

DEERFIELD LOCAL NEWS

Local and Personal of Deerfield

Mr. and Mrs. Burr H. Kress celebrated their forty-first wedding anniversary at a family supper on Monday evening at their home on Hazel avenue.

Miss Roberta Van Arsdale returned Monday to her home in Downers Grove after a week's visit with her cousin Dorothy Vetter at the J. L. Vetter home.

Mrs. G. Albert Willen was called to Appleton, Wis., on Saturday because of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Alex Sauter (Irene Grootemont), but death came before Mrs. Willen's arrival due to influenza-pneumonia. Mr. Willen left Monday for Appleton with relatives from Wilmette to attend the funeral on Tuesday. Mrs. I. Rapp remained with the Willen children.

The Tuesday Evening Sewing club which was to have met this week at the home of Mrs. Harold Youngs has been postponed because of the death of Mrs. G. A. Willen's sister.

Miss Phyllis Seago, home from the University of Oklahoma for the holidays, has been very ill with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Miller were hosts at a party on New Year's eve.

Marilyn Gagne of Chicago visited her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. William Plagge several days last week. Her little brother Jack who lives with the Plagges and her cousin Dorothy Jacobson returned to Chicago on Friday with her and spent the week-end at the Edward Gagne home.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Lowe of Sullivan, Ill., spent the holidays with Mrs. Lowe's sister, Mrs. W. K. Hout of Warrington road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson and daughter Doris Jean spent New Year's day with Mrs. Peterson's grandmother Mrs. John Hatch in Maywood. The previous Sunday the Petersons spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. James Macadie in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Anderson were guests at the Montague Rasmussen home in Lake Forest on New Year's eve.

Miss Josephine Woodman has moved to the lower apartment in her home and has rented the upper flat to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milligan of County Line road who moved in this past week.

Edwin P. Osterman is ill with a foot infection. Mrs. Osterman, who has been ill for several weeks, is still quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kress returned Friday from a visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kress in Rutherford, New Jersey.

A meeting of the executive committee of the W.M.S. was held Tuesday afternoon at the Bethlehem Evangelical church. The yearly program was made and plans for 1933 were discussed.

The Independent Social club will meet Wednesday afternoon January 11 at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Virginia Hicks with Mrs. W. J. Button as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Wessling had as their dinner guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wessling and two daughters Virginia and Roma, and Mr. Roy Baxman of Northbrook and Mrs. Wessling's sister, Miss Bertha Freese.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman and daughter Nancy of Whitefish Bay, Wis. were the New Year's day guests of Mr. Willman's mother, Mrs. J. C. Willman.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meurisse and two children of Dubuque, Iowa, were the holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Selig.

The members of the adult choir of the Holy Cross church were entertained at a theater party on Friday afternoon. They saw "The Cat and the Fiddle" at the Apollo theater in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Olendorf spent Christmas with Mrs. Olendorf's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, in Racine. Mrs. Olendorf's sister returned to spend the week with them.

Mrs. Harry Muhlke entertained on Friday in compliment to Mrs. Hubert Walker (Margaret Hunt) of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rockenbach were the New Year's day guests of Mr. and Mrs. William White in Chicago.

Mrs. John Stryker entertained the girls of her Sunday school class at a party last Thursday afternoon at her home on West Deerfield avenue.

Newly elected officers of the Y.P.M.C. met Tuesday evening at the John Stryker home to plan the yearly program. On the previous Tuesday evening the out going officers were entertained at the Stryker home.

A meeting of the Deerfield Volunteer Fire Department was held Tuesday evening at the Fire station. The L.L.L. club will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Edna Block in Highland Park.

The Tri C society gave a roller skating party last night at the Libertyville rink and had as their guests, members of the L.L.L. club.

Misses Mabel and Florence Page were hostesses at a New Year's eve party.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krause and children were the New Year's day guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Schaumberg in Oak Park.

Mrs. Richard Sims returned to the Scully Sr. home on Saturday after a week's visit with her son George Sims in Chicago.

The annual New Year's greetings from the village of Deerfield in the form of assessments were mailed out to property owners on Thursday, Dec. 29.

Edgar Scully was host at a New Year's eve party.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson entertained thirty guests on Monday in honor of their nephew who arrived last week from Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steiner had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Agkerbeck of Crystal Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Scully Jr. and family were the guests of Mr. Scully's uncle, Mr. John Sims, in Chicago, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Willman were Sunday guests at the Churchill home in Morton Grove.

