D.A.R. Better Films
Committee Review

All the pictures this coming week, after "Faithless" on Thursday, can be enjoyed by the entire family.

"Hot Saturday" on Friday and Saturday is a tale of a small town scandal. In addition to this picture on Saturday, Tom Mix in "The Fourth Horseman," will be given on the afternoon and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" in the evening.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday is

"Prosperity" with Marie Dressler and Polly Moran. This picture is called a good "timely amusement for the depression." It is human appealing and laughable.

"He Learned About Women" on Wednesday, is an amusing love story of a bookist and totally inexperienced young man who attempts to justify a substantial inheritance by a life of good deeds. His exciting encounters with persons of various ethical standards make a delightfully amusing film.
