

Local and Personal of Deerfield

Mrs. Irving Brand is spending today (Thursday) with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. English in Evanston.

The Tuesday Evening Sewing club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Harold Youngs of Todd court.

The Garden club of Deerfield will join with the Ravinia, Highland Park and Bannockburn Garden clubs at a meeting of the Community Garden class at the Highland Park Woman's club on Friday, Jan. 13, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Edith Banghart of Medinah, Wash., will be the speaker.

A Lake Forest woman fell out of an automobile in the Deerfield business section last Tuesday afternoon and was struck by the car following behind. First aid was administered in Hout's Drug store and she was removed to the Highland Park hospital.

Tickets for "At Madame Del-gay's" an amusing comic opera, may be obtained from Mrs. S. M. Gooder, Mrs. M. O. Hopkins or Mrs. W. F. Lockridge. The play is to be presented in the Deerfield-Shields high school auditorium on Friday evening, Jan. 20, at 8:15 o'clock for the benefit of the high school relief fund. A group of high school students will assist the three members of the committee and Deerfield people who are planning to attend the play are urged to buy their tickets from a local representative.

The D. A. Hastings family have moved from Deerfield to Highland Park where they have taken a home on Ridgewood drive.

Illustrated Talk on Sweden Is Enjoyed

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Miller of Chicago were the guest speakers at the Deerfield Rotary club last Thursday at their luncheon at Miss Galloway's Tea room. Mr. Miller, who was introduced by his friend, Carl Witt, Deerfield's genial tailor, gave an interesting talk on Sweden, illustrated with motion pictures, which he and his wife had taken last year when they conducted a tour for a party of Chicagoans to Sweden on the Swedish-American Line.

His talk included experiences on the Atlantic, a Göta Canal trip, scenes of timber floating, gorgeous water falls, mountain climbing, Lapplander's encampment and the beautiful mid-night sun.

The pictures were of such recent date that they were followed with great interest by the entire audience.

Mrs. Miller delighted the guests with Swedish music and sang Folk Songs to her own accompaniment between the reels.

Rotarian F. G. Piepenbrok has asked Mr. and Mrs. Miller to appear at a later date at St. Paul's Evangelical church so that the entire community may enjoy this interesting, educational and profitable talk on Sweden. Mrs. Miller will appear in national costume.

Today's Rotary meeting is an open forum for discussing Rotary affairs.

Deerfield Bowling League Standings

Much interest is being shown this season by the six teams bowling each Thursday evening at the Arno Frantz home. Last week the Wolves defeated the Bears 3 to 2. High individual scores in the Bungalow (Bethlehem) league are held by Arno Frantz, Bruce Frost, Arthur Cashmore and Donald Easton.

Deerfield Garden Club Meets Jan. 18

The Garden club of Deerfield will meet Wednesday, Jan. 18, at the home of the president, Mrs. E. J. Ginter in Banonekburn.