Miss Frances Amerman of Wilton, Wis. is spending the week with Mrs. Vaughn W. Spriggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Frantz visited Mr. Frantz's mother, Mrs. Eli Frantz in Chicago on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger entertained relatives at dinner on Sunday. Mrs. Mary Entors and Mrs. Leanna Wessling of Wheeling were the out of town guests.

Noel Ott and Irving Pries have returned to their home in Hawkeye, Iowa after a visit at the C. A. Selig home and with other relatives in this vicinity.

The village board met Monday evening in the Masonic temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranson Tyler of Milwaukee were the week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. V. W. Spriggs.

Mrs. Floyd Stanger entertained a few friends on Thursday evening at her home on Forest avenue.

Mrs. Henry Meyer is still very ill at the home of her son, Albert Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hancke of Chicago spent Monday at the George Ott home. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ott were Sunday guests of the George Otts.

Mrs. Louis A. Johnston of Forest avenue attended the funeral of her father in Chicago last week.

Members of the Mutual club sent gifts to the children in the Children's Memorial hospital, to children in the Dorcas Home and remembered the shuf-ins of the community also, this past week. The January meeting of this club will be held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Stanger.

A surprise party was given at the William Neville home on Thursday afternoon in honor of the three oldest members Mrs. William Huhn, Mrs. Virginia Hicks and Mrs. William Neville of Dorcas Circle Four. Jean Pettis spent the week-end as the guest of Retta Ree Hipsley of Northbrook.

Mrs. Emil Fredricks entertained her club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stoeffel spent the holidays with relatives in Iowa.

Mrs. Mary Sherman and son Dwight visited at the E. Meintzer home in Northbrook on Friday.

The Dorcas society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday, January 5 at Mrs. Fred Meyer's home.

Lowell Meintzer is proudly displaying many greeting cards from Chicago's and New York's most celebrated radio stars.

Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Bruso spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. John Fedoskey Jr. in Chicago.

Dorothy Wessling spent the week-end with Marie Jane and June Friedlund in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hertel and four children and Mrs. Carl Hertel spent last Sunday with the Albert Wildhagens in Prairie View.

Milton Frantz is rebuilding his house, which was burned several weeks ago.

Mrs. Frank Jacobs Jr. entertained the teachers and officers of St. Paul's church on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoy spent the holidays in Danville, Ill.

Mrs. Sophia Bruso of Chicago spent last week with her son Rev. E. J. Bruso.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Willman were hosts at a New Year's party at their home on Greenwood avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson entertained eight at dinner and bridge last Monday evening at their home on Knollwood road.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hunt and family of Fair Oaks avenue, and Mrs. Hunt's sister, Miss Elizabeth Weimer, were visitors at the J. Rannell's Cadmore farm on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Harris who reside in the G. D. Richards house on Fair Oaks avenue spent the holidays in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shulder and children of Chicago were guests on Monday at the Emil Fredricks home.

Mrs. G. Albert Willen entertained at a luncheon bridge last Thursday at her home on Springfield avenue.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. and Mrs. R. E. Pettis were the guests of Mrs. William S. Heath of Austin on Thursday.

The installation of officers of the Deerfield camp, R.N.A., has been postponed to January 26, to allow members to attend the Deerfield Dramatic production "Pay As You Enter" January 12 and 13.

The united choirs of the Bethany and Bethlehem Evangelical churches presented their Christmas cantata for the third time on Tuesday evening at the Guard house in Fort Sheridan before an audience of about 125 prisoners. "Tidings of Great Joy" had previously been given Christmas day at the Bethany church in Highland Park and on last Tuesday evening at the Highwood Swedish church.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emil Fredricks.

Lowell Meintzer and Wilfred Miesner spent Friday of last week in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stadler and two children and Mrs. Stadler Sr. visited Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Pettis of Waukegan on Thursday.

Mrs. Herbert Roll has been ill with bronchitis.

The J. P. Condon family spent the holidays with relatives in Iowa.

Mrs. W. K. Hout entertained her bridge club at luncheon on Wednesday.

Orval Fredricks and Herbert Hertel have returned this week from an automobile trip to West Virginia.