Yoshio Fushimi and D. A. Kittermaster in Ping Pong Game Here

A special exhibition ping pong match between Yoshio Fushimi, the eighth ranking player in this country, and D. A. Kittermaster, of Highland Park, champion singles player of Lake county, will be a feature of the next meeting of the Men's Fellowship Club of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church on Friday evening of next week, Jan. 27, at the church.

Robert Clark, of Highland Park, one of the country's ranking players and a brother of Coleman Clark, national champion, will referee the exhibition match and exhibit a few of his strokes.

"Technocracy — A Fad or a Fact?" is the subject to be discussed at the meeting by Prof. Stuart P. Meech, associate professor of finance in the School of Business at the University of Chicago. The meeting of the club has been purposely arranged to follow by two days the Orchestra Hall address of Howard Scott, the so-called "head" of the new "science" of technocracy.

Community Dinner Program in Evanston

A North Shore community dinner program will be given Monday, Jan. 23, at 6:30 p.m. at the Orrington hotel in Evanston. The subject will be "A Religious Community Task."

Toastmaster will be Rev. Charles H. Heimsath, First Baptist church, Evanston, and invocation and grace by Dr. Frederick Grant, Western Theological seminary.

Introduction of the speaker will be made by Ernest Freemont Tittle, of the First Methodist Church of Evanston, and the address will be by Bishop Ernest Lynn Waldorf of the Chicago Area of the Methodist church. His subject will be "Combined Religious and Moral Forces and Their Waiting Task."

Five-minute talks will be given by Edna Dean Baker, president of the National College of Education, on the topic, "Thinking in Terms of Children"; Chancellor L. Jenks, long time Evanston citizen; Bishop George Craig Stewart; and Dr. James A. James, Northwestern University, topic, "Practical Application in Our Community."

The benediction will be pronounced by Rev. R. Mondale, Unitarian Church, Evanston.

Highland Park residents may make reservations for this dinner by calling Mrs. E. R. Phelps, 275 Prospect avenue, telephone Highland Park 262.

Display Alaskan Furs

Victor Brothers company, manufacturing furriers, 368 Central avenue, Highland Park, are showing a new shipment of wild Alaskan silver fox skins sent direct from Alaskan trappers with whom Martin Victor, Jr., made personal business connections two years ago when he "mushed" Alaskan trading fields. The majority of the skins used by Victor Brothers come through this same channel, it is announced. The skins on display are in the "raw" and this season's "catch." They are interesting to see.

Woman's Republican Club To Present Speakers At Its Meeting On Monday

The Woman's National Republican club of Highland Park is to meet at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Highland Park Public library.

Speakers scheduled are Richard J. Lyons, state representative; Ray Paddock, state senator; William Obee, supervisor of Deerfield township and distributor of its Poor Relief fund; Mrs. Raymond W. Flinn, director of the Social Service committee; Charles G. Mason, states attorney; and V. William Briddle, Highland Park attorney.

Among other subjects of interest the members of this organization will hear of how the Unemployment Relief fund is being administered and of new projects by the Relief committee planned to render greater service to the community.

The meeting promises to be of great interest and it is hoped that all the members will take advantage of this opportunity to get current news of the political affairs of Illinois and to become better acquainted with our Lake county officials.

All women interested in becoming members of this organization may notify the chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. Herbert Nunn, telephone H. P. 436.

Ravinia Volleyball Classes Are Growing

Last Thursday the volleyball class at the Ravinia Community House was a "whopper," the turnout being the largest of the year. Teams were chosen and a small volleyball tournament was soon in progress.

Do you live in Ravinia? Do you like to play volleyball? If you do, you surely are welcome to come to this interesting gym class.

Howard Copp is leader of this activity. Go down tonight (Thursday) at about 8 and see for yourself.
