

W. K. Hout, chairman of the Legion show committee, has announced that orders for reserved seats may be placed at the Deerfield Pharmacy without extra charge if made on or before Jan. 10

In keeping with a good old theatrical custom, Arthur Borchardt, president of the Players, is having easels bearing photographs of the cast placed in various stores in the village. This novelty advertisement will undoubtedly arouse much interest in the forthcoming production.

Give the Canadians credit. They had a mutiny in one of their prisons, and did not claim that it was caused by American movies.

An American in England was giving some illustrations of the size of his country.

"You can board a train in the State of Texas at dawn," he said, impressively, "and twenty-four hours later you'll still be in Texas!"

"Yes," said one of his English listeners, with feigning, "we've got trains like that here, too."
